Social Change And Economic Reform In Africa:

Social Change and Economic Reform in Africa Peter Gibbon, Nordiska Afrikainstitutet, 1993 The Palgrave Handbook of African Political Economy Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2020-06-23 This handbook constitutes a specialist single compendium that analyses African political economy in its theoretical historical and policy dimensions It emphasizes the uniqueness of African political economy within a global capitalist system that is ever changing and complex Chapters in the book discuss how domestic and international political economic forces have shaped and continue to shape development outcomes on the continent Contributors also provoke new thinking on theories and policies to better position the continent's economy to be a critical global force The uniqueness of the handbook lies in linking theory and praxis with the past future and various dimensions of the political economy of Africa Structural Adjustment and Socio-economic Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Peter Gibbon, Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 1996 This report summarises the results of work at the Nordiska Afrikainstitutet Nordic Africa Institute NAI on the impact of structural adjustment implementation on the economies states and societies of sub Saharan Africa It consists of two essays and an appendix listing research projects which have been or are being carried out under the auspices of NAI The first essay raises a series of conceptual and methodological questions in the context of a presentation of some of the main empirical results obtained from extended field work carried out during the course of 1992 and 1993 in Kenya Tanzania and Zimbabwe The second essay presents the three main themes private trading networks and structures the changing political economy of land and popular forms of social provisioning that constitute the core of the second phase of NAI's structural adjustment research and in so doing provides a review of aspects of the adjustment literature This report is therefore an attempt both at stock taking and agenda building as part of a wider quest for deepening our understanding of the structures and processes of socio economic change associated with the crisis and adjustment years in contemporary Africa Crisis and Neoliberal Reforms in Africa Piet Konings, 2010-12-01 This book discusses the social and political consequences of the economic and financial crisis that befell African economies since the 1980s using as case study the plantation economy of the Anglophone region of Cameroon The focus is thus on recent efforts to liberalize and privatize an agro industrial enterprise where overseas capital and its domestic partners have converged the consequent modes of production and labour and the alternatives proposed and resistance generated The study details how the unprecedented crisis caused great commotion in the region and presented a serious challenge to existing theories on plantation production and capital accumulation The crisis resulted in the introduction of a number of neoliberal economic reforms including the withdrawal of state intervention and the restructuring liquidation and privatisation of the major agro industrial enterprises These reforms in turn had severe consequences for several civil society groups and their organisations that had a direct stake in the regional plantation economy notably the regional elite chiefs plantation workers and contract farmers On the basis of extensive research in the Anglophone Cameroon region Konings shows that these civil society groups have never resigned themselves to their fate but have been actively involved in a variety of formal and informal modes of resistance

The Changing Forms of Identity Politics in Nigeria Under Economic Adjustment Cyril I. Obi, 2001 The Niger delta region of Nigeria which is at the heart of the country's oil industry has a long history of struggles for self determination dating back to the early years of the 20th century In the 1980s and 1990s these struggles unfolding as they did within the context of military authoritarianism and structural adjustment took the form of widespread agitation for greater control by local communities of the revenues accruing to the Nigerian state from exploration and extraction of oil This study attempts to capture the transformations in ethnic minority identity politics in the oil producing areas of the Niger delta In doing this attention is simultaneously drawn to the factors informing the shift from peaceful agitation to violent protest as well as the dynamic of decay and renewal in the various ethnic minority movements that are active in the delta It is suggested that part of the solution to the crisis in the delta will involve not only a thorough going restructuring of the Nigerian state but also the re orientation of the mode of operation of the giant oil multinationals in order to make them both more sensitive and accountable to the local communities

Women in the Age of Economic Transformation Nahid Aslanbeigui, Steven Pressman, Gale Summerfield, 1994 The editors conclude that this is unlikely to be random rather it reflects the social and political condition of women Addressing these issues is thus essential if the burden of economic transformation is to be distributed fairly

Intellectuals, Economic Reform and Social Change Yusuf Bangura, 1994

New Directions in Development Economics Mats Lundahl, Benno Ndulu, 2005-08-10 This volume is divided into two thematic parts economic growth or its absence in developing countries and contributions to the debate on the role of the state versus the market It outlines possible policy prescriptions of relevance both in the North and South

Politics and Economics of Africa Frank H. Columbus, Olufemi Wusu, 2001 A continent of vast diversity stretching from the deserts of the north through the equatorial tropics into the more temperate south Africa brims with challenges and issues This book collects a series of papers examining a number of these topics and how they impact African nations the United States and the global community The analyses also present possible solutions to some of the continent's most vexing problems as many of its nations chart a course of political and economic development

Structural Adjustment and the Working Poor in Zimbabwe Peter Gibbon, 1995 Presents three studies which examine the relationship between structural adjustment and changes in the social conditions of the working poor in Zimbabwe between 1990 and 1994 Includes a survey of conditions faced by formal sector workers in 18 larger scale industrial companies in 1993 a survey of the trading patterns consumption and intra and interhousehold relationships of 174 urban women traders in 1992 and 1993 and a study of changes in health and health services among 327 urban households and 300 households in a peasant farming area in 1992

Social Movements in Development Staffan Lindberg, Arni Sverrisson, 2016-07-27 Nationalist movements in the South have been superseded by a plethora of different social movements This book examines these new movements and considers emerging paradigms of organization and mobilization which are related to the role movements play in economic and political development The book analyzes a number of cases and their context and discusses the implications for social movement theory The focus is on social movements among underprivileged and middle class groups and the book is global in scope

Environmental Politics and Liberation in Contemporary Africa M.A. Salih, 2013-03-14 Nowadays the environment looms large in the analysis of conflict in developing societies and the precise role it plays is the subject of an ongoing debate The debate has moved on from the earlier but still popular notions of power struggles class struggles and ethnic conflicts to a perception of conflict as the product of intense group competition for resources Where the state controls the distribution of resources itself inevitably becomes party to conflicts whose bone of contention is access to state power as the most efficient means of gaining access to resources The resources in question are social health education transportation communication recreation etc and material land water housing jobs contracts licenses permits etc In parts of the world and especially in Africa diminishing resources and authoritarian state rule exacerbate group competition leading to political confrontation This is the line I have followed in analysing conflict in the Horn of Africa Markakis 1987 1998 Mohamed Salih's first contribution in this volume is to move the debate a step beyond this line which can be criticized as unduly materialist He does it by bringing culture into the realm of resources not only as a resource in itself but also as the agency that assigns natural resources their value Culture thus becomes a contextual element in conflict over resources whose value is culturally determined

The Pastor in a Changing Society Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha, 2014-10-07 This book examines how social change affects the role of the pastor in an African context Through field study in African churches author Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha explores how pastors work amid the tensions of rapid social change and suggests how pastors can constructively respond to social change by using it as an opportunity in their pastoral ministry Contemporary society is characterized by three cultural spheres the economic sphere the public sphere and the democratic or self governance rule the realities of which many pastors seem to overlook Church authorities seem to adhere rigidly to strict principles and rules without accommodating the realities of society Conversely a changing society demands that pastors work with the reality at hand leaving pastors caught between two conflicting tensions the pressure from church authorities and from a changing social reality The Pastor in a Changing Society seeks to help Tanzanian and African pastors rethink existing doctrines and practices in order to better respond to the reality of a changing society Education, Race, and Social Change in South Africa John A. Marcum, 2023-04-28 Education Race and Social Change in South Africa examines the deep rooted issues of higher education in South Africa highlighting the complex interplay between race politics and access to education Beginning with the colonial foundations of South African higher education in the early 19th century it traces the development of institutions such as the University of Cape Town and the University of Fort Hare reflecting the segregated nature of the education system As the country transitioned to a republic in the 20th century the policies of apartheid shaped the university landscape leading to the creation of separate institutions for various racial groups The book explores how these divisions have persisted particularly in the context of racial inequalities in enrollment and access to quality education with black students historically underrepresented in South Africa s leading universities The study also delves into the evolving nature of South African higher education in the face of racial segregation examining the impact of political shifts on the educational landscape With the rise of the National Party in 1948 and the implementation of strict segregation policies the book explores the creation of ethnic universities for non white students and the ongoing challenges faced by these institutions in providing quality education The book raises critical questions about the future of education in South Africa focusing on the need for reform to bridge the educational divide address teacher shortages and promote greater racial integration within universities It also considers the role of international collaboration and aid in fostering educational opportunities for black South Africans and suggests possible pathways for achieving equitable educational access This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982 The Elusive Prince of Denmark Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 1998 Background context to the governance debate Agricultural Marketing in Tropical Africa H. Laurens van der Laan, Tjalling Dijkstra, Aad van Tilburg, 2018-08-09 First published in 1999 this volume explores how African agriculture has always had a strong appeal for the people of the Netherlands This is due to 1 a long established interest in tropical agriculture going back to the days when Indonesia was a Dutch colony 2 a broad based desire to help the Third World and 3 the view that Tropical Africa is highly dependent on agriculture As practical expertise in Africa and systematic research on African agriculture grew specialization became both possible and necessary This volume reflects the specialization in marketing which has been welcomed by economists geographers and scholars of agricultural marketing In addition to a general introductory chapter this book includes five contributions on staple food grains two on export crops two on cattle and one on horticulture Nine of the

chapters are country specific covering Benin Burkina Faso Cameroon Cote d'Ivoire Ghana Kenya Sierra Leone Tanzania and Zambia

Issues in the Contemporary Politics of Sub-Saharan Africa G. Harrison, 2002-06-19 Graham Harrison investigates contemporary African politics by privileging the dynamics of political struggle and resistance Through the analysis of peasant politics debt and structural adjustment democratization and identity politics the author shows the importance of resistance and agency Detailed studies of Mozambique Nigeria and Burkina Faso demonstrate how political organization and resistance have been closely ingrained in particular post colonial trajectories An original and refreshing approach to the study of African politics this will be a useful textbook for upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students
