The Social Life of Things Arjun Appadurai, 1988-01-29 Three of the papers were presented to the Ethnohistory Workshop at the University of Pennsylvania during 1983-84 the others were presented at a Symposium on the Relationship between Commodities and Culture held May 23-25 1984 in Philadelphia Includes bibliographies and index The Social

Life of Things Arjun Appadurai, 1988-01-29 The meaning that people attribute to things necessarily derives from human transactions and motivations particularly from how those things are used and circulated The contributors to this volume examine how things are sold and traded in a variety of social and cultural settings both present and past Focusing on culturally defined aspects of exchange and socially regulated processes of circulation the essays illuminate the ways in which people find value in things and things give value to social relations By looking at things as if they lead social lives the authors provide a new way to understand how value is externalized and sought after Containing contributions from American and British social anthropologists and historians the volume bridges the disciplines of social history cultural anthropology and economics and marks a major step in our understanding of the cultural basis of economic life and the sociology of culture It will appeal to anthropologists social historians economists archaeologists and historians of art The Social Life of Things

Arjun Appadurai, 2000 The Social Life of Things, 2000 Contemporary Archaeology in Theory Robert W.

Preucel, Stephen A. Mrozowski, 2010-05-10 The second edition of Contemporary Archaeology in Theory The New Pragmatism has been thoroughly updated and revised and features top scholars who redefine the theoretical and political agendas of the field and challenge the usual distinctions between time space processes and people Defines the relevance of archaeology and the social sciences more generally to the modern world Challenges the traditional boundaries between prehistoric and historical archaeologies Discusses how archaeology articulates such contemporary topics and issues as landscape and nature's agency meaning and practice sexuality embodiment and personhood race class and ethnicity materiality memory and historical silence colonialism nationalism and empire heritage patrimony and social justice media museums and publics Examines the influence of American pragmatism on archaeology Offers 32 new chapters by leading archaeologists and cultural anthropologists Material Culture Victor Buchli, 2004 Publisher description The Social Life of Sound Sophia

Maalsen, 2019-01-28 The Social Life of Sounds argues for the agency of sounds and music and the acceleration of their social lives in the Digital Age Drawing upon research with composers producers record collectors DJs and record labels the book problematises the notion of artistic authorship as it is framed in Western systems of property Acknowledging that things sounds samples and recorded music and people are co constituted and that personhood is distributed through things and their reuse Maalsen makes a case for understanding sound as multibiographical and challenges the possessive individual that is the basis of artistic copyright The Future as Cultural Fact Arjun Appadurai, 2020-05-05 This major collection of essays a sequel to Modernity at Large and Fear of Small Numbers is the product of ten years research and writing constituting an important contribution to globalization studies Appadurai takes a broad analytical look at the genealogies of the present era of globalization through essays on violence commodification nationalism terror and materiality Alongside a discussion of these wider debates Appadurai situates India at the heart of his work offering writing based on firsthand research among urban slum dwellers in Mumbai in which he examines their struggle to achieve equity recognition and self governance in conditions of extreme inequality Finally in his work on design planning finance and poverty Appadurai embraces the politics of hope and lays the foundations for a revitalized and urgent anthropology of the future

The Other Kuala Lumpur Yeoh Seng Guan, 2014-02-05 Kuala Lumpur like many Southeast Asian cities has changed very significantly in the last two or three decades expanding its size and modernising and globalising its built environment For many people these changes represent progress and development This book however focuses on the more marginalised residents of Kuala Lumpur Among others it considers street hawkers and vendors refugees the urban poor religious minorities and a sexuality rights group and explores how their everyday lives have been adversely affected by these recent changes The book shows how urban renewal the law and ethno religious nationalism can work against these groups in wanting to live and work in the capital city of Malaysia

Mapping the Postcolonial Domestic in the Works of Vargas Llosa and Mukundan Minu Susan Koshy, 2020-12-16 This book is among the first works to engage with postcolonialism through the lens of the domestic in its totality encompassing multifarious aspects such as domestic space objects family and servitude among others The study foregrounds the inadequacy of Western theories on the domestic in explaining the postcolonial situation and proposes alternate methods of analysing the inner realm of colonial experience Structured within the framework of comparative literary studies the work serves to contribute to the tri continental model of comparative literature establishing mutually illuminating connections between the continents The study provides scope for a widening of the epistemological base of critical inquiry especially in the domains of postcolonialism area studies and comparative literature It explores new avenues in cross cultural studies contributing to the transnational diffusion of cultures and literatures by focusing on what has been termed minor the domestic and its rhythms in postcolonial cultures

Retracing Images Daniel Šuber, Slobodan Karamanic, 2012-01-06 The essays in this collection disclose cultural and political dynamics as they occurred before and in the wake of Yugoslavia's dissolution 1991-92 by analyzing visual data such as film art graffiti street art public advertisement memorials and monuments Within the vast field of Balkan Studies such visual materials have rarely been taken for important empirical evidence Against the still widely held presumption that the cultural production of allegedly totalitarian states such as Yugoslavia can be neglected as they were penetrated by state ideology the contributions offer a corrective image of the complex ideological dynamics and discursive potentials in various artistic and cultural fields Phenomena such as Titostalgia nationalist mobilization nation branding rewriting of history inventing of traditions and symbolic violence that have surfaced in recent years are interpreted in the light of Yugoslavia's legacy Contributors include Zoran Terzi Elissa Helms Miklavž

Komelj Neboj a Jovanovi Isabel Str hle Sezgin Boynik Gregor Bulc Davor Beganovi Robert Alagjovovski Gal Kirn Mitja Velikonja Daniel uber and Slobodan Karamani Consuming Cultural Hegemony Harisur Rahman,2019-11-22 This book examines the circulation and viewership of Bollywood films and filmi modernity in Bangladesh The writer poses a number of fundamental questions what it means to be a Bangladeshi in South Asia what it means to be a Bangladeshi fan of Hindi film and how popular film reflects power relations in South Asia The writer argues that partition has resulted in India holding hegemonic power over all of South Asia s nation states at the political economic and military levels a situation that has made possible its cultural hegemony The book draws on relevant literature from anthropology sociology film media communication and cultural studies to explore the concepts of hegemony circulation viewership cultural taste and South Asian cultural history and politics

Law and Intangible Cultural Heritage in the City Sara Ross,2019-06-20 With disappearing music venues and arts and culture communities at constant risk of displacement in our urban centers the preservation of intangible cultural heritage is of growing concern to global cities This book addresses the role and protection of intangible cultural heritage in the urban context Using the methodology of Urban Legal Anthropology the author provides an ethnographic account of the civic effort of Toronto to become a Music City from 2014 18 in the context of redevelopment and gentrification pressures Through this the book elucidates the problems cities like Toronto have in equitably protecting intangible cultural heritage and what can be done to address this It also evaluates the engagement that Toronto and other cities have had with international legal frameworks intended to protect intangible cultural heritage as well as potential counterhegemonic uses of hegemonic legal tools Understanding urban intangible cultural heritage and the communities of people who produce it is of importance to a range of actors from urban developers looking to formulate livable and sustainable neighbourhoods to city leaders looking for ways in which their city can flourish to scholars and individuals concerned with equitability and the right to the city This book is the beginning of a conversation about what is important for us to protect in the city for future generations beyond built structures and the role of intangible cultural heritage in the creation of full and happy lives The book is of interest to legal and sociolegal readers specifically those who study cities cultural heritage law and legal anthropology
