Montreal Museum of Fine Arts, Collection of Mediterranean Antiquities, Vol. 4: The Coptic Textiles Wendy Landry, Rameau Anne-Laure, Richard Abigaëlle, 2019-11-26 This catalogue of the Coptic Textiles in the Collection of Mediterranean Antiquities at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts provides a detailed analysis of 64 textiles from both historical and weaving practice points of view This approach provides a fuller understanding of the cultural situation in which such textiles were produced and circulated Dr Landry's experience of over 40 years of weaving and scholarship highlights the elements of knowledge and skill held and applied by weavers in Antiquity. This perspective complements and expands on the focus on imagery usually provided by art historians regarding textiles of this period. This catalogue shows how much more cultural information can be accessed when the technical, economic and practical character of both production and use are adequately integrated into the study of material artefacts.

A History Of Textiles Kax Wilson, 2021-11-28. Originally published in 1979 this volume acts as a reference for the history of textiles. It asks questions on the effect of technology on textiles: how did particular historical periods and locations expand or limit the possibilities for the manufacture of fabrics and how the textile history related to politics and economics sociology and psychology art and engineering anthropology and archaeology chemistry and physics. Addressing these questions the author surveys the development of the technical components of fabrics and discusses the textiles of selected places and times. She uses prose drawings and more than 130 photographs to show how each era of textile production reflects its age. This book is designed to serve as a college text and as a reference work for museum researchers. With sections including illustrations and diagrams key terminology spinning wool spinning and raw materials single ply and cord and fabric construction

In-Between Textiles, 1400-1800 Beatriz Marín-Aguilera, Stefan Hanß, 2025-10-01. In Between Textiles is a decentred study of how textiles shaped disrupted and transformed subjectivities in the age of the first globalisation. The volume presents a radically cross disciplinary approach that brings together world leading anthropologists archaeologists art historians conservators curators historians scientists and weavers to reflect on the power of textiles to reshape increasingly contested identities on a global scale between 1400 and 1800. Contributors posit the concept of in between textiles building upon Homi Bhabha's notion of in betweenness as the actual material ground of the negotiation of cultural practices and meanings a site identified as the battleground over strategies of selfhood and the production of identity signs troubled by colonialism and consumerism across the world In Between Textiles establishes cutting edge conversations between textile studies critical cultural theory and material culture studies to examine how textiles created and challenged experiences of subjectivity relatedness and dis location that transformed social fabrics around the globe      Ferranti and the British Electrical Industry, 1864-1930 J. F. Wilson, 1988
