The Grand Cart:

Development of Southern French and Catalan Society, 718-1050 Archibald R. Lewis, 2014-05-12 Early in the eighth century the current of the Muslim movement that inundated northern Spain crept over the Pyrenees to spread across a portion of the French Midi From the north the tide of Carolingian conquest forced the Muslims back and took in these same southern French and northern Spanish provinces During the same era the Vikings raided intermittently and with varying degrees of intensity along the seacoasts and up the inland waterways sometimes controlling considerable areas for extended periods These raids and conquests inevitably affected the way of life of the people of southern France and Catalonia Contemporary travelers and later scholars have noted that the feudal traditions and obligations that were so strong in the north seemed very weak or nonexistent in the south They found that the land seemed to be held largely as allods not as feudal fiefs they saw that women held positions of surprising power that throughout the area there was great emphasis on money and that the traditions of Roman and Visigothic law still survived Although scholars have noted these differences no one has made a comprehensive study of southern French and Catalan society as a whole It is to fill this void that Archibald Lewis provides this volume In a detailed and scholarly study based largely upon original records and chronicles he examines the familial social economic governmental military and religious life of the area from 718 to 1050 A D Lewis gives as comprehensive a picture as the records will permit of the society that existed in the early eighth century describes and discusses the major changes which took place during the next three centuries and analyzes their causes and effects This study which includes careful and detailed notes and an extensive bibliography provides a reliable and long needed reference tool

The Grand Paloma Resort is a lush paradise in the Dominican Republic where the guests enjoy incredible luxury and the staff is always eager to please that is until they are pushed to the brink Laura is a local Dominican woman who through sheer hard work has risen through the ranks to become manager at the Grand Paloma Resort Her idea to pair a platinum guest with their own resort employee to attend to their every whim has been wildly successful and she s just weeks away from a promotion that could blaze a path for her off the resort and toward a life of opportunity If only her younger sister Elena who she s looked after since the death of their mother could get with the program Elena has tried to live up to her sister s expectations but to escape the drudgery of waiting on rich tourists she s become increasingly dependent on pills and partying As a babysitter at the resort she s at the beck and call of guests who are indulging their worst impulses and need someone else to watch their kids while they do so Now after an accident a child left in her charge is believed dead and Elena knows she ll be held responsible When Elena runs into the child s father at a nearby beachfront watering hole he offers her an obscene amount of money for private time with two young local girls Elena pockets the cash to fund her escape and prays she s gotten the girls out of harm s way But then the girls are reported missing Set over the course of seven days The Grand Paloma Resort offers an unforgettable story of class family and community building to an intense climax in which the true costs of luxury are laid bare redeemed only by true acts of love

The Man With His Head in the Clouds Richard O. Smith,2015-10-07 Hilarious enlightening and inspiring The Man with His Head in the Clouds is anything but ordinary Smith has artfully created a category defying juxtaposition of historical biography and autobiographical recovery story fun and accessible The Psychologist All human life is here served up with a light touch and keen sense of the ridiculous Dr Lucy Worsley Pure pleasure A brilliant blend of biography and self help and a bold book about ballooning The Man with His Head in the Clouds is nothing less than a trip Frances Wilson This is the story of how an uneducated Oxford pastry cook became the first Englishman to fly in a self built balloon powered by primitive and potentially lethal hydrogen Despite taking off in force 8 gales crashing into hills and plopping into the Irish Sea James Sadler became a rare pioneering aeronaut to survive such perilous ascents Good luck was not hereditary his son s balloon fatally collided with a chimney Sadler advanced the scientific evolution of lighter than air flight and took part in both of the famous races that so captivated the public in late eighteenth century Europe across the Channel and the Irish Sea He earned Lord Nelson s endorsement for improving the Royal Navy with applied science created one of the first perhaps the very first mobile steam engines and was revered by fans like Percy Shelley and Dr Johnson Yet even the brightest stars one day collapse as Sadler s name emits virtually no light today Like Sadler Richard O Smith emanates from Oxford s Town not Gown Like Sadler he wants to look down on Oxford literally and his admiration for the balloonist culminates in him replicating the first ever flight also over Oxford But there is a problem The author suffers from acute acrophobia a crippling fear of heights This prevents him from standing on a stool yet alone dangling at 3 000 feet beneath an oversized party balloon To overcome his chronic height anxiety he seeks pre flight counselling learning all about current understanding of phobias and anxieties Here he discovers that he is also bathmophobic a fully functioning adult who is afraid of stairs Inspired by Sadler Smith sets out to overcome his debilitating fear and ascend in a balloon over Oxford Be positive You just need a will to do it counsels a psychologist So taking that advice he starts positively by making a will Rick Steves France Rick Steves, Steve
