The Algebra Muḥammad Ibn-Mūsā al- Ḥwārizmī, 2003

The Conflict Within Islam Israr Hasan, 2011-12 This is not a book of history it does not claim to cover every aspect of Islam religion It confines itself to the search for the true mission of Islam and how that mission has been hijacked in the struggle of faith and power This is the story of contest between religion and politics where politics was made a sacrament and religion abused In describing this aspect the historical part naturally cannot be ignored This is not a book of religion either Since religion and politics overlap each other in this study theology and jurisprudence have their interplay also The conflict within Islam for the soul of Islam continues Will the struggle be resolved in the present and the foreseeable future Or will it make life more difficult for the faithful This book attempts to find the answers

The Jew is Not My Enemy Tarek Fatah, 2011-12-06 A liberal Muslim and critically acclaimed author explores the historical political and theological basis for centuries of Muslim animosity towards Jews debunking long held myths and tracing a history of hate and its impact today More than nine years after 9 11 and 60 years after the creation of the state of Israel the world is no closer to solving let alone understanding the psychological and political divide between Jews and Muslims While countless books have been written on the subject of terrorism political Islam and jihad barely a handful address the theological and historical basis of the Jew Muslim divide Following the terrorist attacks on Mumbai in November 2008 in which Pakistani jihadis sought out and murdered the members of a local Jewish centre Tarek Fatah began an in depth investigation of the historical basis for the crime In this provocative new book Fatah uses extensive research to trace how literature from as early as the seventh century has fueled the hatred of Jews by Muslims Fatah debunks the anti Jewish writings of the Hadith literature takes apart the Arab supremacist doctrines that lend fuel to the fire and reinterprets supposed anti Jewish passages in the Quran In doing so he argues that hating Jews is against the essence of the Islamic spirit and suggests what needs to be done to eliminate the agonizing friction between the two communities

The Rise of Early Modern Science Toby E. Huff, 2017-06-06 Now in its third edition The Rise of Early Modern Science argues that to understand why modern science arose in the West it is essential to study not only the technical aspects of scientific thought but also the religious legal and institutional arrangements that either opened the doors for enquiry or restricted scientific investigations Toby E Huff explores how the newly invented universities of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and the European legal revolution created a neutral space that gave birth to the scientific revolution Including expanded comparative analysis of the European Islamic and Chinese legal systems Huff now responds to the debates of the last decade to explain why the Western world was set apart from other civilisations The Legacy of Arab-Islam in Africa John Allembillah Azumah, 2014-10-01 Thoughtful and challenging this book argues for a reassessment of the role historically played by Islam in Africa and offers new hope for increased mutual understanding between African people of different faiths Drawing on a wealth of sources from the colonial period to the most up to date scholarship the author challenges the widely held perception that while Christianity oppressed and subjugated the African people Islam fitted comfortably into the indigenous landscape Instead this penetrating account reveals Muslim settlers to be as guilty of enforcing slavery and conversion as those of their more maligned sister tradition Only with an acknowledgement of the true roles of both faiths in African history suggests Azumah can the people of both traditions move themselves and their continent towards a new future of tolerance and self awareness
