moments function in a story Baxter is equally at home tackling a thorny matter such as charisma which intersects with political figures like the disastrous forty fifth US president as he is bringing new interest to subjects such as list making in fiction Amid these craft essays an interlude of two personal essays the story of a horrifying car crash and an introspective letter to a young poet add to the intimate nature of the book The final essay reflects on a lifetime of writing and closes with a memorable image of Baxter as a boy waiting at the window for a parent who never arrives and filling that absence with stories Wonderlands will stand alongside his prior work as an insightful and lasting work of criticism
