easy categorizations of Milosz as the poet of Poland the poet of history the poet of the Holocaust He examines instead such crucial problems as Milosz's search for the essence of human nature irreducible to historical social and biological categories Milosz's reflection on the erosion of the Christian imagination which has resulted in a fundamental gap between the individual's inner life and the image of humanity formed by scientific theories his efforts to rebuild the anthropocentric vision of the world while acknowledging the elements that have undermined it and finally his attempt to recreate in his poetry a language that is both poetic and philosophical The Eternal Moment originally appeared in Polish in 1987 This version which quotes extensively from Milosz's Collected Poems is the first thorough introduction for English speaking readers to this major poet This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990
