Magical Manuscripts in Early Modern Europe Daniel Bellingradt, Bernd-Christian Otto, 2017-08-31 This book presents the story of a unique collection of 140 manuscripts of learned magic that was sold for a fantastic sum within the clandestine channels of the German book trade in the early eighteenth century The book will interpret this collection from two angles as an artefact of the early modern book market as well as the long tradition of Western learned magic thus taking a new stance towards scribal texts that are often regarded as eccentric peripheral or marginal The study is structured by the apparent exceptionality scarcity and illegality of the collection and provides chapters on clandestine activities in European book markets questions of censorship regimes and efficiency the use of manuscripts in an age of print and the history of learned magic in early modern Europe As the collection has survived till this day in Leipzig University Library the book provides a critical edition of the 1710 selling catalogue which includes a brief content analysis of all extant manuscripts The study will be of interest to scholars and students from a variety of fields such as early modern book history the history of magic cultural history the sociology of religion or the study of Western esotericism Arturus Rex: Acta Conventus
