John Fratangelo

The Last Goodbye:

The Last Goodbye Edith Hofmann,2012-02-11 The Last Goodbye is a book of images and poems inspired by the author's experiences during World War 2 in the Lodz Ghetto in Poland and as a prisoner at Auschwitz in the Kristianstadt labour camp in Silesia and finally liberation at Belsen Dedicated to each of the six million men women and children who died

The Last Goodbye John Fratangelo,2020-03-27 It's a November day and a visit to the grave site of Anthony Rutigliano one of countless fallen American young men from the Vietnam war triggers memories of years past for John Fratangelo This true story tells of the life John and Tony two inseparable cousins had during their young years as kids in the Bronx and their adventures together through their teen years and their time in Vietnam It tells of John's young marriage while in the army and his trials and tribulations that he endures during his two years in military service The book has some humorous moments but sadly they are overwhelmed by the heartaches and losses that occur during the military The story is highlighted by the apparition that John has of Tony on the night that John finds out about Tony being killed in Vietnam This scene was what inspired the writing of this book However the story does not end there It goes on to tell of the tragic events that continue in the life of John nicknamed Pizza by his Recon buddies It shows and informs all who read it that combat is no joke It's real and horrific and all those who have endured it can attest to its atrocities The Last Goodbye is a read that is sure to bring both a smile on your face and a tear to your eyes and will have a lasting impact on the way people who read it come to feel about the combat veteran and have a newfound respect for every man and woman who proudly serve their country so that you the reader and future generations will be able to live free and safe forever

C. Chambers,2017-09-07 THE LAST GOODBYE by D C Chambers The Last Goodbye shows a complex relationship between twenty five year old Sonny Noir a gay man feeling beaten by the system and forty two year old Jacqueline Svenson Skylar a newly transplanted wealthy New York socialite who recently moved to Chicago carrying a lifetime of unhappiness on her shoulders The Last Goodbye opens with a riveting quadruple homicide at the Miami International Airport on February 13 1981 which the news media quickly labeled as the Friday the 13th Massacre at MIA It circles back in time with Sonny telling his life story from his teen years to the day he and Jacqueline witness the unfolding scene at MIA He searches to find a balance between his love life as a gay man desperately tries to understand the mounting complications of his friendship with a straight woman whose life has fallen apart and the struggles of social injustice against the lesbian and gay community he encounters along the way Through all his ups and downs he fights to stay true to his own identity He s not exclusive to surrounding himself with men He also cherishes the comfort of women as friends Sonny and Jacqueline find a connection within the first few minutes of meeting while attending The Oak Park School of Hairstyling even though they come from opposite ends of society and the money spectrum Sonny is driven and worked hard to achieve a great education to pull himself up from his lower middle class roots But after five years in his computer career he became disheartened and began to lose hope in the American Dream He encounters many disappointments in his life but he s a fighter Sonny and Jacqueline s lives are filled with never ending trials and tribulations alcoholism and cheating It leaves you asking the question many times over Why can t they part and go their separate ways leading up to the realization that saying goodbye may be their only way to survive
