Grace to Love T. Fields,2017-07-31 God has given us such a gift called grace The fact that he gave this gift to us out of a selfless love just proves how much he loves us As you go through your day observe the many ways that God shows his love for you That same love is what he wants us to do our best to love others with You can do it because he has given you the grace to love not just those who are nice to you but those who mistreat you as well As you read through this book you will get a revelation of how the enemy attempts to keep you from fulfilling a command of Jesus in the New Testament that reminds us to practice walking in a genuine love daily *The Mystery of Faith Opened Up: Or, Some Sermons Concerning Faith ... Andrew GRAY (Minister of the Gospel in Glasgow.),1724 The Gospel of God Watchman Nee,1990-07 Pastoral Care Dr. Karen D. Scheib,2016-02-16 Christian pastoral care is a narrative ecclesial theological practice NET As a narrative practice pastoral care attends to the inseparable interconnection between our own lifestories others stories the larger cultural stories and God s story As a ministry of the church pastoral care is an ecclesial practice that derives its motivation purpose and identity from the larger mission of the church to bear witness to and embody God s mission of love that extends beyond the church for the transformation of the world As a theological practice pastoral care is grounded in God s love story God s profound love for humankind heals our brokenness when human love fails and invites us into an ongoing process of growth in love of God self and neighbor Intended for those who provide care with and on behalf of religious communities author Karen Scheib focuses on listening and restorying practices occurring in the context and setting of congregations By coauthoring narratives that promote healing and growth in love pastoral caregivers become cocreators and companions who help others revise and construct life stories reshaped by the grace of God What Karen Scheib has done in this book is to reposition pastoral care as a theological activity performed in the context of the church She draws deeply upon her Wesleyan theological heritage upon an understanding of life in its fullness as growth in love and grace and upon a communion ecclesiology undergirded by a communal understanding of the Trinitarian life of God Thus grounded she envisions pastoral care first as a rhythm of the life of the whole church and secondarily as a work of trained pastors In her vision pastoral care is rescued from a narrow understanding of it as exceptional acts of intervention performed only in moments of dire crisis Instead it becomes a daily practice of pastoral care an attending in love to the stories of others and a listening for ways God is already present in a life story Solidly theological grounded in the life of the church and eminently teachable Karen Scheib has given us a great gift in this book from the Foreword Thomas G Long Bandy Professor of Preaching Emeritus Candler School of Theology Emory University Atlanta GA In a wonderfully engaging reflective and useful way Karen Scheib captures something absolutely essential to pastoral care and yet often overlooked the utter centrality of storytelling listening the power of stories to heal and their vital connection to bigger stories told within religious communities This book is a real milestone reclaiming the importance of narrative knowing and grounding care not only in community but also within a comprehensive theological framework Bonnie J Miller McLemore E Rhodes and Leona B Carpenter Professor of Religion Psychology and Culture The Divinity School and Graduate Department of Religion Vanderbilt University Divinity School Nashville TN Implementing narrative personality and therapy theories and anchored in ecclesiology and Wesleyan theology NET Karen Scheib s book advances a long awaited and holistic approach to pastoral care Her NET approach presents the embodiment of pastoral care by emphasizing both narrative and paradigmatic knowing proposes the subjectivity of our stories in pastoral care by pointing out the interchangeability between us and our stories as subject and object and underscores the dynamic process of pastoral care through the interconnection of the storyteller listener and context Scheib s image of story companion contributes to the field as a new paradigm of pastoral care and promises to be a significant resource in generating hope and growth in love for both pastoral caregiver and receiver Angella Son Associate Professor Drew University Madison NJ Pastoral theologian Scheib describes a narrative ecclesial and theological approach for listening to people s life stories in such a way as to engender spiritual formation and growth in love Scheib clarifies the connections between caring conversations and Christian theology Clear and accessible prose as well as helpful exercises and discussion starters make this a fine teaching text The Christian Century Sept 29 2016 Megan's Love \(The Meisha's Love Series 4\) Dorita Kornelsen,2020-03-26 Megan moves from Chile to BC Canada She loves God s ways and plans for her life She loves being a child of God This is the Fourth book in the Meisha s Love Series *The complete works of Richard Sibbes, ed. with mem. by A.B. British Drama Korbinian Stöckl,2021-01-18 Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love s compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned The Love of Christ David Harsha,2025-05-30 In a world that abuses so much the very idea and scriptural doctrine of the love of Christ David Harsha gets us back to what the love of the Savior really means and what is the cost associated with it The author travels with us from the Incarnation of the Son of God through His sufferings and death and applies it to the bestowment of grace to the sinner But he does not stop there He expounds then on how the love of Christ brings comfort in the believer s life in many circumstances from the moments of joy and happiness to those times of affliction and even death He adds then over 25 witnesses of the love of Christ from the history of the Church and ends with bringing the reader to the perspective of being with Christ in glory the very blessedness of the saints This book was originally published in 1857 This edition has been proofread typeset for eBook readers and lightly updated for modern readers The Golden lamp; or, Truth in love for the children of God ,1885
