Socialization Process Product And Change:

Socialization Edward Z. Dager, 1971-01-01 The Social Life of Children in a Changing Society K. M. Borman, 2019-01-22 This book developed from a symposium in which participants examined childhood socialization from a number of perspectives and with several disciplinary lenses The major purpose of the symposium and thus of this volume is to provide an integrative multidisciplinary discussion of the social development of preschool and young elementary school aged children As a result there are contributions to this volume from anthropologists Leacock Ogbu psychologists Lippincott Mueller Ramey and Snow sociologists Borman Denzin and scholars who have self consciously adopted an interdisciplinary framework First published in 1984 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Inter-civilizational Relations and the Destiny of the West Victor Segesvary, 2000 Inter Civilization Relations and the Destiny of the West examines in scholarly detail historical and philosophical background to the current turning point of history Segesvary brings together hermeneutics and history and philosophy and politics in a thought provoking synthesis which will interest politicians diplomats and economic development specialists Psychopathology and Child Development Eric Schopler, 2012-12-06 The First International Leo Kanner Colloquium on Child Development Deviations and Treatment explores relationships between experimental research normal development and interventions with early infantile autism as a reference model of relatively unambiguous abnormal development Sponsored by the Treatment and Education of Autistic and related Communications handicapped Children TEACCH Project at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill the colloquium tackled the challenge of facilitating communications among scientists of different disciplines working in a specialized area The meeting proved successful in generating an interplay and information exchange among scientists of diverse academic and professional orientation who if not completely able to agree on common factors did nevertheless achieve awareness and clarification of their differences The TEACCH conference and this volume have implications for all research efforts within and outside the domain of mental health This is particularly so at a time of limited dollar resources for research support The present and foreseeable future represent such a time one when communication among fields resource competition between basic and applied research biomedical versus psychosocial research and the question of research utilization assume a new commanding significance Thus the question of accountability for research has come to the fore The Meanings of Age Bernice L. Neugarten, 1996-12-15 Neugarten who explains and highlights Neugarten's contributions in light of the most recent research in the fields of gerontology and social policy Carefully edited by Dail A Neugarten each chapter presents the reader with Bernice Neugarten's original formulations on topics such as age norms and age constraints the changing meanings of age and age neutral social policy The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1973 Principles of Subjective Anthropology Binggong Chen, 2023-03-27 This book puts forward the concept of subjective anthropology and outlines a theoretical system that will allow subjective anthropology to qualify as a new academic discipline in its own right In an effort to respond to the field's proper role as the science of humanity subjective analysis has been introduced into the study of anthropology The book fills two distinct gaps in our knowledge and understanding of modern man offering detailed descriptions of personality and of groups while also advancing the theory of structure and choice The book formulates seven basic principles of subjective anthropology and divides anthropology into three major branches subjective anthropology cultural anthropology and biological or physical anthropology which can be further divided into sub branches The book pursues three key goals advancing and developing the theoretical system of subjective anthropology reconstructing the discipline of anthropology and establishing a Chinese anthropology with Chinese characteristics Chinese visions and Chinese styles

Assessing the Value of U.S. Army International Activities Jefferson P. Marquis, 2006 A number of important steps have been taken in recent years to improve the planning and management of Army International Activities AIA Still a need remains and is widely recognized for a high level assessment mechanism to allocate AIA resources more efficiently execute AIA programs more effectively and highlight the contributions of AIA to the National Military Strategy the DoD Security Cooperation Guidance and The Army Plan This report presents a framework for assessing the value of the Army's non combat interactions with other militaries It provides an overview of AIA programs and establishes their connection to the U S government's current strategy for security cooperation It also provides a matrix of eight AIA ends derived from top level national and Army guidance and eight AIA ways which summarize the various capabilities inherent in AIA programs Next the report presents a method for linking AIA ends and ways that involves a theoretical rationale for security cooperation selection criteria for AIA output and outcome indicators and related measures of performance and effectiveness The report also describes the new online AIA Knowledge Sharing System AIAKSS that is being used to solicit programmatic and assessment data from AIA officials in the Army's Major Commands In addition the report includes the results of three test cases involving the Army Medical Department the National Guard Bureau and U S Army South that helped to identify potential problems in evaluating AIA and to suggest improvements in the proposed AIA assessment mechanism Finally the report contains an extensive list of output and outcome indicators that have been reviewed by AIA officials throughout the Army Publisher's website

Marketing for Sustainable Development Sihem Dekhili, 2021-11-30 Many people see a weak association between marketing and sustainable development and even consider them as two incompatible fields However marketing benefits from an extremely powerful position to encourage transformations at the production level and to guide consumers towards responsible behaviors From its inception marketing has been positioned as a support for the relationship between the company and its customers with the quest for well being set in the very foundations of the discipline In a context that is marked by crises and much skepticism marketing today should more than ever prove that it acts in good faith This book offers practitioners public authorities professors and students illustrations that demonstrate that the dissemination of sustainable practices is indeed a marketing issue It argues that it is particularly important not only to overcome the divide between the concepts of marketing and sustainability but also to use marketing tools and frameworks to support sustainable development and strengthen the green market Internal and International Migration Hein Mallee, Frank N. Pieke, 2014-04-08 Comparing migration in China itself to Chinese migration to Europe this book critically assesses received ideas perceptions and theories concerning internal and international migration Comparing migration in China itself to Chinese migration to Europe this book critically assesses received ideas perceptions and theories concerning internal and international migration The book argues for the emergence of a Chinese world system in which internal and international mobility is a central and heterogeneous feature The book presents an unusually rich case study of migration and transnationalism of migrants from southern Zhejiang province in Chinese and European cities studies of rural urban migration in booming southern China implementation of the birth control policy among migrants in Beijing discrimination and stereotyping of rural migrants in Shanghai contract worker teams in Beijing and forced urban rural migration during the Cultural Revolution Environmental Change and Human Security: Recognizing and Acting on Hazard Impacts Peter H.
