Social Role Of Art 34 Essays:

Left Shift John A. Walker, 2001-12-21 John Walker brings to vivid life a neglected period in twentieth century art history. He re-creates a time when visual fine artists under the impact of left wing politics, women's liberation and the gay movement were seeking to re-establish a social purpose. His story is one of a struggle for art by contending factions in the art world in which artists, curators, critics and organisations both establishment and alternative, key exhibitions, galleries and magazines all play a part. He offers welcome insight into the work of the key players and the many forms they used to express radical engagement in the events of the decade.

The Proletarian Wave Sunyoung Park, 2020-05-11 Socialist doctrines had an important influence on Korean writers and intellectuals of the early twentieth century. From the 1910s through the 1940s a veritable wave of anarchist, Marxist, nationalist and feminist leftist groups swept the cultural scene with differing agendas as well as shared demands for equality and social justice. In The Proletarian Wave Sunyoung Park reconstructs the complex mosaic of colonial leftist culture by focusing on literature as its most fertile and enduring expression. The book combines a general overview of the literary left with the intellectual portraits of four writers whose works exemplify the stylistic range and colonial inflection of socialist culture in a rapidly modernizing Korea. Bridging Marxist theory and postcolonial studies, Park confronts Western preconceptions about third world socialist cultures while interrogating modern cultural history from a post Cold War global perspective. The Proletarian Wave provides the first historical account in English of the complex interrelations of literature and socialist ideology in colonial Korea. It details the origins, development and influence of a movement that has shaped twentieth century Korean politics and aesthetics alike through an analysis that simultaneously engages some of the most debated and pressing issues of literary historiography: Marxist criticism and postcolonial cultural studies.

Concerning Stephen Willats and the Social Function of Art Sharon Irish, 2020-12-10 This book on Stephen Willats pulls together key strands of his practice and threads them through histories of British cybernetics, experimental art and urban design. For Willats a cluster of concepts about control and feedback within living and machine systems, cybernetics offered a new means to make art relevant. For decades Willats has built relationships through art with people in tower blocks, underground clubs, middle class enclaves and warehouses on the Isle of Dogs to investigate their current conditions and future possibilities. Sharon Irish's study demonstrates the power of Willats's multi-media art to catalyze communication among participants and to upend ideas about audience and art. Here Irish argues that it is artists like Willats who are now the instigators of social transformation.

Leonardo, 1983 International journal of contemporary visual artists. Essays on International Law Graeme Baber, 2017-01-06 This book contains ten writings on different aspects of international law, each of them cross-referenced in instances in which information in one is relevant to points made in another. The first essay considers the character of the subject and its relation to other entities of relevance to it such as its compatibility with national law and its relation to maritime law. The second one considers different types of legal instruments in settings of international law and explains how to read a multilateral convention using the Convention for the International Sale of Goods as an example The third part discusses the characteristics of a state and the concept of recognition the fourth reviews the various roles that institutions take in international law concentrating in particular on major regional organisations and the fifth explores the extent to which the World Trade Organisation and the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade provide for developing countries Essay Six summarises the framework for international labour law and investigates its contents and workings then the seventh considers which countries predominate in the running of international institutions The eighth paper explores how regional entities might co operate with international institutions in the harmonisation of the law and the ninth one investigates the place of negotiation as a method of international dispute resolution Finally the tenth essay considers the past present and future of international law and reviews especially the role of language

The Essay Film After Fact and Fiction Nora M. Alter, 2018-01-02 Nora M Alter reveals the essay film to be a hybrid genre that fuses the categories of feature art and documentary film Like its literary predecessor the essay film draws on a variety of forms and approaches in the process it fundamentally alters the shape of cinema The Essay Film After Fact and Fiction locates the genre's origins in early silent cinema and follows its transformation with the advent of sound its legitimization in the postwar period and its multifaceted development at the turn of the millennium In addition to exploring the broader history of the essay film Alter addresses the innovative ways contemporary artists such as Martha Rosler Isaac Julien Harun Farocki John Akomfrah and Hito Steyerl have taken up the essay film in their work

Studies on the Abuse & Decline of Reason F.A. Hayek, 2024-05-31 Studies on the Abuse and Decline of Reason is a series of fascinating essays on the study of social phenomena How to best and most accurately study social interactions has long been debated intensely and there are two main approaches the positivists who ignore intent and belief and draw on methods based in the sciences and the nonpositivists who argue that opinions and ideas drive action and are central to understanding social behavior F A Hayek's opposition to the positivists and their claims to scientific rigor and certainty in the study of human behavior is a running theme of this important book Hayek argues that the vast number of elements whose interactions create social structures and institutions make it unlikely that social science can predict precise outcomes Instead he contends we should strive to simply understand the principles by which phenomena are produced For Hayek this modesty of aspirations went hand in hand with his concern over widespread enthusiasm for economic planning As a result these essays are relevant to ongoing debates within the social sciences and to discussion about the role government can and should play in the economy

The Critical Twilight (Routledge Revivals) John Fekete, 2014-08-07 First published in 1977 this book was the first to map extensively the ideological typography of the Anglo American tradition of literary theory It interrogates comprehensively and in detail the assumptions and categorical development within critical ideas from I A Richards and T S Eliot through John Crowe Ransom and the New Criticism to Northrop Frye and Marshall McLuhan This analysis reveals the Anglo American tradition of literary cultural theory is most properly intelligible within the overall field of social consciousness as an ideology of progressive cultural rationalization Against a background of ideological development since nineteenth century Romanticism John Fekete illuminates the boundaries of literary ideology in relation to the shapes and changes of modern culture and society Art Index Alice Maria Dougan, Margaret Furlong, 1983 Women Artists in Interwar France Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artists Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimaged art s conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum s study redresses this omission contextualizing the group s legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group s artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum s extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years The Performance of Middle English Culture James J. Paxson, Lawrence M. Clopper, Sylvia Tomasch, 1998 First detailed examination of theatricality in Chaucer and in Middle English literature and culture as a whole Theatricality as a cultural process is vitally important in the middle ages it encompasses not only the thematic importation of dramatic images into the Canterbury Tales but also the social and ideological performativities of the mystery and morality plays metadramatic investments and the ludic energies of Chaucerian discourses in general The twelve essays collected here address for the first time this intersection using contemporary theory and historical scholarship to treat a number of important critical problems including the anthropology of theatrical performance gender allegory Chaucerian metapoetics intertextual play and jouissance social mediation and rhetoric genre and the institutionality of medieval studies JAMES J PAXSON is Associate Professor of English at the University of Florida LAWRENCE M CLOPPER is Professor of English at Indiana University SYLVIA TOMASCH is Associate Professor of English at Hunter College City University of New York Contributors KATHLEEN ASHLEY MARLENE CLARK RICHARD DANIELS ALFRED DAVID RICHARD K EMMERSON JOHN GANIM WARREN GINSBERG ROBERT W HANNING SHARON KRAUS SETH LERER WILLIAM MCLELLAN PAMELA SHEINGORN PETER W TRAVIS Epic Negation C.D. Blanton, 2015-03-12 The history of the epic ranging from the heroic narratives of cultural origin found in Homer and Virgil to the tumultuous theological and political conflicts depicted by Dante or Milton is nearly as old as literature itself But the epic is also made and remade by its present adapted to the pressures and formal necessities of its particular cultural moment Examining modernist poetry's epic turn in the years between the two World Wars C D Blanton's ambitious study charts the inversion of what Ezra Pound called a poem including history into a fractured and hollowed form a negated epic that struggles not only to acknowledge the distant past but also to conceive its immediate present Compelled to register the force of a larger historical totality it cannot directly represent the negated epic reorients the function of poetic language trading expression or signification for concrete but often buried reference remaking the poem as an instrument of dialectical reason in the process Epic Negation turns first to T S Eliot productively pairing The Waste Land with The Criterion the literary review it announced in 1922 to argue that Eliot's journal systematically realizes the editorial and critical method through which modernism's epochal poem sought to think its moment whole developing a totalizing account of interwar culture Dividing the epic's critical function from its style The Criterion not only includes history differently but also formulates an intricately dialectical account of the crisis facing bourgeois society formed in the image of a Marxism it opposes World War II's approach serves to organize the second half of Blanton's study as he traces the dislocated formal effects of a serial epic gone underground In the tense elegies and pastorals of W H Auden and Louis MacNeice lyric forms cryptically divulge the determining force of unmentionable but universal events dividing experience against consciousness what can be said in a poem from what cannot And finally with H D's Trilogy written under bombardment in a terse exchange with Freud's famous rewriting of biblical history in Moses and Monotheism the poetic image itself lapses consigning epic to the silent historical force of the unconscious Uniquely conceived and deftly executed Epic Negation transforms our understanding of modernist poetics and the concept of epic more broadly
