Lifshitz, 2016-04-30 The articles in this volume by scholars all pursuing careers in the United States concern the theoretical approaches and methods of early medieval studies Most of the issues examined span the period from roughly 400 to 1000 CE and regions stretching from westernmost Eurasia to the Black Sea and the Baltic This is the first volume of essays explicitly to reassess the heuristic structures and methodologies of research on early medieval Europe Because of its geographic chronological thematic and methodological diversity and scope the collection also showcases the breadth of early medieval studies currently practiced in the United States

Moses the Egyptian in the Illustrated Old English Hexateuch (London, British Library Cotton MS Claudius B.iv) Herbert R. Broderick, 2017-11-15 In Moses the Egyptian Herbert Broderick analyzes the iconography of Moses in the famous illuminated eleventh century manuscript known as the Illustrated Old English Hexateuch A translation into Old English of the first six books of the Bible the manuscript contains over 390 images of which 127 depict Moses with a variety of distinctive visual attributes Broderick presents a compelling thesis that these motifs in particular the image of the horned Moses have a Hellenistic Egyptian origin He argues that the visual construct of Moses in the Old English Hexateuch may have been based on a Late Antique no longer extant prototype influenced by works of Hellenistic Egyptian Jewish exegetes who ascribed to Moses the characteristics of an Egyptian Hellenistic king military commander priest prophet and scribe These Jewish writings were utilized in turn by early Christian apologists such as Clement of Alexandria and Eusebius of Caesarea Broderick's analysis of this Moses imagery ranges widely across religious divides art historical religious themes and classical and early Jewish and Christian sources Herbert Broderick is one of the foremost historians in the field of Anglo

Meyer Schapiro's Critical Debates C. Oliver O'Donnell, 2019-10-14 Described in the New York Times as the greatest art historian America ever produced Meyer Schapiro was both a close friend to many of the famous artists of his generation and a scholar who engaged in public debate with some of the major intellectuals of his time This volume synthesizes his prolific career for the first time demonstrating how Schapiro worked from the nexus of artistic and intellectual practice to confront some of the twentieth century s most abiding questions Schapiro was renowned for pioneering interdisciplinary approaches to interpreting visual art His lengthy formal analyses in the 1920s Marxist interpretations in the 1930s psychoanalytic critiques in the 1950s and 1960s and semiotic explorations in the 1970s all helped open new avenues for inquiry Based on archival research C Oliver O Donnell s study is structured chronologically around eight defining debates in which Schapiro participated including his dispute with Isaiah Berlin over the life and writing of Bernard Berenson Schapiro s critique of Martin Heidegger s ekphrastic commentary on Van Gogh and his confrontation with Claude L vi Strauss over the applicability of mathematics to the interpretation of visual art O Donnell s thoughtful analysis of these intellectual exchanges not only traces Schapiro s philosophical evolution but also relates them to the development of art history as a discipline to central tensions of artistic modernism and to modern intellectual history as a whole Comprehensive and thought provoking this study of Schapiro s career pieces together the separate strands of his work into one cohesive picture In doing so it reveals Schapiro s substantial impact on the field of art history and on twentieth century modernism
