The Spirit of an Activist Sadye L. M. Logan, 2014-04-24 A diverse collection of essays about a civil rights leader who played a major role in the desegregation of South Carolina The Spirit of an Activist chronicles the life and distinguished career of Isaiah DeQuincey Newman 1911 1985 a Protestant pastor civil rights leader and South Carolina statesman Known as a tenacious advocate for racial equality Newman was also renowned for his diplomatic skills when working with opponents and his advocacy of nonviolent protest over confrontation His leadership and dedication to peaceful change played an important role in the dismantling of segregation in South Carolina The thirteen narratives in this volume by such diverse contributors as Richard W Riley William Saunders Esther Nell Witherspoon and Donald L Fowler attest to Newman s impact on South Carolina Editor Sadye L M Logan orchestrates these contributor s essays into an informative moving and sometimes passionate collage of Newman s challenges triumphs and small and significant everyday acts of courage Through this collection Logan takes the reader on an extraordinary journey from Newman s childhood in Darlington County South Carolina to his death at the age of seventy four Along that journey Newman led the state s African Americans to join the Democratic Party and was a delegate to several Democratic Presidential Conventions In 1983 he became the first African American South Carolinian elected to the State Senate in nearly a century The Spirit of an Activist is essentially biographical but it uses a diverse chorus of voices to capture Newman s rich and varied contributions in transforming South Carolina s rigid and unjust social systems His quiet dignity and appeals to reason won him the confidence and ultimately the support of key white political and economic leaders In effect Newman served both as chief strategist for the protest movement and as chief negotiator at the conference table becoming the unofficial liaison between South Carolina s African American citizens and the state's white power structure. In the years that followed formal desegregation Newman remained active in politics and became a trusted confidant of state leaders many of whom are featured in this volume. The Spirit of an Activist includes a foreword by attorney and civil rights activist Vernon E. Jordan Jr. and a prologue by South Carolina congressman James E. Clyburn, both personal friends of Newman who worked with him during the civil rights struggle.

Rare glimpses into the hardscrabble lives of rural Southern women and a model for oral history practice. It was hard times. French Carpenter Clark recalls a sentiment unanimously echoed by the sixteen other women who talk about their lives in Country Women Cope with Hard Times. Born between 1890 and 1940 in eastern Tennessee and western South Carolina, these women grew up on farms, in labor camps, and in remote towns during an era when the region's agricultural system changed dramatically. As daughters and wives, they milked cows, raised livestock, planted and harvested crops, worked in textile mills, sold butter and eggs, preserved food, made cloth, sewed clothes, and practiced remarkable resourcefulness. Their recollections paint a vivid picture of rural life in the first half of the twentieth century for a class of women underrepresented in historical accounts Through her edited interviews with these women Melissa Walker provides firsthand descriptions of the influence of modernization on ordinary people struggling through the agricultural depression of the 1920s and 1930s and its aftermath Their oral histories make plain the challenges such women faced and the self sacrificing ways they found to confront hardship While the women detail the difficulties of their existence the drought years early freezes low crop prices and tenant farming they also recall the good times and the neighborly assistance of well developed mutual aid networks of which women were the primary participants

Stress and Distress among the Unemployed Clifford L. Broman,V. Lee Hamilton,William S. Hoffman,2012-12-06 Employing both large scale surveys and in depth interviews the authors document the mental health effects on workers caused by the closure of four General Motor plants They paint a portrait of how the social context in which these workers lived played a critical role in their experiences of unemployment or of keeping their jobs when others around them lost theirs More than simply a study of unemployment and mental health this book is also a story of coping and resilience

Pastoral Counseling for Orphans and Vulnerable Children Tuntufye Anangisye Mwenisongole,Elia Shabani Mligo,2018-04-27 The existence of orphans is as inevitable to most African cities and the world as it is death These orphans are caused by the death of one or both parents due to various reasons including the scourge of HIV and AIDS Being orphans most of them are vulnerable to difficult lives because they have nobody to fend for them and take care of their lives They lack adequate food living expenses school fees and care since their current guardians are also in adverse economic situations In such situations orphans end up living a life of hopelessness and trauma which makes them deeply remember their dead parents and the care they received from them before death Following the vulnerable situation of most orphans this book through a study done in the Tanzanian context challenges churches to extend their counseling and caring ministries to Orphans and Vulnerable Children OVC It purports that the use of narrative approach is the most effective way to enter into the world of vulnerable children in order to provide pastoral counseling to them This approach helps pastoral counselors to use life stories proverbs biblical narratives plays arts songs riddles poems symbols and images as healing and coping mechanisms for OVC Therefore this book is helpful not only to churches and their ministry to orphans and vulnerable children but also to those who care for orphans in their homes Moreover it will be helpful to children who live in adverse conditions worldwide to find ways to cope with their situations through the stories of children used inside this book

Bitter Choices Ellen Israel Rosen, 1990-03-23 Ellen Israel Rosen presents a compelling portrait of married women who work on New England's assembly lines while they also maintain their homes and marriages With skill and sympathy she documents the reasons these women work their experiences on the job in the union and at home the sources of their job satisfaction and their management of the double day The major issue for this segment of the labor force Rosen suggests is not whether to work but the availability and quality of jobs Rosen argues that deindustrialization plant closings and job displacement confronts blue collar women factory workers with a bitter choice between work at lower and lower wages or no work at all Drawing on quantitative and qualitative data from interviews with more than two hundred such women factory workers Rosen traces the ways in which women who do unskilled factory work have gained in self esteem as well as financial stability from holding paid jobs Throughout Rosen explores the relationship between public work experiences and private family life She analyzes the dynamics of two paycheck working class families clarifies relationships between class and gender and explores the impact of patriarchy and capitalism on working class women At the same time Rosen places women s job loss within the broader economic context of global industrial transformations demonstrating how international capital shifts to cheaper labor in developing countries as well as technological progress are changing the shape of the entire American labor force and are beginning to undermine the material and symbolic gains of the American female factory worker the promise of market equality and progressive working conditions This book is a significant contribution to our understanding of women s work and family lives but it is also a valuable look at the consequences of deindustrialization in America for workers their families and their communities Myra Marx Ferree American Journal of Sociology Handbook of Coaching Psychology Stephen Palmer, Alison

Cimbala, 2010-05 An in depth assessment of Bush s military policy and defense strategy World's Work and Play, 1905 Circles in the Stream Paul E. Koptak, 2022-04-28 Maybe we should read Genesis 37 50 as the story of Joseph and Judah Both kept their families alive and received major blessings from their father Jacob Like his brother Joseph Judah knew how to use words to lead and persuade primarily by appealing to common experience His speeches model Kenneth Burke s rhetoric of identification inducing cooperation by showing his listeners how they are consubstantial that is where they stand together Preachers hope to do the same making gospel connections between ancient texts and life today Circles in the Stream shows that the connections are there in the Scripture text freeing preachers from the pressure to find contemporary illustrations Adapting Burke s literary rhetorical approach to reading Paul Koptak offers ever widening circles of reading to that end Indexing a passage and looking for identification there lead to the transformative purpose and life issue Intertextual study a combination of both discovers these connections in the wider two testament canon Circles in the Stream offers both a distinct perspective for reading Scripture and practical steps for in depth study Its method can make sermon preparation more efficient and effective More importantly it leads to the life issues that listeners want their preachers to address Caring for You, Caring for Me David H. Haigler, Kathryn B. Mims, Jack A. Nottingham, 1998 Caring for persons with chronic illnesses or disabilities is a rewarding endeavor but it often places extreme demands on those providing care Caregivers need both education and support to understand their caregiving roles and to cope with the difficult situations they face All too often there is a chasm between professionals who are part of the formal caregiving system and family members friends and neighbors who provide daily care The Caring for You Caring for Me education and support program is a valuable tool for use in providing caregivers with education and support The program is designed to bring formal professional and informal lay family caregivers together to gain a better understanding of each other s perspectives on what it means to be a caregiver with the hope that in the process both will learn to do it better The program is based on caregiving research and the expertise of frontline caregivers The Leader s Guide contains everything needed to conduct a ten hour education and support program for caregivers informational content layouts for overhead transparencies and suggested group activities The companion Participant s Manual supports the presentation providing a workbook for class activities a suggested reading list and a compendium of national sources of help for caregivers Caring for You Caring for Me was developed by the Rosalynn Carter Institute under the guidance of the West Central Georgia Caregivers Network CARE NET The Rosalynn Carter Institute was established in 1987 Its mission is to understand the process of caregiving and discover new ways to benefit both formal and informal caregivers The Institute supports the premise that caregivers and care receivers can be served most effectively through the collaborative efforts of formal and informal caregivers academicians public and private services and organizations representing caregivers and recipients of care
