Skin Color Recognition Preference And Identification In Interracial Children:

Skin Color Recognition, Preference and Identification in Interracial Children Wayne West Gunthorpe, 1998-02-26
Skin Color Recognition Preference and Identification in Children A Comparative Study is a remarkable study based on thorough primary research Interracial children's racial attitudes have been ignored in research since the 1930s Gunthorpe using the methodology of previous researchers provides objective and comparable data and details some unexpected results Authoritative but easily read Skin Color Recognition is of value to researchers and academics in the areas of minority studies sociology and psychology as well as to parents of interracial children Skin Color Recognition, Preference and Identification in Interracial Children Wayne West Gunthorpe, 1977 Racially Mixed People in America Maria P. P. Root, 1992-02-03 Recipient of the Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Human Rights in the United States 1993 Outstanding Book Award America has been the breeding ground of a biracial baby boom for the past 25 years Unfortunately there has been a dearth of information regarding how racially mixed people identify and view themselves and how they relate to one another Racially Mixed People in America steadily bridges this gap and offers a comprehensive look at the social and psychological adjustment of mixed race people models for identity development contemporary immigration and marriage patterns and methodological issues involved in conducting research with mixed race people all in the context of America's mixed race past and present Including contributions by ethnohistorians psychologists and sociologists this powerful volume will provide the reader a tool for examining ideologies surrounding race race relations and the role of social science in the deconstruction of race Racially Mixed People in America is essential reading for researchers and practitioners in cross cultural studies psychology family studies sociology and social work Racially Mixed People in America is not just a feel good affirmation of mixed race people It offers explanations of how possibly the constructed notions of race operate in our society through an examination of mixed race people from the margins of psychological and sociological studies to the center of race relations discourse This perhaps is its greatest contribution Amerasia Journal A compendium of articles on the experiences and identities of racially mixed people it takes a scholarly approach to understanding the issues of racial identity It is a book we highly recommend for an overview of the psychological implications of the personal conflicts inherent in multiracial identity Minority Markets Alert Maria P P Root and her coauthors have performed a service to society in general and to biracial multiracial people and families in particular By dispelling myths and showing the biracial multiracial experience to be a healthy normal one the book will help demolish barriers of fear and ignorance and will hopefully enable all of us to banish the lingering miasma of obsolete concepts Joe Cunningham The Interracial Club Newsletter An especially timely and well documented book Recommended to mental health professionals who wish to heighten their sensitivity in working with racially mixed people Readings A Journal of Review and Commentary in Mental Health Racially Mixed People in America is an important book effectively presenting a comprehensive multidisciplinary examination by ethnohistorians psychologists and sociologists of America's multiracial past and present

Raising Biracial Children Kerry Ann Rockquemore, Tracey A. Laszloffy, 2005-11-10 As the multiracial population in the United States continues to rise new models for our understanding of mixed race children and how their conception of racial identity must be developed A wide divide between academics who research biracial identity and the everyday world of parents and practitioners who raise and deal with mixed race children exists This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive synthesis of the existing research in the field as well as a model for better understanding the unique process of racial identity development for mixed race children Raising Biracial Children provides parents educators social workers and anyone interested in multiracial issues with an accessible framework for understanding healthy mixed race identity development and to translate those findings into practical care giving strategies

Racial Attitudes and Biculturality in Interracial Preschoolers Deborah Jean Johnson, 1983

Sex and Race in the Black Atlantic Daniel McNeil, 2010-01-27

Drawing on a wide range of sources and a diverse cast of characters this book is the first to place the self fashioning of mixed race individuals in the context of a Black Atlantic and gives particular attention to the construction of mixed race femininity and masculinity during the twentieth century

Tripping on the Color Line Heather M. Dalmage, 2000 Through in depth interviews with individuals from black white multiracial families and insightful sociological analysis

Heather M Dalmage examines the challenges faced by people living in such families and explores how their experiences demonstrate the need for rethinking race in America She examines the lived reality of race in the ways multiracial family members construct and describe their own identities and sense of community and politics Their lack of language to describe their multiracial existence along with their experience of coping with racial ambiguity and with institutional demands to conform to a racially divided racist system is the central theme of Tripping on the Color Line Black American Families, 1965-1984 Walter R. Allen, 1986-10-21 This new bibliography offers access to journal articles books and book chapters doctoral dissertations and masters theses government and university reports and other materials It covers an extended range of topics and encompasses recent work in the social sciences and health sciences as well as the human services profession The bibliographic section presents more than 1 100 numbered citations arranged alphabetically by author with entries keyed to both broad topic categories and specific subjects A classified index with titles lists works by category and subject and a key word index cross references nearly one thousand words that appear in entry titles Beyond Black Kerry Ann Rockquemore, David L. Brunson, 2008 The urgent debate over a multiracial category in the 2000 census forced the nation to reflect upon the important questions of what it means to construct and maintain a racial identity Using in depth interviews and survey data Beyond Black documents how biracial people develop many different racial identities and how these self understandings are derived from historical and contemporary social cultural interactional and psychological processes

Research in Black Child Development Hector F. Myers, 1982-04-21 Product information not available Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Joseph G. Ponterotto, 1995-06-20 Thorough integrative and comprehensive the Handbook of Multicultural Counseling covers all major areas in the field ethics professional issues research theory training practice and emerging trends In addition rather than merely reviewing research the book introduces innovative training and practice methods With the editors and contributors drawn from culturally ethnically and geographically diverse populations the book will be an essential source for practitioners and trainees aiming to improve their competence in helping a multicultural clientele Hispanic Journal of Behavioral Sciences, 2006-11 Merrill-Palmer Quarterly, 1992 Comprehensive Dissertation Index, 1984 Ethnic Identity Martha E. Bernal, George P. Knight, 1993-02-11 This book provides broad coverage of the various research approaches that have been used to study the development of ethnic identity in children and adolescents and the transmission of ethnic identity across generations The authors address topics of acculturation and the development and socialization of ethnic minorities particularly Mexican Americans They stress the roles of social and behavioral scientists in government multicultural policies and the nature of possible ethnic group responses to such policies for cultural maintenance and adaptation The Child's Construction of Social Inequality Robert L. Leahy, 1983 Black, Jewish, and Interracial Katya Gibel Azoulay, 1997-10-13 A study on being Black and Jewish in the United States Author discusses bi racialism and how and why African Americans of Jewish descent identify themselves with other groups who have
