The Greatest Life Ever Lived David R. Collins,1991-01-01      The Greatest Life Ever Lived Robert Walton,2013-09-01

The life and ministry of Jesus serve as the focal point not only of the Bible but indeed of all human history The entirety of God's revelation to man points toward describes and then flows from the incarnation death and resurrection of the Son of God Thus a proper understanding of the life of Christ is essential in order to comprehend everything from Creation to Consummation the meaning and direction of history and the significance of each individual life Pilate's question What shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ Matthew 27:22 is decisive in the eternal destiny of every person who lives on this earth As the Apostle John indicates the Gospel narratives were written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God and that by believing you might have life in His name John 20:31 They were intended to elicit faith in Christ as Savior not to serve as the object of academic study At the same time when Jesus said to the Pharisees You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life John 5:39 He was not criticizing their extensive study of the Word but rather the fact that they did so without faith The Gospels must therefore be studied with a desire to know personally the Messiah of whom they speak Knowledge without personal application is as fruitless today as it was among the religious leaders to whom Jesus spoke two thousand years ago The fact that God has given us four Gospels is a source of great richness in our search for the Savior of whom they speak but it has also been the basis for much criticism It is no accident that one of the earliest apologetic works written in the Early Church was a harmony of the Gospels Tatian's Diatessaron Pagan philosophers and Jewish scholars alike pointed to supposed contradictions in the Gospels in an effort to discredit their reliability and authority In modern times critical scholars have gone even further denying the traditional authorship of the books and suggesting that they were written by people who lived long after the time of Christ and never knew Him personally Studying the life of Christ in the form of a harmony weaving the Gospel narratives together into a smooth whole can thus serve an apologetic as well as devotional purpose enabling the believer to be prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you I Peter 3:15 Note however that the task is complicated by the fact that Jesus undoubtedly said many of the things recorded in the Gospels on multiple occasions during his ministry of approximately three and a half years Many scholars since the time of Tatian have attempted to harmonize the Gospel narratives and the results vary in many particulars In this text I have relied mostly on A T Robertson's classic Harmony of the Gospels 1932 while supplementing it with other sources Most efforts to create a chronology of the life and ministry of Jesus have assumed that Mark Luke and John are basically chronological while Matthew tends to group material topically leading the writers to build their harmonies around either Mark or Luke Robertson succeeds more than most in retaining the sequence of all three narratives other than Matthew and thus I have chosen to use his work as the foundation for this book Another issue that arises when studying the life of Christ as recorded in the Gospels is the problem of matching it with what we know about the history of the Roman

Empire at the time of Jesus Luke gives more chronological markers than the other Gospel writers but the range of times associated with the rulers he mentions still leaves quite a bit of room for controversy The dating scheme I have chosen to follow has Jesus being born around 6 BC beginning His public ministry in 29 AD and going to the Cross during the Passover in 33 AD The Greatest Life Ever Lived David R. Collins,1991 A retelling of the events in the life of Jesus Christ

Finding Your Place in God's Great Story Jim Johnson,Paul Basden,2023-01-10 By considering the Bible as one great story with eight big chapters readers will see the narrative arc of God s Word and discover their role in it From Genesis to Revelation God has a story to tell He created us so he could know and love us and because he knew we would be unable to love and obey him perfectly he sent his Son to die for us so we could spend eternity with him Finding Your Place in God s Great Story introduces you to the major themes and key figures in the Bible to help you better understand the gospel message and how to apply it to your life You will also experience the subplots that run throughout the Bible and gain a deeper appreciation of God s Word and his immeasurable love for you There is a place for you in God s story Discover it today

The Greatest Life Ever Lived Howard Kenneth Bedwell,1976 Overcoming the Fear of Death Nathan Baylor,2008-11 It did not take me long in the ministry to realize that People are not won to Christ by God patting them on the back of a skeptic hand or thick head containing a closed mind God speaks through the broken heart of the bewildered mourner He touches us where we are hurting I felt a great need for some little book which could be given to those in need of comfort There seemed to be nothing on the market to fill the need so I wrote this Over 4000 were printed and available on the open market One lady wrote and said I am almost 94 and have always been afraid of death My son Roger gave me your book it has given me great comfort Please come and visit me and bring some books for my friends Four years later she went to with Lord in peace not fear The Joyful Beggar Louis De Wohl,2010-11-17 In this magnificent and stirring novel Louis de Wohl turns his famed narrative skill to the story of the soldier and merchant s son who might have been right hand man to a king and who became instead the most beloved of all saints Set against the tempestuous background of 13th Century Italy and Egypt here is the magnificent and inspiring story of Francis Bernardone the brash pleasure loving young officer who was to become immortalized as St Francis of Assisi The story teems with action pageantry and intrigue with finely conceived characters the beautiful saintly Clare Frederick the hawk faced King of Sicily and Holy Roman Emperor the Sultan Al Kamil Pope Innocent III The scene shifts from Assisi Rome and Sicily to the deadly sands of Egypt This book was made into a feature film by 20th Century Fox entitled Francis of Assisi now available on video from Ignatius Press The Great
