

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A Proclamation.

Whereas, on the twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, a proclamation was issued by the President of the United States, containing, among other things, the following, to wit:

"That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward, and forever, free; and the Executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom.

"That the Executive will, on the first day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the States and parts of States, if any, in which the people thereof, respectively, shall then be in rebellion against the United States; and the fact that any State, or the people thereof, shall on that day be in good faith represented in the Congress of the United States, by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be deemed conclusive evidence that such State, and the people thereof, are not then in rebellion against the United States."

Now, therefore, I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, by virtue of the power in me vested as commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, in time of actual armed rebellion against the authority and government of the United States, and as a fit and necessary war measure for suppressing said rebellion, do, on this first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in accordance with my purpose so to do, publicly proclaimed for the full period of one hundred days from the day first above mentioned, order and designate as the States and parts of States wherein the people thereof, respectively, are this day in rebellion against the United States, the following, to wit: ARKANSAS, TEXAS, LOUISIANA, (except the Parishes of St. Bernard, Plaquemine, Jefferson, St. John, St. Charles, St. James, Ascension, Assumption, Terre Haute, Lafourche, St. Mary, St. Martin, and Orleans, including the City of New Orleans,) MISSISSIPPI, ALABAMA, FLORIDA, GEORGIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, NORTH CAROLINA, AND VIRGINIA, (except the forty-eight counties designated as West Virginia, and also the counties of Berkeley, Accomac, Northampton, Elizabeth City, York, Princess Anne, and Norfolk, including the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth,) and which excepted parts are for the present left precisely as if this proclamation were not issued.

And by virtue of the power and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within said designated States and parts of States are and henceforward shall be free; and that the Executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said persons.

And I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defence; and I recommend to them that, in all cases when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages.

And I further declare and make known that such persons, of suitable condition, will be received into the armed service of the United States, to garrison forts, positions, stations, and other places, and to man vessels of all sorts in said service.

And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice warranted by the Constitution upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind and the gracious favor of Almighty God.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-seventh.

Lincoln Literature Daniel Fish, 1900. The Complete Papers And Writings Of Abraham Lincoln \(Biographically Annotated Edition\) Abraham Lincoln, 2012. This edition includes an extensive and hard-to-find Lincoln biography by Professor John Frost. L.L.D. It contains all seven original volumes, with all of Lincoln's works from 1832 through 1865. I have endured, wrote Lincoln not long before his death, a great deal of ridicule without much malice and have received a great deal of kindness not quite free from ridicule. On Easter Day 1865, the world knew how little this ridicule how much this kindness had really signified. Thereafter, Lincoln, the man, became Lincoln, the hero, year by year, more heroic until to day, with the swift passing of those who knew him, his figure grows ever dimmer, less real. This should not be. For Lincoln, the man, patient, wise, set in a high resolve, is worth far more than Lincoln, the hero, vaguely glorious. Invaluable is the example of the man, intangible that of the hero. And though it is not for us, as for those who in awed stillness listened at Gettysburg with inspired perception to know Abraham Lincoln yet there is for us another way whereby we may attain such knowledge through his words uttered in all sincerity to those who loved or hated him Cold unsatisfying they may seem these printed words while we can yet speak with those who knew him and look into eyes that once looked into his But in truth it is here that we find his simple greatness his great simplicity and though no man tried less so to show his power no man has so shown it more clearly     Abraham Lincoln (The Complete Seven-Volume Edition) Theodore Roosevelt, Abraham Lincoln, Carl Schurz, Francis F.
