The Landscape And Architecture Of Wellesley College:

The Landscape & Architecture of Wellesley College Peter Fergusson, James F. O'Gorman, John Rhodes, 2000 Site Matters Andrea Kahn, Carol J. Burns, 2020-12-21 In the era of the Anthropocene site matters are more pressing than ever Building on the concepts theories and multi disciplinary approaches raised in the first edition this publication strives to address the changes that have taken place over the last 15 years with new material to complement and re position the initial volume Reaching across design disciplines this highly illustrated anthology assembles essays from architects landscape architects urban designers planners historians and artists to explore ways to physically and conceptually engage site Thoughtful discourse and empirically grounded pieces combine to provide the language and theory to contextualize the meanings of site in the built environment The increasingly complex hybridity of constructed environments today demands new tools for thinking about and working with site Drawing contributions from outside and within the traditional design disciplines this edition will trace important developments in site thinking with new essays on topics such as climate change landscape as infrastructure shifts from global to planetary urbanization debates and the proliferation of participatory site transformation practices Edited by two leading practitioners and academics Site Matters juxtaposes timeless contributions from individuals including Elizabeth Meyer Robert Beauregard and Robin Dripps with original new writings from Peter Marcuse Jane Wolff Neil Brenner and Thaisa Way amongst others to recontextualize and reignite the debate around site An ideal text for students academics and researchers interested in site and design theory Site Matters Carol Burns, Andrea Kahn, 2005-07-08 This volume through theoretical essays and empirically grounded pieces on Le Corbusier s designs contemporary suburbs and the planning agendas of the World Trade Center site provides theory on the appreciation of site and context in architecture Wellesley College Arlene Cohen, 2006 On September 8 1875 Wellesley College an undergraduate liberal arts college for women opened its doors to its first students Eager brave and determined they came from around the country to begin their new life They took classes and made their home in College Hall the grand building founders Henry and Pauline Durant built on a hill overlooking Lake Waban From the beginning an outstanding faculty led and inspired by a series of gifted female presidents devoted themselves to the education of their students encouraging intellectual discussion debate and analytical thought In this pioneering world of women s education a community of learners was born and has thrived for the past 130 years Wellesley s graduates have carried the tradition of excellence beyond the campus epitomizing the college s mission to provide an excellent liberal arts education for women who will make a difference in the world In photographs and words Wellesley College tells the story of this school from its early beginnings John McAndrew's Modernist Vision Mardges Bacon, 2018-11-06 John McAndrew s Modernist Vision tells the compelling story of the architect scholar and curator John McAndrew who played a key role in redefining modernism in the United States from the 1930s onward The designer of the Vassar College Art Library arguably the first modern interior on a college campus and the curator of architecture at the Museum of Modern Art in New York from 1937 to 1941 McAndrew was instrumental in creating a distinct and innovative aesthetic that bridged the European modernist lineage and American regional vernacular Providing a fascinating glimpse into McAndrew s life his associations with important architects and artists and the historical context that shaped his work this book is a thoroughly researched testament to a man who left a powerful mark on the evolution of American architecture

The Women Who Changed Architecture Jan Cigliano Hartman,2022-03-29 A visual and global chronicle of the triumphs challenges and impact of over 100 women in architecture from early practitioners to contemporary leaders Marion Mahony Griffin passed the architectural licensure exam in 1898 and created exquisite drawings that buoyed the reputation of Frank Lloyd Wright Her story is one of the many told in The Women Who Changed Architecture which sets the record straight on the transformative impact women have made on architecture With in depth profiles and stunning images this is the most comprehensive look at women in architecture around the world from the nineteenth century to today Discover contemporary leaders like MacArthur Fellow Jeanne Gang spearheading sustainable design initiatives reimagining cities as equitable spaces and directing architecture schools An essential read for architecture students architects and anyone interested in how buildings are created and the history behind them Vineyard ,2004

Environmentalism in Landscape Architecture Michel Conan,2000 The papers presented in this volume range from proposals for new design approaches historical analysis of the relationship between the practice of landscape architecture and environmentalism to the theories of early practitioners of landscape architecture imbued by an environmentalist outlook The issues above are addressed through topics as eclectic as the design of American zoos the establishment of the Tennessee Valley Authority road design and maintenance in Texas and criticism of relationships between the words and works of select landscape architects This volume provides a fresh approach to encounters between environmentalism and landscape architecture by reframing the issues through self reflection instead of strategic debate By Design 2 ,1989 The Making of Place John Dixon Hunt,2015-11-15 Gardening is rich in tradition and many gardens are explicitly designed to refer to or honor the past But garden design is also rich in innovation and in The Making of Place John Dixon Hunt explores the wide varieties of approaches aesthetics and achievements in garden design throughout the world today The gardens Hunt explores offer surprising new ideas about how we can carve out a space for respite in nature Taking readers to gardens public and private busy and hidden away to botanical gardens small parks university campuses and vernacular gardens Hunt showcases the differences between cultures and countries around the globe including the United States United Kingdom France Germany China and Australia Richly illustrated The Making of Place is sure to enchant and inspire even the most modest of home gardeners
