Problems, Readings, and Materials on the Lawyer as a Negotiator Harry T. Edwards, James J. White, 1977 An Introduction to Law Agustín A. Gordillo, 2003 A Guide to Negotiation and Mediation Gary Goodpaster, 2023-10-16

A Guide to Negotiation and Mediation is written in a progressive building block fashion moving from simple to more complex ideas. The first section covers basic negotiating strategies, concepts and tactics; the next discusses cognitive and psychological aspects of negotiation. The book goes on to explore elements that may complicate negotiations in particular coalition formation and bargaining for constituencies and concludes with a chapter on negotiation preparation and planning. Collaborative Practice Connie Healy, 2017-09-19 Collaborative practice is a new method of dispute resolution used mainly in family law matters. By taking a non-adversarial approach, it challenges the strictly positivist view of the lawyer as zealous advocate for the client. As such, it has received much criticism from the established Bar and legal profession. This book provides a doctrinal and empirical analysis of collaborative practice with a view to assessing its place within the dispute resolution continuum and addressing whether this criticism has been justified. It begins by establishing the theoretical underpinnings of conflict and differing approaches to conflict resolution, the impact of the comprehensive law movement and therapeutic jurisprudence. The origins and development of the collaborative process and the framework it provides for a multidisciplinary approach to conflict resolution is outlined. The book addresses the examination of the process undertaken in the lead up to the enactment of the Uniform Collaborative Law Act in 2010, now regarded as a model of best practice. Finally, through an examination of empirical research undertaken in the US, Canada and in England and Wales, and in presenting the results of the first known empirical research into the process in an Irish family law context, the book concludes with an evidenced-based analysis of the process from the perspective of couples who chose to use the collaborative model to resolve the issues surrounding their relationship breakdown: collaborative lawyers and lawyers who do not advocate a non-adversarial approach. As such, this book provides a valuable insight into the process which will be of interest to academics, practising lawyers, members of the judiciary, researchers in the fields of conflict resolution and family law, and for students studying alternative dispute resolution (ADR).

Dispute Processing and Conflict Resolution Carrie Menkel-Meadow, 2017-03-02 This insightful volume is essential for a clearer understanding of dispute resolution. After examining the historical and intellectual foundations of dispute processing, Carrie Menkel Meadow turns her attention to the future of conflict resolution. Negotiation Lavinia Hall, 1993. Comprises a collection of papers discussing the issue of negotiation. Presents a set of ideas organized around frameworks for improving negotiation, the challenges to applying these ideas in organizational settings, and some analysis of individual behaviour in negotiation.

Instream Flow Negotiation Mary Ray White, Felix D. Valdez, Michael D. White, 1980 Discussions in Dispute Resolution Art Hinshaw, Andrea Kupfer

Schneider, Sarah Rudolph Cole, 2021-05-27 This book brings together 16 foundational writings in the field of alternative dispute resolution. These writings consist of four pieces from each of the field's primary subfields: negotiation, mediation, arbitration, and public policy. Each piece has four commenters who answer the question: why is this work a foundational piece in the dispute resolution field? The purpose in asking this simple question is fourfold: to hail the field's foundational generation and their work to bring a fresh look at these articles to engage the articles' original authors where possible and to challenge the articles with the benefit of hindsight.
