Sky Burial:

Tibetan Rituals of Death Margaret Gouin, 2012-09-10 This book describes and analyses the structure and performance of Tibetan Buddhist death rituals and situates that performance within the wider context of Buddhist death practices generally Drawing on a detailed and systematic comparative survey of existing records of Tibetan funerary practices including historical travel accounts anthropological and ethnographic literature Tibetan texts and academic studies it demonstrates that there is no standard form of funeral in Tibetan Buddhism although certain elements are common The structure of the book follows the twin trajectories of benefiting the deceased and protecting survivors in the process it reveals a rich and complex panoply of activities some handled by religious professionals and others by lay persons This information is examined to identify similarities and differences in practices and the degree to which Tibetan Buddhist funeral practices are consistent with the mortuary rituals of other forms of Buddhism A number of elements in these death rites which at first appear to be unique to Tibetan Buddhism may only be Tibetan in their surface characteristics while having roots in practices which pre date the transmission of Buddhism to Tibet Filling a gap in the existing literature on Tibetan Buddhism this book poses research challenges that will engage future scholars in the field of Buddhism Tibetan Buddhism and Anthropology

Peaks on the Horizon Charlie Carroll, 2015-02-10 Charlie Carroll's obsession began with his chance discovery of Seven Years in Tibet in the Adult Reading section of his grade school library The battered hardcover with faded gold lettering sparked a twenty year obsession with Tibet and after combing through every book article and documentary on the mysterious and controversial nation Charlie finally decided it was time to stop reading other people's records and thoughts A high school English teacher by then he took a sabbatical and set out to experience the shrouded land for himself Contending with Chinese bureaucracy unforgiving terrain and sickness inducing altitude Charlie sought entrance to twenty first century Tibet in all its heart stopping beauty The same year Charlie was browsing library shelves Tibetan born Lobsang was crossing the Himalayas on foot enduring to flee the volatile region with his family at the young age of five An exile in Nepal with an ear for languages then a university student in India he followed the love of his life back to their home country only to be separated by China's harsh political backlash In a teahouse at the border between China and Tibet Lobsang met Charlie and recounted his extraordinary life story exemplifying the hardship resilience and hope of modern Tibetan life

The Path to Mysterious Tibet Frank Wong, 2012-07-31 It is a travel publication revealing the mysterious part of Tibet Its sky burial that a dead person is cut and chopped into pieces for the vultures consumption So that the dead will be flown up to the sky by the vultures to place that is nearer to their deities god The second part of the book is on the route that a dead person has to pass through after death Finally end up in reincarnation The reincarnation may not be a rebirth of the human being There are 6 channels to go for rebirth Any moment one can rebirth as the son of his son one can also rebirth as a monkey or an ape animal Believe it or not this is the teaching of the esoteric religion of the Tibetans Have you seen people walking on the water to cross a lake Look at the interesting image of the Tibetan nuns doing that Burial Customs Orin Brightfield, AI, 2025-03-06 Burial Customs explores the diverse and profound funerary practices across cultures and throughout history revealing how societies grapple with mortality and reflect deeper values Delving into the evolution of burial traditions and the significance of ceremonies surrounding death the book uses historical records archaeological findings and anthropological studies to demonstrate the interplay between belief social structure and historical context Funerary art for example provides a visual record that adds layers of meaning while social practices of mourning showcase the diverse ways communities support the bereaved The book progresses by first introducing cultural interpretations of death then examining a range of burial customs from simple interments to elaborate tombs across civilizations It analyzes ceremonies and rituals associated with death highlighting how they provide comfort maintain social cohesion and reinforce religious beliefs The book uniquely focuses on the intersection of religious beliefs social practices and material culture offering a comprehensive and insightful exploration of mortuary practices The culmination discusses the modern day transformations of death rituals in the face of globalization and secularization Ultimately Burial Customs argues that burial practices offer a unique lens to understand cultural values and the evolving relationship between the living and the dead The book's approach balances academic rigor with engaging storytelling offering a valuable resource for general readers and students interested in world history religion and anthropology

South of the Clouds Seth Faison, 2025-03-14 South of the Clouds offers a fascinating intimate portrait of China by telling the story of an American man who ventures into its hidden realms romance politics the criminal underworld and Tibet As he matures from a wide eyed student into a journalist and a seasoned observer he develops a passion for uncovering secrets about China and about himself The author navigates his way past forbidding walls to peek inside the dark corners of Chinese society relying on a remarkable collection of friends and acquaintances who help guide the way an embittered policeman in Xian a gay professor in Shanghai and a Buddhist monk in Tibet who presides at an ancient burial ritual where the corpse is carved up and fed to wild vultures The Tiananmen Square massacre people smuggling and the Falun Gong movement are among the political and social upheavals that the author explains as he witnesses China's uncertain road toward capitalism and its place in the modern world Along his travels the author wrestles with his own cultural identity his sexuality and his spiritual bearings He finds an erotic outlet in the Chinese Sauna Massage and a stirring emotional connection with Jin Xing a brilliant choreographer and China's first openly transsexual citizen Ultimately he discovers the answer to lifelong questions on a mountaintop in Tibet Seth Faison with a subtle understanding of Chinese culture brings past and present events to life in a thought provoking account of this mysterious nation and its people

growth of China's economy since the late 1970s has impacted the whole world including the minority peoples in the west of China people like the Qiang Tibetans and Yi Based on fieldwork in the high valleys of the eastern margins of the Qinghai Tibetan plateau David Burnett has produced a unique study of a people known as the Rgyalrong officially classed as Tibetans The Rgyalrong have been impacted by secular education tourism and migration to the cities that have resulted from economic reform Amidst these changes they endeavour to retain something of their traditional customs songs festivals arts and crafts They are a people who realize that if they lose their unique culture they will lose their very identity The issues raised in this book relate not only to the Rgyalrong but to minority peoples everywhere as they experience the forces of globalization

Dead But Not Lost Robert Goss, Dennis Klass, 2005 The dead are still with us Contemporary therapists and counselors are coming to understand what's been known for millennia in most religions and in most cultures outside the Western milieu it's important to continue bonds between the living and the dead Taking these connections seriously Goss and Klass explore how bonds with the dead are created and maintained In doing so they unearth a fascinating new way to look at the origins and processes of religion itself Examining ties to dead family members teachers religious and political leaders across religious and secular traditions the authors offer novel ways of understanding grief and its role in creating meaning Whether for classes in comparative religion and death and dying or for bereavement counselors and other trying to make sense of grief this book helps us understand what it means to feel connected to those dead but not lost

This new thoroughly updated edition of Bradt's Tibet encompasses the wider region of ethnic Tibet with more detailed coverage of the Amdo and Kham regions than is found in other guides. It also includes essential information on new border openings and is particularly strong on map data, which is extremely difficult to find in Tibet itself, including new theme maps covering a range of topics from Tibetan regions to the Three Parallel Rivers, UN World Heritage Sites, sacred landscapes, permafrost, and major river sources. Bradt's Tibet benefits from years of consistent research. Michael Buckley has been visiting and researching Tibet for more than 30 years and has a raft of books to his name. Thanks to his knowledge and expertise, Bradt's Tibet offers a more extensive language appendix than is found in other guidebooks, plus essential guidelines on cultural etiquette, including a special section on hand gestures to use, local customs, and travelling with minimum impact on Tibet's culture and environment. There is also an appendix on fauna and an extensive list of recommended further resources, including books, music, films, and even virtual reality. Exploring ethnic Tibet independently is a challenge. The land of snows possesses the world's highest peaks, including Everest, and its deepest gorges, as well as some of the wildest and roughest road routes in high Asia Bradt's Tibet provides all the practical information you need to explore ethnic Tibet independently whether motoring mountain biking or trekking Tibet has always fascinated travellers and armchair travellers because it is so difficult to access due to its remoteness and extreme altitude Now under Chinese rule Tibet is a sensitive destination for Westerners Visitors need all the information that they can lay their hands on and this guidebook provides plenty With flight routes and rail access to Tibet expanding and new border crossings opening Michael Buckley and Bradt's Tibet provide all of the information you need to make the most of a trip

Paradise Field Pamela Ryder, 2017-09-19 Interconnected stories depicting the last years of a WWII bomber pilot his relationship with his daughter as both child and adult and his drift into infirmity and death When life dwindles to its irrevocable conclusion recollections are illuminated even unto the grave Such is the narrative of Paradise Field A Novel in Stories whose title is taken from a remote airfield in the American Southwest and while the father recalls his flying days his daughter who nurses the old man reflects as well Pamela Ryder's stories vary in style and perspective and time lines overlap as death advances and retreats This unique and shifting narrative explores the complexities of a relationship in which the father who has been a high flying outsider descends into frailty and becomes dependent upon the daughter he has never really known The opening story Interment for Yard and Garden begins as a simple handbook for Jewish burial and bereavement although the narrator cannot help but reveal herself and her motives From there the telling begins anew and unfolds chronologically returning to the adult daughter's childhood a family vacation in France the grotesqueries of the dinner table the shadowy sightings of a father who has flown away A final journey takes father and daughter back to the Southwest in search of Paradise Field Their travels through that desolate landscape foreshadow the father's ultimate decline as portrayed in the concluding stories that tell of the uneasy transformation in the bond between them and in the transcendence of his demise Taken together the stories in Paradise Field are an eloquent but unsparing depiction of infirmity and death as well as solace and provocation for anyone who has been left to stand graveside and confront eternity

Mourning Nature Ashlee Cunsolo, Karen Landman, 2017-05-17 We are facing unprecedented environmental challenges including global climate change large scale industrial development rapidly increasing species extinction ocean acidification and deforestation challenges that require new vocabularies and new ways to express grief and sorrow over the disappearance degradation and loss of nature Seeking to redress the silence around ecologically based anxiety in academic and public domains and to extend the concepts of sadness anger and loss Mourning Nature creates a lexicon for the recognition and expression of emotions related to environmental degradation Exploring the ways in which grief is experienced in numerous contexts this groundbreaking collection draws on classical philosophical artistic and poetic elements to explain environmental melancholia Understanding that it is not just how we mourn but what we mourn that defines us the authors introduce new perspectives on conservation sustainability and our relationships with nature An ecological elegy for a time of climatic and environmental upheaval Mourning Nature challenges readers to turn devastating events into an opportunity for positive change Contributors include Glenn Albrecht Murdoch University retired Jessica Marion Barr Trent University Sebastian Braun University of North Dakota Ashlee Cunsolo Labrador Institute of Memorial University Amanda Di Battista York University Franklin Ginn University of Edinburgh Bernie Krause soundscape ecologist author and independent scholar Lisa Kretz University of Evansville Karen Landman University of Guelph Patrick Lane Poet Andrew Mark independent scholar Nancy Menning Ithaca College John Charles Ryan University of New England Catriona Sandilands York University and Helen Whale independent scholar
