Bonnen, 1991 Produced by the Social Science Agricultural and Rural Agenda Project this volume comprises papers commissioned for conferences in 1987 and 1988 the agenda and strategy statements developed at the latter conference and later papers commissioned to fill specific gaps The volume is in five parts general introduction introduction to domestic farm agribusiness and consumer work and all international agricultural development work the four driving forces for development three crosscutting concerns and administration and funding Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1916

Rethinking U.S. World Power Daniel Bessner, Michael Brenes, 2024-03-06 Since the late 1990s diplomatic historians have emphasized the importance of international and transnational processes flows and events to the history of the United States in the world Rethinking U S World Power provides an alternative to these scholarly frameworks by assembling a diverse group of historians to explore the impact of the United States and its domestic history on U S foreign relations and world affairs In so doing the collection underlines that even in a global age domestic politics and phenomena were crucial to the history of U S foreign policy and international relations more broadly Integration of Ethical and Social Aspects into Precision Livestock Farming - Achieving Real-World Impact Responsibly Oleksiy Guzhva, Janice Siegford, 2022-02-03 instruction Each lesson links to an engaging studentbook that introduces phonics skills and provides a strong text to photo match in order to reinforce comprehension and build content area knowledge The Rugg Social Science Course: An introduction to American civilization Harold Ordway Rugg,1929 Social Science Series ,1929 The Sociology of Food and Agriculture Michael Carolan,2021-09-26 Thoroughly revised and updated the third edition of The Sociology of Food and Agriculture provides a cutting edge comprehensive introduction to the study of food and society The book begins by examining the food economy with chapters focusing on foodscapes the financialization of food and a new chapter dedicated to food and nutrition in security In Part II the book addresses community and culture While some books only look at the interrelationships between food and culture this section problematizes the food system from the standpoint of marginalized bodies It contains chapters focusing on agricultural and food labor and the peasantries topics which are often overlooked and gender ethnicity and poverty Part III examines food and the environment with chapters addressing important topics such as agro ecosystems food justice sustainable food and agriculture and food sovereignty The final part focuses on food futures and includes a brand new chapter on sustainable diets and ethical consumption The book concludes by showcasing how we can rethink food production and consumption in a way that can help heal social political and cultural divisions All chapters draw on international case studies and include learning objectives suggested discussion questions and recommendations for further reading to aid student learning The Sociology of Food and Agriculture is perfect for students of food studies including food justice food and nutrition security sustainable diets food sovereignty environmental sociology agriculture and cultural studies Feminisms and Ruralities Barbara Pini,Berit Brandth,Jo Little,2014-12-18 Feminist concern with difference has rarely extended to rurality even if it is now widely recognized that experiences of inequality depend on intersections of several identities in each individual life This lack of concern may reflect the urban background of the majority of feminist academics or at least their urban positionality once in the academy It may equivalently be that feminists have been influenced by stereotypes of rural women as traditional and reactionary and thus seen them as unlikely exponents of gender equality and an unfruitful focus for scholarly energies Perhaps the problem is a broader one that is reflective of the much documented but still apparent unwillingness of many feminists to recognize and address difference in any of its manifestations Regardless even with the recent interest in intersectionality which has necessarily renewed and reenergized debates in feminism about diversity and inclusion the question of how women are differently positioned because of their non metropolitan location has remained largely overlooked Annual Report of the Chairman - Social Science Research Council Social Science Research Council (U.S.),1927 Proceedings of the ... Annual Convention of the Southwestern Political and Social Science Association Southwestern Political and Social Science Association. Convention,1924 Cry from the Cotton Donald Grubbs,2000-07-01 The Southern Tenant Farmers Union was founded in eastern Arkansas in 1934 to protest the New Deal s enrichment of Southern cotton barons at the expense of suffering sharecroppers both black and white Their courageous struggle in the face of determined and often violent resistance from their landlords is the subject of this thorough study from Donald H Grubbs which was published to critical acclaim in 1971 Cry from the Cotton was the first full scale look at the STFU and its leaders It discloses that although the union operated under noticeable socialist party sponsorship in its infancy it drew much more upon the native Southern evangelical and populist traditions much as the civil rights movement would do twenty five years later Grubbs convincingly demonstrates that while the STFU failed to gain immediate social justice for its members it resulted in the formation of the Farm Security Administration which even today continues to aid the rural poor and it played a large part in forcing the formation of the La Follette Civil Liberties Committee whose spotlight on management terrorism helped the CIO toward success The volume stands as a classic on labor issues and class struggle and still echoes with the haunting plea of the dispossessed for equity

Bygone Utopias and Farm Protest in the Rural Midwest Daniel Jaster, 2021-04-09 This book explores those who long for bygone utopias times before rapid culturally destructive social change stripped individuals of their perceived agency The case of the wave of foreclosure protests that swept through the rural American Midwest during the 1930s illustrates these themes These actions embodied a utopian understanding of agrarian society that had largely disappeared by the late 19th century hundreds to thousands of people fixed public auctions of foreclosed farms returning owners property and giving them a second chance to save their farm Comparisons to later movements including the National Farmers Organization and the protests surrounding the 1980s Farm Crisis highlight the importance of culturally catastrophic social change occurring at a breakneck pace in fomenting these types of bygone utopian actions These activists and movements should cause scholars to re think what it means to be conservative and how we view conservatism helping us better understand why we re seeing a contemporary resurgence in nationalist and reactionary movements across the globe
