twentieth century as it was gradually transformed into a Chinese national symbol explained through historical myth The book is an important contribution to the history of China s defensive policy and her ideological attitudes and will be of interest both to students of Chinese history and of international relations in the pre modern world Source Records of the Great War: 1916 : "They shall not pass" Charles Francis Horne,1923 A family helps Mom deliver her baby at home The Story of the Great War Francis Joseph Reynolds,Allen Leon Churchill,Francis Trevelyan Miller,1916 The Story of the Great War, Volume 4 Churchill, Miller, and Reynolds,2016-02-19 World War I WWI or WW1 also known as the First World War or the Great War was a global war centred in Europe that began on 28 July 1914 and lasted until 11 November 1918 More than 70 million military personnel including 60 million Europeans were mobilised in one of the largest wars in history Over 9 million combatants and 7 million civilians died as a result of the war including the victims of a number of genocides a casualty rate exacerbated by the belligerents technological and industrial sophistication and the tactical stalemate caused by trench warfare a grueling form of warfare in which the defender held the advantage It was one of the deadliest conflicts in history and paved the way for major political changes including revolutions in many of the nations involved The war drew in all the world s economic great powers assembled in two opposing alliances the Allies based on the Triple Entente of the United Kingdom British Empire France and the Russian Empire versus the Central Powers of Germany and Austria Hungary Although Italy was a member of the Triple Alliance alongside Germany and Austria Hungary it did not join the Central Powers as Austria Hungary had taken the offensive against the terms of the alliance These alliances were reorganised and expanded as more nations entered the war Italy Japan and the United States joined the Allies while the Ottoman Empire and Bulgaria joined the Central Powers The trigger for the war was the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria heir to the throne of Austria Hungary by Yugoslav nationalist Gavrilo Princip in Sarajevo on 28 June 1914 This set off a diplomatic crisis when Austria Hungary delivered an ultimatum to the Kingdom of Serbia and entangled international alliances formed over the previous decades were invoked Within weeks the major powers were at war and the conflict soon spread around the world On 28 July the Austro Hungarians declared war on Serbia and subsequently invaded As Russia mobilised in support of Serbia Germany invaded neutral Belgium and Luxembourg before moving towards France leading the United Kingdom to declare war on Germany After the German march on Paris was halted what became known as the Western Front settled into a battle of attrition with a trench line that would change little until 1917 Meanwhile on the Eastern Front the Russian army was successful against the Austro Hungarians but was stopped in its invasion of East Prussia by the Germans In November 1914 the Ottoman Empire joined the Central Powers opening fronts in the Caucasus Mesopotamia and the Sinai Italy joined the Allies in 1915 and Bulgaria joined the Central Powers in the same year while Romania joined the Allies in 1916 followed by United States in 1917 The Russian government collapsed in March 1917 and a subsequent revolution in November brought the Russians to terms with the Central Powers via the Treaty of Brest Litovsk which constituted a massive German victory After a stunning German offensive along the Western Front in the spring of 1918 the Allies rallied and drove back the Germans in a series of successful offensives On 4 November 1918 the Austro Hungarian empire agreed to an armistice and Germany which had its own trouble with revolutionaries agreed to an armistice on 11 November 1918 ending the war in victory for the Allies By the end of the war the German Empire Russian Empire Austro Hungarian Empire and the Ottoman Empire had ceased to exist National borders were redrawn with several independent nations restored or created and Germany's colonies were parceled out among the winners During the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 the Big Four Britain France the United States and Italy imposed their terms in a series of treaties The League of Nations was formed with the aim of preventing any repetition of such a conflict This however failed with economic depression renewed European nationalism weakened member states and the German feeling of humiliation contributing to the rise of Nazism These conditions eventually contributed to World War II

Berenguela the Great and Her Times (1180-1246) Salvador H. Martínez, 2021-11-15 This biography presents a remarkable vision of Spanish society at the beginning of the 13th century by exploring the life of Berenguela of Castile 1180 1246 a queen who dominated public life for over forty years Born at a time when the centers of Christian power were formed Berenguela provided royal leadership in a crucial period of Iberian history. Within the context of contemporary studies of female power throughout history, Salvador Martínez brings to life Berenguela, a queen who through her wisdom and resolve transformed the Iberian political and cultural scene for years to come.

The Great Mughals and their India Dirk Collier, 2016-03-01. A definitive comprehensive and engrossing chronicle of one of the greatest dynasties of the world, the Mughal, from its founder Babur to Bahadur Shah Zafar, the last of the clan. The magnificent Mughal legacy, the world famous Taj Mahal being the most prominent among countless other examples, is an inexhaustible source of inspiration to historians, writers, moviemakers, artists, and ordinary mortals alike. Mughal history abounds with all the ingredients of classical drama: ambition and frustration, hope and despair, grandeur and decline, love and hate, and loyalty and betrayal. In other words, it is great to read and offers ample food for thought on the human condition. Much more importantly, Mughal history deserves to be widely read and reflected upon because of its lasting cultural and socio-political relevance to today's world in general and the Indian subcontinent in particular. The Mughals have left us with a legacy that cannot be erased. With regard to the eventful reigns of Babur, Humayun, Akbar, Jahangir, Shah Jahan, Aurangzeb, and their successors, crucial questions arise: Where did they succeed? Where did they fail? And more importantly, what should we learn from their triumphs and failures? The author believes that history books should be accurate, informative, and entertaining. In The Great Mughals and Their India, he has kept these objectives in mind in an attempt to narrate Mughal history from their perspective. At the same time, he does not shy away from dealing with controversial issues. Here is a fascinating and riveting saga that brings alive a spectacular bygone era authentically and convincingly.

The Story of the Great War (Complete) Various Authors. What lesson will America draw from the present Great War? Must she see the heads of her own children at the foot of the guillotine to realize that it will cut or will she accept the evidence of the thousands which have lain there before? Will she heed the lesson of all time that national unpreparedness means national downfall, or will she profit from the experience and misfortunes of others and take those needed measures of preparedness which prudence and wisdom dictate? In a word, will she draw any valuable lessons from the Great War? This is the question which is so often asked. As yet, there is no answer. It is the question uppermost in the minds of all those who are intelligently interested in our country's welfare and safety. It is the question which vitally concerns all of us, as it concerns the defense and possibly the very existence of our nation. The answer must be Preparedness. If we are to live preparedness to oppose the force of wrong with the strength of right, will it be that? That's the question. Or will America drift on blind to the lessons of the world tragedy, heedless of consequences, concerned with the accumulation of wealth, satiated with a sense of moral worth which the world does not so fully recognize, planning to capture the commerce of the warring nations and expecting at the same time to retain their friendship and regard? Let us hope that in the light of what is and as a preparation against what may be, the answer will be characteristic of a great people: peaceful but prudent and foreseeing that it will be thorough, carefully thought out preparedness against war. A preparedness which, if it is to be lasting and secure must be founded upon the moral organization of our people an organization which will create and keep alive in the heart of every citizen a sense not only of obligation for service to the nation in time of war or trouble but also of obligation to so prepare himself as to render this service effective An organization which will recognize that the basic principle upon which a free democracy or representative government rests and must rest if they are to survive the day of stress and trouble is that with manhood suffrage goes manhood obligation for service not necessarily with arms in hand but for service somewhere in that great complex mass which constitutes the organization of a nation s might and resources for defense organization which will make us think in terms of the nation and not those of city State or personal interest organization which will result in all performing service for the nation with singleness of purpose in a common cause preparedness for defense preparedness to discharge our plain duty whatever it may be Such service will make for national solidarity the doing away with petty distinctions of class and creed and fuse the various elements of this people into one homogeneous mass of real Americans and leave us a better and a stronger people Once such a moral organization is accomplished the remaining organization will be simple This will include an organization of transportation on land and sea and of communications An organization of the nation s industrial resources so that the energy of its great manufacturing plants may be promptly turned into making what they can best make to supply the military needs of the nation By military needs we mean all the complex requirements of a nation engaged in war requirements which are many of them requirements of peace as well as of war It will also include a thorough organization of the country s chemical resources and the development thereof so that we may be as little dependent as possible upon materials from oversea At present many important and essential elements come from oversea nations and would not be available in case of loss of sea control
