The Laird Of Abbotsford:

The Laird of Abbotsford Andrew Norman Wilson, 1989 The Laird of Abbotsford A. N. Wilson, 1980 This critical biography the indifference which has surrounded Scott in this century and the distortions of his Victorian idolaters to recapture the freshness of Scott as he appeared to his contemporaries By weaving together the life and works and examining all of Scott's best known books The Laird of Abbotsford. An Informal Presentation of Sir Walter Scott Una Constance BIRCH (afterwards POPE-HENNESSY (Dame Una Constance) D.B.E.), 1932 A Life of Walter Scott A. N. Wilson, 2002 I have read all W Scott's novels at least fifty times wrote Byron grand work Scotch Fielding as well as great English poet wonderful man I long to get drunk with him A N Wilson's subtle entertaining and frequently provocative critical biography looks back through the indifference which has surrounded Walter Scott in recent times and the distortions of his Victorian idolaters to recapture the freshness of Scott as he appeared to his contemporaries Despite his staggering output as a novelist poet biographer historian and anthologist not to mention his copious letters and the celebrated Journal Scott only embarked on his literary career in early middle age In the face of constant ill health and financial and domestic troubles he successfully combined the life of a bestselling much loved and enormously influential author with that of a lawyer landowner Border farmer part time soldier and paterfamilias A N Wilson makes clear that Scott's genius his humaneness and his splendid qualities of stoicism and sympathy were as apparent in his life as in his work By weaving together the life and the works and discussing all Scott's best known books as well as many which are less familiar A N Wilson has produced a lively and contagiously enthusiastic reassessment of the writer who was he believes the greatest single imaginative genius of the nineteenth century Walter Scott's influence was felt not only in the field of literature but also in the worlds of art architecture opera and domestic manners and by figures as diverse as Byron and Queen Victoria Dickens and Donizetti Pugin and Victor Hugo Winner of the John Llewelyn Rhys Prize A Life of Walter Scott Andrew Norman Wilson, 1996 The Laird of Abbotsford Una Pope-Hennessy, 1932 Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1855 Writers' Houses and the Making of Memory Harald Hendrix, 2012-08-06 This innovative new book examines the ways in which writers houses contribute to the making of memory It shows that houses built or inhabited by poets and novelists both reflect and construct the author's private and artistic persona it also demonstrates how this materialized process of self fashioning is subsequently appropriated within various strategies and policies of cultural memory The Life of Sir Walter Scott Gerald Le Grys Norgate, 1906 The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E's Biography best selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals
