

On the Sociohistorical Construction of Social and Economic Reserves Across the Life Course and on Their Use in Old Age

Michel Oris, Marie Baeriswyl, Aline Duvoisin, Rainer Gabriel, Myriam Girardin, Julia Henke, Barbara Masotti, Aude Tholomier, and Eric Widmer

From 2010 onwards, a line of research emerged within the LIVES project (see Spini & Widmer, 2022) that focused on older adults and emphasised the dynamic relationships between progress and inequality. This research was based on the main hypothesis of a growing divide between a majority who benefit from better health and living conditions in old age and a

Sociohistorical Precursors Of Economic Rationalis

Joseph A. Schumpeter

Sociohistorical Precursors Of Economic Rationalis:

Leadership for School Improvement in the Caribbean Austin Ezenne, 2010-06-01 The chapters in this book should stimulate the reader not only to think about the kind of leadership that is needed to improve schools in the Caribbean using schools in the widest sense to range from early childhood to higher education institutions but also other forms of support The book deals in detail with issues of leadership At the theoretical level there is exploration of appropriate models of leadership in the effort to create effective schools At the practical level the importance of the principal's role is explored This book is very timely and should prove informative not only to current and prospective leaders but also to students and scholars both locally and internationally with an interest in Caribbean education The chapters are written in a sufficiently user friendly style to be of interest also to the general public who want to see the process of transformation realised in our education systems

Socio-Historical Precursors of Economic Rationalism in Australian Education Beatrice Boufof-Bastick, 2003 This is a scholarly work of interest to teacher trainers and trainees to sociology and history lecturers and to students of educational and social policies in former British colonies It provides a concise overview of two hundred years of colonial and post colonial education and simply captures and reports the major socio economic features which have spurred educational changes since the establishment of state education in Australia An important aspect of Dr Boufof Bastick's work is that it brings to light some simplifying principles for integrating salient socio historical changes for the investigation of current and future changes in education

Herbert Marcuse and the Crisis of Marxism Douglas Kellner, 1984 Critical overview of the entirety of Marcuse's work and discusses his enduring importance Kellner had extensive interviews with Marcuse and provides hitherto unknown information about his road to Marxism his relations with Heidegger and Existentialism his involvement with the Frankfurt School and his reasons for appropriating Freud in the 1950s In addition Kellner provides a novel interpretation of the genesis and structure of Marcuse's theory of one dimensional society of the development of his political theory and of the role of aesthetics in his critical theory

Max Weber, Rationality and Modernity

Sam Whimster, Dr Scott Lash, 2014-04-04 This book brings together leading figures in history sociology political science feminism and critical theory to interpret evaluate criticize and update Weber's legacy In a collection of specially commissioned pieces and translated articles the Weberian scholarship recognizes Max Weber as the figure central to contemporary debates on the need for societal rationality the limits of reason and the place of culture and conduct in the supposedly post religious age In Part 1 Wolfgang Mommsen Wilhelm Hennis Guenther Roth and Wolfgang Schluchter provide a full and varied account of the theme of rationalization in the world civilizations In Part 2 Pierre Bourdieu and Barry Hindess critically examine Weber's social action model and Johannes Weiss and Martin Albrow address the putative crisis of Western rationality In Part 3 Jeffrey Alexander Ralph Schroeder Bryan Turner Roslyn Bologh and Sam Whimster scrutinize Weber's understanding of modernity with its characteristic plurality of gods and demons they focus on its implications for individuality and personality the body and sexuality feminism and aesthetic modernism Part 4 turns to politics law and the state in the contemporary world Colin Gordon on liberalism Luciano Cavalli on charismatic politics Stephen Turner and Regis Factor on decisionism and power and Scott Lash on modernism substance rationality and law This book was first published in 1987 After the Death of God Espen Hammer, 2025-03-22 A fresh history of nineteenth century philosophy's many ideas about secularization The secularization thesis which held that religious belief would gradually yield to rationality has been thoroughly debunked What then can we learn from philosophers for whom the death of God seemed so imminent In this book Espen Hammer offers a sweeping analysis of secularization in nineteenth century German philosophy arguing that the persistence of religion rather than its absence animated this tradition Hammer shows that Kant Hegel Feuerbach Marx and Nietzsche each in their own way sought to preserve and transform religion's ethical and communal aspirations for modern life A renewed appreciation for this tradition's generous thought Hammer argues can help us chart a path through needlessly destructive conflicts between secularists and fundamentalists today Avant-garde Jazz Musicians David Glen Such, 1993 American Studies, 1983
