

SONNET 147

My love is as a fever, longing still
For that which longer nurseth the disease,
Feeding on that which doth preserve the ill,
Th' uncertain sickly appetite to please.

My reason, the physician to my love,
Angry that his prescriptions are not kept,
Hath left me, and I desperate now approve Desire is death, which physic did except.
Past cure I am, now reason is past care,
And frantic-mad with evermore unrest
My thoughts and my discourse as madmen's are,

At random from the truth vainly expressed
For I have sworn thee fair, and thought thee bright,

Who art as black as hell, as dark as night

Sonnets For Our Risorgimento:

Sonnets for Our Risorgimento John J. Soldo, 1993-01-01 Poems for the Millennium, Volume Three Jerome Rothenberg, Jeffrey C. Robinson, 2009-01-19 The previous two volumes of this acclaimed anthology set forth a globally decentered revision of twentieth century poetry from the perspective of its many avant gardes Now editors Jerome Rothenberg and Jeffrey C Robinson bring a radically new interpretation to the poetry of the preceding century viewing the work of the romantic and post romantic poets as an international collective often utopian enterprise that became the foundation of experimental modernism Global in its range volume three gathers selections from the poetry and manifestos of canonical poets as well as the work of lesser known but equally radical poets Defining romanticism as experimental and visionary Rothenberg and Robinson feature prose poetry verbal visual experiments and sound poetry along with more familiar forms seen here as if for the first time The anthology also explores romanticism outside the European orbit and includes ethnopoetic and archaeological works outside the literary mainstream The range of volume three and its skewing of the traditional canon illuminate the process by which romantics and post romantics challenged nineteenth century orthodoxies and propelled poetry to the experiments of a later modernism and avant gardism Lives of the Sonnet, 1787-1895 Marianne Van Remoortel, 2016-05-06 In a series of representative case studies Marianne Van Remoortel traces the development of the sonnet during intense moments of change and stability continuity and conflict from the early Romantic period to the end of the nineteenth century Paying particular attention to the role of the popular press which served as a venue of innovation and as a site of recruitment for aspiring authors Van Remoortel redefines the scope of the genre including the ways in which its development is intricately related to issues of gender Among her subjects are the Della Cruscans and their primary critic William Gifford the young Samuel Taylor Coleridge and his circle Elizabeth Barrett Browning s Sonnets from the Portuguese George Meredith s Modern Love Dante Gabriel Rossetti s House of Life and Augusta Webster s Mother and Daughter As women became a force to be reckoned with among the reading public and the writing community the term sonnet often operated as a satirical label that was not restricted to poetry adhering to the strict formalities of the genre Van Remoortel s study in its attentiveness to the sonnet s feminization during the late eighteenth century offers important insights into the ways in which changing attitudes about gender and genre shaped critics interpretations of the reception histories of nineteenth century sonnet sequences Elizabeth Barrett Browning: Selected Poems Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 2009-07-30 One of the leading poets of the nineteenth century Elizabeth Barrett Browning had a profound influence on her contemporaries and on writers that followed her This edition provides a rich and varied selection of Barrett Browning s poetry including relatively neglected material from her early career and works never before included in editions of her poetry The edition is comprehensively annotated and includes a critical introduction detailed headnotes for each poem also provide the reader with a deep understanding of the historical biographical and literary contexts in which the poems were written The extensive appendices include reviews and criticism and material on factory reform and slavery as well as religion and the Italian Question Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.),1916 The Modern Languages Forum ,1929 Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning Mary Sanders Pollock,2016-04-28 First published in 2003 this book examines the creative partnership of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning and provides a critical analysis of the poems written by this famous couple during the 16 year period of their friendship courtship and marriage Even quite early in their relationship the Brownings shared a frame of reference similar themes narrative structures and details of phrasing resonate in their works and suggest dialogue rather than merely mutual influence Pollock traces parallels between the Brownings lives and works even before they met and then throughout their courtship and married life suggesting that their creative dialogue continued after Barrett Browning died in 1861 as her presence and themes continued to inform Browning s poetry for at least a decade afterward The Athenaeum ,1889

Mediterranean Heritage (Routledge Revivals) David Fox,2014-06-17 Mediterranean Heritage first published in 1978 offers a wide ranging and perceptive discussion of the often concealed links between English culture and the common heritage of Western Europe the Graeco Roman legacy of the Mediterranean There seems to have been no time when England has not been in touch with the civilisations of Greece and Italy even Stonehenge the most dramatic survivor of our remotest past has a carved dagger of Mycenaean pattern among its ornaments The pioneers of a distinctly English creative vision Shakespeare Sidney Milton clearly looked to Italy Throughout the eighteenth century grand tourists found southern Europe irresistible The Romantics all became enraptured by the Mediterranean and passed on their fascination in some of the most passionate poetry in English Appearing at a time which England is more obviously a part of Europe than she has been for sixteen hundred years Mediterranean Heritage provides valuable insights into the origins of our culture s greatest achievements The Oxford Magazine ,1910 Performing National Identity ,2008-01-01 National identity is not some naturally given or metaphysically sanctioned racial or territorial essence that only needs to be conceptualised or spelt out in discursive texts it emerges from takes shape in and is constantly defined and redefined in individual and collective performances It is in performances ranging from the scenarios of everyday interactions to cultural performances such as pageants festivals political manifestations or sports to the artistic performances of music dance theatre literature the visual and culinary arts and more recent media that cultural identity and a sense of nationhood are fashioned National identity is not an essence one is born with but something acquired in and through performances Particularly important here are intercultural performances and transactions and that not only in a colonial and postcolonial dimension where such performative aspects have already been considered but also in inner European transactions Englishness or Britishness and Italianit the subject of this anthology are staged both within each culture and more importantly in joint performances of difference across cultural borders Performing difference highlights differences that make a difference it draws a line between self and other boundary lines that are however constantly being redrawn and renegotiated and remain instable and shifting MLN. ,1905 Provides image and full text online access to back issues Consult the online table of contents for specific holdings Modern Language Notes ,1916 Bulletin of the John Rylands Library John Rylands Library,1922
