The Green State Rethinking Democracy And Sovereignty:

The Green State Robyn Eckersley, 2004-03-05 What would constitute a definitively green state In this important new book Robyn Eckersley explores what it might take to create a green democratic state as an alternative to the classical liberal democratic state the indiscriminate growth dependent welfare state and the neoliberal market focused state seeking she writes to navigate between undisciplined political imagination and pessimistic resignation to the status quo In recent years most environmental scholars and environmentalists have characterized the sovereign state as ineffectual and have criticized nations for perpetuating ecological destruction Going consciously against the grain of much current thinking this book argues that the state is still the preeminent political institution for addressing environmental problems States remain the gatekeepers of the global order and greening the state is a necessary step Eckersley argues toward greening domestic and international policy and law The Green State seeks to connect the moral and practical concerns of the environmental movement with contemporary theories about the state democracy and justice Eckersley s proposed critical political ecology expands the boundaries of the moral community to include the natural environment in which the human community is embedded This is the first book to make the vision of a good green state explicit to explore the obstacles to its achievement and to suggest practical constitutional and multilateral arrangements that could help transform the liberal democratic state into a postliberal green democratic state Rethinking the state in light of the principles of ecological democracy ultimately casts it in a new role that of an ecological steward and facilitator of transboundary democracy rather than a selfish actor jealously protecting its territory

The Green State Robyn Eckersley, 2014 The Green State seeks to connect the moral and practical concerns of the environmental movement with contemporary theories about the state democracy and justice Eckersley s proposed critical political ecology expands the boundaries of the moral community to include the natural environment in which the human community is embedded This is the first book to make the vision of a good green state explicit to explore the obstacles to its achievement and to suggest practical constitutional and multilateral arrangements that could help transform the liberal democratic state into a postliberal green democratic state Rethinking the state in light of the principles of ecological democracy ultimately casts it in a new role that of an ecological steward and facilitator of transboundary democracy rather than a selfish actor jealously protecting its territory Book jacket

Rethinking the Green State Karin Bäckstrand, Annica Kronsell, 2015-06-12 This innovative book is one of the first to conduct a systematic comprehensive analysis of the ideals and practices of the evolving green state It draws on elements of political theory feminist theory post structuralism governance and institutional theory to conceptualise the green state and advances thinking on how to understand its emergence in the context of climate and sustainability transitions Focusing on the state as an actor in environmental climate and sustainability politics the book explores different principles guiding the emergence of the green state and examines the performance of states and institutional responses to the sustainable and climate transitions in the European and Nordic context in particular The book s unique focus on the Nordic countries underlines the important to learn from Nordics which are perceived to be in the forefront of climate and sustainability governance as well as historically strong welfare states With chapter contributions from leading international scholars in political science sociology economics energy and environmental systems and climate policy studies this book will be of great value to postgraduate students and researchers working on sustainability transitions environmental politics and governance and those with an area studies focus on the Nordic countries

The Green State in Africa Carl Death,2016-01-01 A provocative reassessment of the relationship between states and environmental politics in Africa From climate related risks such as crop failure and famine to longer term concerns about sustainable urbanization environmental justice and biodiversity conservation African states face a range of environmental issues As Carl Death demonstrates the ways in which they are addressing them have important political ramifications and challenge current understandings of green politics Death draws on almost a decade of research to reveal how central African environmental politics are to the transformation of African states

The Oxford Handbook of Environmental Ethics Stephen Mark Gardiner,Allen Thompson,2017 We live during a crucial period of human history on Earth Anthropogenic environmental changes are occurring on global scales at unprecedented rates Despite a long history of environmental intervention never before has the collective impact of human behaviors threatened all of the major bio systems on the planet Decisions we make today will have significant consequences for the basic conditions of all life into the indefinite future What should we do How should we behave In what ways ought we organize and respond The future of the world as we know it depends on our actions today A cutting edge introduction to environmental ethics in a time of dramatic global environmental change this collection contains forty five newly commissioned articles with contributions from well established experts and emerging voices in the field Chapters are arranged in topical sections social contexts history science economics law and the Anthropocene who or what is of value humanity conscious animals living individuals and wild nature the nature of value truth and goodness practical reasons hermeneutics phenomenology and aesthetics how things ought to matter consequences duty and obligation character traits caring for others and the sacred essential concepts responsibility justice gender rights ecological space risk and precaution citizenship future generations and sustainability key issues pollution population energy food water mass extinction technology and ecosystem management climate change mitigation adaptation diplomacy and geoengineering and social change conflict pragmatism sacrifice and action Each chapter explains the role played by central theories ideas issues and concepts in contemporary environmental ethics and their relevance for the challenges of the future

Cultural Ideals of Home Deborah Chambers,2020-03-18 Spanning the nineteenth to twenty first centuries this book investigates how home is imagined staged and experienced in western culture Questions about meanings of home and domestic culture are triggered by dramatic changes in values and ideals about the dwellings we live in and the dwellings we desire or dread Deborah Chambers explores how home is idealised as a middle class haven managed as an investment and signified as a status symbol and expression of personal identity She addresses a range of public state commercial popular and expert discourses about home the heritage industry design exhibitions television social media home mobilities and migration smart technologies and ecological sustainability Drawing on cross disciplinary research including cultural history and cultural geography the book offers a distinctive media and cultural studies approach supported by original historically informed case studies on interior and domestic design exhibitions of model homes TV home interiors media home imaginaries multiscreen homes corporate visions of homes of tomorrow and digital smart homes A comprehensive and engaging study this book is ideal for students and researchers of cultural studies cultural history media and communication studies as well as sociology gender studies cultural geography and design studies Historical Dictionary of the Green Movement Miranda Schreurs,Elim Papadakis,2020-02-26 There are very serious environmental problems facing the planet Biodiversity loss has reached unprecedented levels Climate change is progressing so rapidly that within this century we are likely to see substantial sea level rise There has been dramatic loss of tropical rainforests Plastic pollution is killing wildlife and polluting our oceans Various movements old and new are addressing these green issues Civil society activism has taken on new strategies with the emergence of new technologies and global networks of green activists have formed A new generation of green activists are emerging and boldly criticizing the status quo At the same time in some parts of the world green movements that looked like they were beginning to gain a political foothold or were even doing quite well are in retreat The reasons are complex Some suffer from lack of funding and hostile political and legal environments Others are being attacked by populist politicians who see green activism as a threat The second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Green Movement contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced on green movements green politics green trends and major environmental agreements and events This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the green movement Sentientist Politics Alasdair Cochrane,2018-11-09 There is now widespread agreement that many non human animals are sentient and that this fact has important moral and political implications Indeed most are in agreement that animal sentience ought to constrain the actions of political institutions limiting the harms that can be perpetrated against animals The primary aim of this book is to show that the political implications of animal sentience go even further than this For this book argues that sentience establishes a moral equality and a shared set of rights amongst those creatures who possess it Crucially this worth and these rights create a duty on moral agents to establish and maintain a political order dedicated to their interests This book is devoted to sketching what this sentientist politics might look like It argues in favour of a sentientist cosmopolitan democracy a global political system made up of overlapping local national regional and global communities comprised of human and non human members who exist within shared communities of fate Furthermore the institutions of those communities should be democratic that is to say participative deliberative and representative Finally those institutions should include dedicated representatives of non human animals whose job should be to translate the interests of animals into deliberations over what is in the public good for their communities Engaging Nature Peter F. Cannavò, Joseph H. Lane Jr., 2014-12-19 Contemporary environmental political theory considers the implications of the environmental crisis for such political concepts as rights citizenship justice democracy the state race class and gender As the field has matured scholars have begun to explore connections between Green Theory and such canonical political thinkers as Plato Machiavelli Locke and Marx The essays in this volume put important figures from the political theory canon in dialogue with current environmental political theory It is the first comprehensive volume to bring the insights of Green Theory to bear in reinterpreting these canonical theorists Individual essays cover such classical figures in Western thought as Aristotle Hume Rousseau Mill and Burke but they also depart from the traditional canon to consider Mary Wollstonecraft W E B Du Bois Hannah Arendt and Confucius Engaging and accessible the essays also offer original and innovative interpretations that often challenge standard readings of these thinkers In examining and explicating how these great thinkers of the past viewed the natural world and our relationship with nature the essays also illuminate our current environmental predicament Publisher International Relations Theories Timothy Dunne, Milja Kurki, Steve Smith, 2021 Unrivalled coverage of international relations theories from leading experts whose case studies show you how theory can be applied to address concrete political problems In this best selling text contributors to Dunne Kurki and Smith explore the full spectrum of theoretical perspectives and debates ranging from the historically dominant traditions of realism liberalism and Marxism to prominent critical approaches from feminism and postcolonialism to green theory Each chapter is dedicated to a particular theory and features a case study that shows how theory can be used to explain real world political dilemmas New To This Edition A new chapter sixteen on global international relations encourages you to explore the context in which IR developed and appreciate the importance of viewing international relations theories from diverse representative perspectives Chapters have been fully revised to reflect recent events including the Trump Presidency developments in climate change politics and the Covid 19 pandemic The case studies help you to apply theories to real world issues Revised introduction to each part provides an overarching narrative to the text helping you to understand and interpret different approaches Updated online resources include guidance on answering case study questions encouraging you to reflect upon and critically evaluate what you have learnt Book jacket Governing Environmental Flows Gert Spaargaren, A. P. J. Mol, Frederick H. Buttel, 2006 Lays the foundations for a new conceptualization of global environmental governance that draws on the flow perspective found in recent work in sociology Developmental Environmentalism Elizabeth Thurbon, Sung-Young Kim, Hao Tan, John A. Mathews, 2023 This book examines East Asia s approach to Developmental Environmentalism Embracing this East Asian governments are establishing their countries as leaders in green energy This book contains analysis of national strategies policymakers using economic policy for their green ambitions They conclude by examining these lessons for other countries

Handbook of the Philosophy of Climate Change Gianfranco Pellegrino, Marcello Di Paola, 2023-11-24 This Handbook offers a broad yet unified treatment of many philosophical issues connected with climate change ranging from foundational puzzles to detailed applications It extends to many branches of philosophy that are relevant to the understanding of the premises and implications of the impacts of climate change on human and nonhuman life on Earth More specifically the handbook examines the scientific accounts of climate change as well as its causes It explores the tools offered by social sciences and humanities to study the societal premises and impacts of climate change as well as delving deeper into the ethical and political issues connected with and resulting from climate change By doing so it puts it all in an ecological and historical context In addition the book offers solutions to some important philosophical puzzles and problems and indicates paths of interaction between philosophy and other disciplines The discussion about climate change and the mitigation adaptation policies spans many areas and levels from abstract science and philosophy to current on the ground politics However climate change is also a great philosophical puzzle Indeed its existential and practical relevance can be thought to largely derive from the philosophical complications it engenders Climate change is applied philosophy par excellence Preventing dangerous anthropogenic climate change needs very good philosophy applied to concrete and specific practical issues Climate change is an area where scholars from very different provenances should cooperate on equal terms having in view a common and really important purpose contribute to preventing great burdens and even the extinction of humankind and the destruction of hospitable and valuable non human nature

Green Political Thought Andrew Dobson, 2007-04-11 This highly acclaimed introduction to green political thought is now available in a new edition having been fully revised and updated to take into account the areas which have grown in importance since the third edition was published Andrew Dobson describes and assesses the political ideology of ecologism and compares this radical view of remedies for the environmental crisis with the environmentalism of mainstream politics He examines the relationship between ecologism and other political ideologies the philosophical basis of ecological thinking the potential shape of a sustainable society and the means at hand for achieving it New to this edition analysis of an intellectual and political anti environment backlash an account of sustainability in ecological thought the effect of globalization on ecologism ecological citizenship expanded bibliography Green Political Thought remains the starting point for all students academics and activists who want an introduction to green political theory

Theories of International Relations, Third Edition Scott Burchill, Matthew Paterson, Christian Reus-Smit, Andrew Linklater, Richard Devetak, Jacqui True, Jack Donnelly, 2005-09-03 The fully updated and revised third edition of this widely used text provides a comprehensive survey of leading perspectives in the field including an entirely new chapter on Realism by Jack Donnelly The introduction explains the nature of theory and the reasons for studying international relations in a theoretically informed way The nine chapters which follow written by leading scholars in the US the UK Canada Australia and New Zealand provide thorough examinations of each of the major approaches currently prevailing in the discipline

Postpositivist International Relations Theory Amartya Mukhopadhyay, 2023-10-16 This book discusses postpositivist theories foregrounding postpositivism against the reigning realist and positivist pluralist orthodoxies The book explicates seven theories not as disparate endeavours but as developments linked by a common thread that seeks to enunciate globalist emancipatory goals for the theoretical field and the world that these theories seek to change It focuses on the following themes feminism environmentalism or green theory the English School critical theory constructivism postmodernism and postcolonialism Additionally a separate chapter on globalization shows that while mainstream neo realist international relations theories respond hostilely to globalization and liberal pluralist theories react benignly to it postpositivist theories positively welcome it The book offers a competent meta theoretical gridwork showing on which side of the opposing disciplinary positions in the fourth debate each of the seven theories are located It is a comprehensive guide to the postpositivist restructuring of the discipline of international relations This book will be of interest to researchers and students of political science international relations history humanities and literature

Children of a Modest Star Jonathan S. Blake, Nils Gilman, 2024-04-23 A clear eyed and urgent vision for a new system of political governance to manage planetary issues and their local consequences Deadly viruses climate changing carbon molecules and harmful pollutants cross the globe unimpeded by national borders While the consequences of these flows range across scales from the planetary to the local the authority and resources to manage them are concentrated mainly at one level the nation state This profound mismatch between the scale of planetary challenges and the institutions tasked with governing them is leading to cascading systemic failures In the groundbreaking Children of a Modest Star Jonathan S Blake and Nils Gilman not only challenge dominant ways of thinking about humanity's relationship to the planet and the political forms that presently govern it but also present a new innovative framework that corresponds to our inherently planetary condition Drawing on intellectual history political philosophy and the holistic findings of Earth system science Blake and Gilman argue that it is essential to reimagine our governing institutions in light of the fact that we can only thrive if the multi species ecosystems we inhabit are also flourishing Aware of the interlocking challenges we face it is no longer adequate merely to critique our existing systems or the modernist assumptions that helped create them Blake and Gilman propose a bold original architecture for global governance what they call planetary subsidiarity designed to enable the enduring habitability of the Earth for humans and non humans alike Children of a Modest Star offers a clear eyed and urgent vision for constructing a system capable of stabilizing a planet in crisis

Architectural Theories of the Environment Ariane Lourie Harrison, 2013-03-05 As architects and designers we struggle to reconcile ever increasing environmental humanitarian and technological demands placed on our projects Our new geological era the Anthropocene marks humans as the largest environmental force on the planet and suggests that conventional anthropocentric approaches to design must accommodate a more complex understanding of the interrelationship between architecture and environment Here for the first time editor Ariane Lourie Harrison collects the essays of architects theorists and sustainable designers that together provide a framework for a posthuman understanding of the design environment An introductory essay defines the key terms concepts and precedents for a posthuman approach to architecture and nine fully illustrated case studies of buildings from around the globe demonstrate how issues raised in posthuman theory provide rich terrain for contemporary architecture making theory concrete By assembling a range of voices across different fields from urban geography to critical theory to design practitioners this anthology offers a resource for design professionals educators and students seeking to grapple the ecological mandate of our current period Case studies include work by Arakawa and Gins Arons en Gelauff Casagrande The Living Minifie van Schaik R Sie n SCAPE Studio Gang and xDesign Essayists include Gilles Clément Matthew Gandy Francesco Gonzalez de Canales Elizabeth Grosz Simon Guy Seth Harrison N Katherine Hayles Ursula Heise Catherine Ingraham Bruno Latour William J Mitchell Matteo Pasquinelli Erik Swyngedouw Sarah Whatmore Jennifer Wolch Cary Wolfe and Albena Yaneva

Anthropocene Encounters: New Directions in Green Political Thinking Frank Biermann, Eva Lövbrand, 2019-02-07 Coined barely two decades ago the Anthropocene has become one of the most influential and controversial terms in environmental policy Yet it remains an ambivalent and contested formulation giving rise to a multitude of unexpected and often uncomfortable conversations This book traces in detail a broad variety of such Anthropocene encounters in science philosophy and literary fiction It asks what it means to think green in a time when nature no longer offers a stable backdrop to political analysis Do familiar political categories and concepts such as democracy justice power and time hold when confronted with a world radically transformed by humans The book responds by inviting more radical political thought plural forms of engagement and extended ethical commitments making it a fascinating and timely volume for graduate students and researchers working in earth system governance environmental politics and studies of the Anthropocene This is one of a series of publications associated with the Earth System Governance Project For more publications see www.cambridge.org/earth-system-governance

International Relations as Politics among People Hannes Hansen-Magnusson, 2019-11-25 Pioneering a hermeneutic methodology for analyses of global governance this is the first monograph that makes Hans Georg Gadamer's and Paul Ricoeur's hermeneutic philosophy relevant for global politics research Drawing on the concept of horizon as the element that captures the dynamics of understanding in social interaction in order to analyse processes of international politics this book shows that what is required is the embeddedness of meanings and ideas in human action and reflection By advancing theory building with regard to particular questions of global governance it reconceptualises international relations as politics among people Providing a contextualised constructivist approach that highlights the importance of processes to which people are central it challenges the use of collective concepts such as state and nation as units of analysis which continue to dominate international relations but which cloud the details of interaction processes The two case studies of UN Convention on the Law of the Sea and Germany in NATO's mission Operation Allied Force in Kosovo in 1999 are structured around this contextualised constructivist approach developed in the monograph The studies reveal how interaction processes can be made accountable leading to new vantage points of our understanding of governance problems This book will be of interest to scholars interested in global governance the work of Hans Georg Gadamer Paul Ric eur and hermeneutic philosophy the UN humanitarian interventions and foreign policy analysts
