The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1877 Levantine Trade Bridget Langston,Al,2025-03-20 Levantine Trade explores how the Levant encompassing modern day Israel Lebanon and surrounding areas served as a crucial bridge in global trade networks The book examines the region s economic history highlighting its role in connecting Asia Africa and Europe for millennia It delves into the evolution of Levantine trade routes showcasing how this relatively small geographical area became a linchpin in global economics For example the movement of spices textiles and precious metals through the Levant significantly impacted regional economies The book analyzes the economic structures that supported this trade from the Phoenicians to the Ottomans and their impact on the region and the wider world It argues the Levant s influence stemmed from its adaptable economic institutions not solely its geographical position By using archaeological findings ancient texts and recently translated Ottoman customs records the book integrates economic analysis with historical narrative It begins by introducing the region s geography and progresses through key commodities trading powers and financial systems culminating in an analysis of how its decline shifted global economic power This approach offers a unique perspective moving beyond traditional political or military histories to focus on economic exchange and cultural interaction

Levant Trade in the Middle Ages Eliyahu Ashtor,2014-07-14 The book is based on Arabic sources documents in archives of centers of Levantine trade and material from the files of the firm of Francesco Datini From the fall of Acre to the journey of Vasco de Gama the author provides an invaluable description of late medieval Mediterranean trade Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Catalogue A. Technology, Industry and Trade Eliyahu Ashtor,Benjamin Z. Kedar,2024-10-28 This is the fifth collection of articles by Eliyahu Ashtor to be published by Variorum and focuses on the fundamental question of why during the later Middle Ages technology and industry declined even collapsed in the Muslim Levant while simultaneously making enormous progress in the Christian West An indefatigable researcher in archives all over the Mediterranean Ashtor amassed quantities of data on this subject and began to propose causal links between on the one hand demographic trends types of political regime economic policies and attitudes towards innovation and on the other the progress or decline of technology and industry Although his work was cut short by his death in 1984 the information that Ashtor has made available for instance on the sugar and the alkali industries and the questions and hypotheses he has suggested will provide a vital basis for continuing research The final article dealing more specifically with the history of commerce represents in effect a summation of the currently working on the history of food in the Ottoman Empire and East Central Europe It offers new empirical research as well as surveys of the state of scholarship in this discipline with special emphasis on influences continuities and discontinuities in the culinary cultures of the Ottoman Porte the Balkans and East Central Europe between the 17th and 19th centuries Some contributions address economic aspects of food provision the development and trans-national circulation of individual dishes and the role of merchants diplomats and travellers in the transmission of culinary trends Others examine the role of food in the construction of national and regional identities in contact zones where local traditions merged or clashed with imperial Ottoman Habsburg and West European influences
