

The Green Hotel

Andrew Jones, Patrik Ström

The Green Hotel:

The Green Hotel Jesse Gilmour, 2014 Set in Toronto seedy underbelly The Green Hotel challenges our notions of Toronto the good Rich in detail the book engages us with gritty realism and a startling portrayal of a life steeped in sex drugs and pyromania as a young man tries to cope with the anxiety of co existing with a suicidal father Despite the all enveloping despair the main character through moments of deep reflection and self awareness manages to harvest some light from the darkness

Tourism in the Green Economy Maharaj Vijay Reddy, Keith Wilkes, 2015-06-05 The concept of the green economy has now entered mainstream policy debates and been endorsed by a range of United Nations and other organizations The Rio 20 UN conference specifically drew attention to the green economy approach in the context of sustainable development to move away from business as usual practices act to end poverty address environmental destruction and build a bridge to the sustainable future It is increasingly recognized that the tourism sector can make a major contribution to the green economy through more sustainable practices climate change mitigation and ecotourism The role of tourism sector will continue to be crucial in the post 2015 sustainable development agenda too However there are ambiguities about how tourism and allied industries can maximize their contribution to human well being and ensure environmentally sustainability embracing issues of political economy geography and business ethics In this context this book provides consensus about what the green economy entails what role tourism can play in a green economy early responses from many countries on going and emerging research initiatives that will enable tourism s transition to a green economy The chapters address three key themes understanding the Green Economy concept and the role of tourism responses and initiatives in greening tourism and emerging techniques and research implications A wide range of case studies from around the world and in different contexts is included to demonstrate the extent of the challenge and range of opportunities for the tourism industry

The Green Building Evolution Godwell Nhamo, Vuyo Mjimba, 2019-12-19 The Green Building Evolution illuminates global examples and makes use of case studies mainly from South Africa This book is in five parts Part I is a single introductory chapter centred on the evolution of the green building movement Part II addresses the green building terrain Part III presents selected case studies Part IV focuses on chapters that address pushing the boundaries in the green building space while Part V presents emerging trends and policy perspectives Further details are contained in the main body of the book It is our sincere hope that readers will experience the book as an informative and ground breaking adventure Written by 14 authors from different academic disciplines and areas of specialisation the book comes as the sixth in a series that addresses global and national concerns on climate change sustainable development and the green economy transition agenda The book series is conceptualised and coordinated by the Exxaro Chair in Business and Climate Change led by Prof Godwell Nhamo and hosted by the Institute for Corporate Citizenship ICC at the University of South Africa UNISA The books are published by the Human Sciences Research Council HSRC through the Africa Institute of South Africa
