character of Noelle is loosely based on Yeardley's story. The character of Eve is a fictional composite of two girls, Elizabeth Smart and Jaycee Dugard, who were abducted from their homes by psychopaths and held captive. Elizabeth for nine months and Jaycee for over eighteen years. Fortunately, they both eventually escaped from their captors and returned to their families. Because of the subject matter of these girls' stories, OVER THE FENCE is not for everyone. Although not overly graphic in nature, this novel does depict instances of domestic violence and sexual assault of a minor. If you get upset or uncomfortable reading this book, please set it down and call your doctor or local mental health office. If you are a victim of domestic violence or know someone who is, you can get help by calling the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1 800 799 7233. For anyone who has information on a missing child, call the Missing and Exploited Child Hotline at 1 800 843 5678. And lastly, Sharon and Lexie Love, Yeardley's mother and sister, co-founded the One Love Foundation to honor Yeardley's memory and help empower young people to have healthy relationships. Lady Bird Sheryl Mebane, 2002      Silver Thaw and Selected Stories Ron Johnson, 2005-01-01. Silver Thaw is set in the late 60s in the Great Central Valley of California. It's a story of four friends forced to confront the moral, sexual, and political parameters which will define their adult lives. There is the loss of innocence precipitated by the Vietnam War, but the main battle is an internal struggle that each must encounter and confront within themselves. Art is a quiet, independent-minded college student who wants to become a high school shop teacher. He has recently become intimate with June, a survivor of the working class trailer park where her mother died of alcoholism. She is attending college to escape the pain of her past. Her roommate Honey is seeking a life with a man she can believe in. An elemental, aggressive woman, sexually confident, Honey is a woman by whom men define themselves. She is falling in love with Jess, who is finishing college under the Army ROTC program. Jess wants a part of Vietnam, and he wants Honey. The war can't wait, and she can't. To survive, the four must recognize their own flawed human nature and must learn to defend the notion of human decency in the ordinary conduct of their affairs.
