Marcus,2012-03-01 In this original and sweeping review of Jewish culture and history Ivan Marcus examines how and why various rites and customs celebrating stages in the life cycle have evolved through the ages and persisted to this day For each phase of life from childhood and adolescence to adulthood and the advanced years the book traces the origin and development of specific rites associated with the events of birth circumcision and schooling bar and bat mitzvah and confirmation engagement betrothal and marriage and aging dying and remembering Customs in Jewish tradition such as the presence of godparents at a circumcision the use of a four poled canopy at a wedding and the placing of small stones on tombstones are discussed In each chapter detailed descriptions walk the reader through such ceremonies as early modern and contemporary circumcision weddings and funerals In a comparative framework Marcus illustrates how Jewish culture has negotiated with the majority cultures of the ancient Near East Greco Roman antiquity medieval European Christianity and Mediterranean Islam as well as with modern secular and religious movements and social trends to renew itself through ritual innovation In his extensive research on the Jewish life cycle Marcus draws from documents on various customs and ritual practices offering reassessments of original sources and scholarly literature Marcus's survey is the first comprehensive study of the rites of the Jewish life cycle since Hayyim Schauss's The Lifetime of the Jew was published in 1950 written for Jewish readers Marcus's book addresses a broader audience and is designed to appeal to scholars and interested readers

One Moment with Eternity Gary Meaders, 2025-03-26 This book examines different elements concerning prophetic manifestations those often dazzling moments when God cuts through people's distractions to meet them at the cross These are viewed through those eternal moments experienced by several historic individuals They were there that specific day two thousand years ago They met Jesus and either rejected him or accepted him These people include the thieves Dismas and Gestas the high priests Annas and Caiaphas the apostles Judas Peter and Thomas the rulers Herod and Pilate the women Joanna Salome Magdalene and Mary and others both high and low who that day came face to face with Israel's Messiah They would never be the same Approximately two hundred sources were reviewed and excerpted as supporting elements They are conspicuously noted perhaps slowing down the flow of the study's narrative However the nature of the call for this work was to restore silent voices those that though long gone are members of the Great Cloud of Witnesses through their lifetimes ministries and character witness This study will acquaint readers with substantial resources to fuel their own journey to and through the Cross of Calvary upon which the King of kings and Lord of lords Jesus the Messiah paid the price for their redemption and reconciliation into the eternal family of the Most High God
