Social Studies Readers Theatre for Children Mildred Knight Laughlin, Peggy Tubbs Black, Margery Kirby Loberg, 1991 Suggests sources for developing readers theatre scripts Social Studies Readers Theatre for Children Mildred Knight Laughlin, Peggy Tubbs Black, Margery Kirby Loberg, 1991 Suggests sources for developing readers theatre scripts Social Studies Teaching Activities Books Gary Lare, 2006 An annotated listing of activities books for use with social studies curriculums focusing on elementary and middle school grades arranged by curriculum area topic and grade level Includes contact information for publishers and distributors of appropriate books and an index Readers Theatre for Global Explorers Doraine Bennett, 2010-12-16 This exciting compilation of readers theatre scripts for the 4th to 8th grade social studies classroom brings history to life via the adventures of explorers across the globe Throughout history powerful kings and queens have sent their emissaries on quests for land and wealth to expand their empires But what about those emissaries A man who ventures to sail into uncharted seas knowing he may never return A woman who disguises herself and walks into forbidden lands What gave them the courage and the strength to face many daunting challenges How did they feel during the worst and best times in their adventures Readers Theatre for Global Explorers gives social studies teachers and school librarians a tool to introduce students to the determined men and women who ventured into unknown territory This collection of short scripts for 4th 8th grade students teaches about explorers their native cultures and the lands they found Just as importantly they make learning fun Reading, Writing, and Rhythm: Engaging Content-Area Literacy Strategies Rosalie Fink, 2015-07-01 Rhythm rhyme and rap are powerful hooks that spark students interests and engage them in learning This innovative resource provides effective strategies for incorporating rhyme and rhythm based activities and lessons into Language Arts Social Studies Science and Math instruction Through the use of music singing student and teacher created raps Reader s Theater Freeze Frames and historical songs students will develop their literacy skills master content specific knowledge and be more likely to retain information while meeting standards goals Serving Homeschooled Teens and Their Parents Maureen T. Lerch, Janet Welch, 2004-05-30 Today more than a million students are being educated at home and that figure increases at a rate of 7 14% annually Homeschooling is a growing trend in our society and public librarians are being called upon with increasing frequency to serve the needs of homeschooled students So just what are the needs of the homeschooled teen and how can you and your library meet those needs A former young adult librarian and a homeschool parent have joined forces to create this insightful guide and answer that question After reviewing the developmental and social needs of teens the authors demonstrate how those needs may be met in the public library setting You ll find a wealth of ideas for adapting every facet of your library service for this growing population from developing a homeschool collection to expanding services and creating special programs You ll also find suggestions on how to market what your library has to offer to homeschoolers You may even discover some new ways to employ the talents and time of these students and their families Extensive resource lists conclude the volume they will help you better serve home educated teens and their parents

Activities for Oral Language Development Jennifer Overend Prior,2005 Literacy Work Stations Debbie Diller,2003 This book will help teachers solve the dilemma What does the rest of my class do while I m working with a small reading group Debbie Diller offers practical suggestions for over a dozen literacy work stations that link to instruction and make preparation and management easy for teachers Learn how to set up work stations how to manage them and how to keep them going throughout the year Each chapter includes how to introduce each station materials to include at each station what to model how to solve problems how to differentiate how to assess and keep students accountable reflection questions for professional development Materials in both English and Spanish are provided in the extensive resource section Throughout the book the author has included photos of literacy workstations from a variety of classrooms in which she has worked to illustrate the methods discussed in the text From the Page to the Stage Shirlee Sloyer,2003-04-15 Readers theatre is a powerful tool for building language skills and involving young readers with literature Educator and seasoned readers theatre coach Shirlee Sloyer provides teachers and librarians with nuts and bolts guidelines for integrating readers theatre into the classroom and library Detailed instructions for every step guide readers through the process of setting up and conducting a successful program that is based on NCTE and IRA standards Grades 4 8 Includes An Overview of Readers Theatre Selecting the Literature Exploring Key Literary Elements Compiling and Adapting Material Classroom Procedures Preparing for Performance The Performance and Afterward A Model Program and Script 11 Classroom Ready Sample Scripts

Social Studies Readers Theatre for Young Adults Kathy Howard Latrobe,Carol Casey,Linda A. Gann,1991 Provides an overview of the techniques used in readers theatre and presents 16 completed scripts from selected classics in world literature to be used in readers theatre presentations

Accessing the Classics La Vergne Rosow,2005-12-30 Help readers improve reading skills while stimulating their appreciation and increasing their understanding of great literature Using a scaffolding approach this guide leads readers from simple and engaging reads to more challenging texts and simultaneously cultivates their interest and skills An invaluable resource for middle and high school ABE and ESL educators as well as for readers advisors All readers even those still learning to speak English can enjoy the delights and benefits of great literature with the help of this motivational and practical book guide Rosow takes you on a journey through the history of Western literature beginning with ancient myths and moving to medieval tales and classics of the Renaissance Romantic Movement and Modernism Along the way she shows you how to give readers easy access to some of the best literature of all time Scores of collections focus on such ancient and enduring stories as Gilgamesh Beowulf the tales of Chaucer historical masterpieces of William Shakespeare Jane Austen Edgar Allan Poe Charles Dickens and stellar names of more recent times such as Virginia Woolf John Steinbeck Ernest Hemingway and J R R Tolkien Each carefully selected collection lists an assortment of titles ranging in reading level and arranged progressively from simple renditions

such as picture book retellings through more advanced selections and readings where audio versions and simpler formatting support the reader and on to the most challenging reads Author profiles and narrative as well as detailed descriptions of each title provide further insights into the story lines and features of the books while building a scaffold of reading experience and knowledge to help readers better understand the texts For example the Mark Twain collection begins with a brief biographical sketch of the author followed by descriptions of two illustrated books about the author and two readers theatre skits based on his work A collection of Twain's short stories is recommended next and then several illustrated versions of his novels and an illustrated edition of Twain's memoir Life on the Mississippi which is supported by an audiotope version Each recommended title is rated as start here next read support here or challenging read and related reads and audio and video versions are listed when appropriate The author also notes author and student favorites titles with exceptional illustrations and other features of interest Focus is on authors and titles of the Western canon that are generally available in library collections Because some of the titles cited are older editions this is a valuable collection development tool in libraries as well as an essential resource for readers advisors Adult Basic Education and English as Second Language educators and young adult educators and librarians Young adult and adult or Grades 9 and up

Making the Most of Small Groups Debbie Diller, 2023-10-10 Author Debbie Diller turns her attention to small reading groups and the teacher's role in small group instruction Making the Most of Small Groups Differentiation for All grapples with difficult questions regarding small group instruction in elementary classrooms such as How do I find the time How can I be more organized How do I form groups How can I differentiate to meet the needs of all of my students Structured around the five essential reading elements comprehension fluency phonemic awareness phonics and vocabulary the book provides practical tips sample lessons lesson plans and templates suggestions for related literacy work stations and connections to whole group instruction In addition to ideas to use immediately in the classroom Diller provides an overview of relevant research and reflection questions for professional conversations

Rip-Roaring Reads for Reluctant Teen Readers Gale W. Sherman, Bette D. Ammon, 1993-11-15 Selected for their high interest appealing formats appropriate reading levels outstanding writing and popularity these contemporary spellbinding titles 20 for grades 5-8 and 20 for grades 9-12 reflect a variety of genres and themes that will encourage lifelong literacy Given for each title are genre and themes review citations author information plot summary reading and interest rankings booktalks literature extensions alternative book report suggestions and reproducible bookmarks that suggest further reading

Readers Theatre for Children Mildred Knight Laughlin, Kathy Howard Latrobe, 1990-04-15 Activities that prepare children to participate in readers theatre are accompanied by reproducible scripts of classics e.g. Little Women Heidi The Secret Garden and suggested scenes from contemporary children's literature e.g. Tuck Everlasting The Wish Giver The Whipping Boy Stone Fox Sarah Plain and Tall that students may use to develop their own scripts A great way to introduce good books and perpetuate an interest in literature
