supernatural thriller about a mysterious global event set in an Australian rural town It began in every town and city at the same time in every dark and twisted corner of our world One third of the earth s citizens were asleep at the time Their awakening was marked by horror and confusion Just about everyone else had their routine interrupted as they witnessed the event with eyes wide open They prayed it was a dream In the small sleepy town of Gattan population 7448 it happened at eleven o clock on a Saturday morning At the local soccer field only one boy aged ten years and one week remained standing as the brothers sisters and parents of his teammates realised the horror they were witnessing Their screams split the sky One hundred and thirty million died that first day Every day since on the morning of a child s ninth birthday it happens again No one knows why The ongoing horror becomes known as Orpheus Nine and bereft parents cruelly labelled Orpheans Global leaders have no answers as chaos takes hold Conspiracy theories and violence spread as scientists wrestle with the ongoing toll and anxious citizens and militant Orpheans try to take matters into their own hands In Gattian the chasm between life before and after grows wider for three old friends now parents They struggle with waves of grief at the loss of one child guilt at one child s survival and anger as another child edges closer to their birthday No matter the cost each of the friends attempt to fight the unfathomable in their own way But the reality is the clock keeps ticking the world order is crumbling and the gods are watching From the bestselling author of Mammoth comes a propulsive and spine chilling thriller that prompts the question is this the end of days or the start of something new mysterious comedic terrifying and unexpectedly moving
