The Late Bourgeois World:

The Late Bourgeois World Nadine Gordimer, 2013-01-01 Liz Van Den Sandt's ex husband Max an ineffectual rebel has drowned himself in prison for a failed act of violence against the government he had betrayed his colleagues Now Liz has been asked to perform a direct service for the Black Nationalist movement at considerable danger to herself Can she take such a risk in the face of Max's example of the uselessness of such actions Yet how can she not Nadine Gordimer

Dominic Head, 1994-11-10 The award to Nadine Gordimer of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1991 was an affirmation of her distinctive contribution to twentieth century fiction and to the creation of a literature that challenges apartheid In this study which may be used as an introduction as well as by those already familiar with Gordimer's work Dominic Head discusses each of her novels in detail paying close attention to the texts both as a reflection of events and situations in the real world and as evidence of her constant rethinking of her craft Head shows how Gordimer's concerns apparent in her earliest novels are developed through increasing stress on the politics of textuality and he pursues the implications of this development to consider how Gordimer's later work contributes to postmodernist fiction and to a recentering of political engagement in an era of uncertainty Liberating Method Marjorie L. DeVault, 1999 Liberating Method reflects the conviction that feminist insights can and should contribute to a sounder more rigorous social science In this book one of the leading practitioners and teachers of feminist methodology examines profound questions about traditional and customary practices of social research Marjorie DeVault argues that established methods too often ignore social oppression as she charts her quest for approaches that will more adequately represent marginalized groups The Late Bourgeois World [a Novel] Nadine Gordimer, 1982

Culture in Africa Raoul Granqvist, 1993 A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood's study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world Nadine Gordimer (Routledge Revivals) Judie Newman, 2014-06-27 International in her appeal Nadine Gordimer is an original and accomplished novelist whose works have found literary and popular recognition In this critical study first published in 1988 and the first by a woman Judie Newman discusses Gordimer's novels including A Sport of Nature Gordimer's writing is both political committed and formally innovative confronting subject matter of great contemporary interest and at the same time seeking out narrative forms that combine European and indigenous culture Her novels are sensitive to their context while also offering an important contribution to postmodernist reassessments of narrative poetics and a challenge to European conceptions of the novel Judie Newman places particular emphasis on Gordimer's searching investigation of the relation of gender to genre and explores other major concerns such as the crisis of liberal values the nature of historical consciousness racism sexual politics and the psychopathology of power Her study combines close literary analysis with a wide ranging exploration of ideas showing clearly how the artist can contribute to contemporary debate

Nadine Gordimer's Fiction

Syeda Faiqa Mazhar, 2023-12-15 Nadine Gordimer's Fiction is a major study of the life and writings of Nadine Gordimer a towering figure in the literary and cultural life of South Africa in the late 20th and early 21st centuries recognised for her fiction through several prizes most notably the 1991 Nobel Prize for Literature It has the makings of a guide taking the reader through the complexities in Gordimer's life literature and society backed by academic research doctoral and postdoctoral and informed by Dr Mazhar's study visit to South Africa including a face to face interview with Gordimer The reader gets a rich picture mediated by the author's own intellectual journey from Pakistan the country of her birth and the United Kingdom Dr Mazhar maps the complexities of colonialism in South Africa and beyond in different forms most notably in the legislated discrimination based on race ethnicity Apartheid 1948 1994 Covering the literary writings and political activism of Gordimer both during and after Apartheid the book provides the reader with a detailed account of individual works of fiction and vistas of critical thought and action that serve as their source and backdrop Dr Mazhar draws on the cultural theories of Homi Bhabha especially on the notion of The Third Space a fictional space borderland between social and political polarisations which allows for reflection refinement and re action that is transformational and psychologically uplifting She demonstrates that Gordimer takes her characters through such spaces which allow for a transformational experience that leads to perspectives realisations that were missing as a result of constraints that were externally imposed by law and tradition and interiorised as a survival mode Dr Mazhar concludes that Gordimer gracefully articulates her vision for a world free of complexities which one must strive for Although the book presents the academic analysis of Gordimer's fiction and the memoir as separate parts there are organic connections between the two which link the social ethos political struggles varied ideological perspectives and ethnic and trans ethnic identities from which Gordimer draws her subjects and their lives and depicts them through appropriate narrative techniques Nadine Gordimer's Fiction is a welcome addition to books on author studies literary criticism and South African culture and society It offers excellent material for both academic and non academic readers The style of writing used in the book is clear and simple yet powerful This can help the reader to appreciate the enormous achievement of Gordimer which has established her as a major literary figure in South Africa and beyond Dr Balasubramanyam Chandramohan PhD Shaf FHEA Senior Research Fellow Institute of Commonwealth Studies School of Advanced Study University of London

The Poetry of Derek Mahon Hugh Haughton, 2010-10-21 Derek Mahon is one of the leading poets of his time both in Ireland and beyond famously offering a perspective that is displaced from as much as grounded in his native country From prodigious beginnings to prolific maturity he has been through thick and thin through troubled times and other a writer profoundly committed to the art of poetry and the craft of making verse He has also been no less a committed reviser of his work believing the poem to be more than a record in verse but a work of art never finished This virtuoso study by Hugh Haughton provides the most comprehensive account imaginable of Mahon's oeuvre Haughton's brilliant writing always serves and illuminates the poetry yielding extraordinary insights on almost every page The poetry its revisions and reception are the subject here but so thorough is the approach that what is offered also amounts indirectly to an intellectual biography of the poet and with it an account of Northern Irish poetry vital to our understanding of the times

Nadine Gordimer's July's People Brendon Nicholls, 2013-11-12 Nadine Gordimer is one of the most important writers to emerge in the twentieth century Her anti Apartheid novel July's People 1981 is a powerful example of resistance writing and continues even now to unsettle easy assumptions about issues of power race gender and identity This guide to Gordimer's compelling novel offers an accessible introduction to the text and contexts of July's People a critical history surveying the many interpretations of the text from publication to the present a selection of new and reprinted critical essays on July's People providing a range of perspectives on the novel and extending the coverage of key approaches identified in the critical survey cross references between sections of the guide in order to suggest links between texts contexts and criticism suggestions for further reading Part of the Routledge Guides to Literature series this volume is essential reading for all those beginning detailed study of July's People and seeking not only a guide to the novel but a way through the wealth of contextual and critical material that surrounds Gordimer's text
