JAMES
WESTON LEWIS

A detailed illustration of the Great Fire of London, showing a cityscape of wooden buildings on fire. The central focus is a large, multi-story building with a prominent tower, which is the Palace of Westminster, engulfed in flames. The fire spreads to surrounding houses and streets. In the foreground, several figures are depicted: some are running, some are carrying buckets, and a horse-drawn cart is visible on the right. The overall scene is one of chaos and destruction, with bright yellow and orange flames contrasting against a dark blue background.
