College of William & Mary Annual Tax Conference ,     The Guide to Intelligent Giving Joanna L. Krotz, 2009 We all want to make a difference and Town Country shows that philanthropy is not just for the wealthy This inspirational book explains how to donate money and time for optimum impact no matter what your level of income It features the personal stories of a range of contributors from celebrities like Gary Sinise who cofounded an organization to donate school supplies to Iraqi children and Osceola McCarty a laundress who at 85 donated 150 000 the bulk of her life savings to a scholarship fund for black students at the University of Mississippi If you have an impulse to donate your time or money these inspiring stories along with concrete advice about how to select the right cause for you will help make your generosity really count

History and Philosophy of Taxation Marshall-Wythe School of Law. Tax Conference,     Intelligent Giving Jonathan Paul Caulkins, 2002 Provides an intellectual framework for guiding prospective major donors in giving more effectively to higher education Although most major gifts are profoundly motivated by charitable intentions the noble impulse to give to higher education can quickly generate complicated choices Which school Which program Under what terms or conditions Even very talented people who have enjoyed exceptionally successful careers in business and other fields can become disoriented by academe s idiosyncrasies This book provides an intellectual framework for guiding prospective major donors in giving more effectively to higher education It supplies some insight into the higher education sector donor opportunities the development process and how to think about and get the most from a negotiation with the institution of the donor s choice The insights and strategies are culled by a RAND research team mainly from interviews with development officers institutional leaders and donors themselves Ultimately the giving process that works best for any donor will depend on his or her individual interests and needs The best advice is to be clear on what effect the donor wants his or her gift to have

The Charles Schwab Guide to Finances After Fifty Carrie Schwab-Pomerantz, Joanne Cuthbertson, 2014-04-01 Here at last are the hard to find answers to the dizzying array of financial questions plaguing those who are age fifty and older The financial world is more complex than ever and people are struggling to make sense of it all If you're like most people moving into the phase of life where protecting as well as growing assets is paramount you're faced with a number of financial puzzles Maybe you're struggling to get your kids through college without drawing down your life's savings Perhaps you sense your nest egg is at risk and want to move into safer investments Maybe you're contemplating downsizing to a smaller home but aren't sure of the financial implications Possibly medical expenses have become a bigger drain than you expected and you need help assessing options Perhaps you'll shortly be eligible for social security but want to optimize when and how to take it Whatever your specific financial issue one thing is certain your range of choices is vast As the financial world becomes increasingly complex what you need is deeply researched advice from professionals whose credentials are impeccable and who prize clarity and straightforwardness over financial mumbo jumbo Carrie Schwab Pomerantz and the Schwab team have been helping clients tackle their toughest money issues for decades Through Carrie's popular Ask Carrie columns her leadership of the Charles Schwab Foundation and her work across party lines through two White House administrations and with the President's Advisory Council on Financial Capability she has become one of America's most trusted sources for financial advice Here Carrie will not only answer all the questions that keep you up at night she'll provide answers to many questions you haven't considered but should
