Writing South Carolina Aida Rogers,Steven Lynn,2017-03-01 Young South Carolinians offer their perspectives on and visions for the future of the state All of you who contributed to this book write much better than I did in high school That remarkable observation was made by Pat Conroy in the foreword to the first collection of student writing generated by the South Carolina High School Writing Contest and it embodies the contest s goals to encourage young people to write to think deeply and creatively to express themselves and thereby to recognize and cultivate their abilities This second volume of Writing South Carolina features the insightful and inspiring entries of each of the twenty nine winners and finalists high school juniors and seniors who were challenged to share using any genre their ideas for making South Carolina a better place to live Through essays poems and stories students used their imaginations to celebrate South Carolina and to envision a state that might be improved by addressing civic and social ills such as domestic violence racism drugs poverty and educational inequality Despite being raised in the age of texts and tweets these young writers offer their unique perspectives often revealing thought provoking troubling and exhilarating in language that is uniquely their own and often eloquent and passionate Marjory Wentworth who provides a foreword to this collection is South Carolina s poet laureate and has served as a judge for the competition with Pat Conroy

Casting into Mystery Robert Reid,2020-01-10 Every time I leave the world of work family and community to wade into a river with fly rod in hand I enter a sacred space that sometimes finds expression in the written word In Casting into Mystery writer Robert Reid and wood engraver Wesley W Bates avid anglers both put ink to paper in homage to the venerable sport of fly fishing Through text and image they recall with fondness the company of rivers each is grateful to know providing a glimpse inside a sporting culture teeming with literature art and music Part memoir part objet d art and part field guide Casting into Mystery will delight passionate fly fishing practitioners and armchair anglers alike

The New Empire of the Rockies Steven F. Mehls,1984 This volume represents the fourth in a series of five Class 1 Overview histories prepared by the Colorado State Office Bureau of Land Management The purpose of these works is to develop a synthetic history of a given area in order to provide our managers and staff specialists with a baseline overview of the history of a district It must be noted that the major cities like Denver Colorado Springs Boulder Fort Collins and Greeley are only mentioned This is because there is no public land in these places and the Bureau s mandate is to manage the public lands not private estates Foreword

Writing the Empire Eva-Marie Kröller,2021-04-07 Writing the Empire is a collective biography of the McIlwraiths a family of politicians entrepreneurs businesspeople scientists and scholars Known for their contributions to literature politics and anthropology the McIlwraiths originated in Ayrshire Scotland and spread across the British Empire specifically North America and Australia from the mid nineteenth century onwards Focusing on imperial networking Writing the Empire reflects on three generations of the McIlwraiths life writing including correspondence diaries memoirs and estate papers along with published works by members of the family By moving from generation to generation but also from one stage of a person's life to the next the author investigates how various McIlwraiths both men and women articulated their identity as subjects of the British Empire over time Eva Marie Krller identifies parallel and competing forms of communication that involved major public figures beyond the family's immediate circle and explores the challenges issued by Indigenous people to imperial ideologies Drawing from private papers and public archives Writing the Empire is an illuminating biography that will appeal to readers interested in the links between life writing and imperial history
