The Letters Between Edward Weston And Willard Van Dyke:

The Letters Between Edward Weston and Willard Van Dyke Edward Weston, Leslie Squyres Calmes, Willard Van Dyke, Leslie Squyres, 1992 Ansel Adams Anne Hammond, Ansel Adams, 2002-01-01 Despite his significance little scholarly attention has been paid to Adams's contributions as an artist or his place in photographic history This handsome book addresses this gap by looking beyond his reputation as a Sierra Club environmentalist and examining in depth his life as an artist and the complexities of his creative vision 80 illustrations A Staggering Revolution John Raeburn, 2010-10-01 During the 1930s the world of photography was unsettled exciting and boisterous John Raeburn's A Staggering Revolution recreates the energy of the era by surveying photography's rich variety of innovation exploring the aesthetic and cultural achievements of its leading figures and mapping the paths their pictures blazed public's imagination While other studies of thirties photography have concentrated on the documentary work of the Farm Security Administration FSA no previous book has considered it alongside so many of the decade's other important photographic projects A Staggering Revolution includes individual chapters on Edward Steichen's celebrity portraiture Berenice Abbott's Changing New York project the Photo League's ethnography of Harlem and Edward Weston's western landscapes made under the auspices of the first Guggenheim Fellowship awarded to a photographer It also examines Margaret Bourke White's industrial and documentary pictures the collective undertakings by California's Group f 64 and the fashion magazine specialists as well as the activities of the FSA and the Photo League Ansel Adams Mary Street Alinder, 2014-11-04 Traces the life and career of Ansel Adams including his childhood in San Francisco his marriage and affairs his relationship with the Native Americans of Yosemite and the influences on his photography and painting of western landscapes A Medium Seen Otherwise Roger Hallas, 2023 Through a new look at how political historical and art documentaries engage with photographic images objects and archives A Medium Seen Otherwise argues that film allows us to better understand what people do with analog and digital photographs as material objects that enable social and political relations through multisensory experience Moreover as a time based medium with sound film can bring the event of photography into fuller view demonstrating how no single participant in it photographer subject camera photograph or viewer has sovereignty over its affect meaning or value The book thus explores the ways in which the innovative incorporation of photography into documentary film permits us to see both of these media otherwise Photographs whether professional or vernacular are conventionally understood to furnish documentaries with indexical evidence and visual illustration of history yet the spatio temporal and aural dimensions of film permit documentaries to illuminate photography's wider capacities beyond the merely representational Combining new critical perspectives on well known documentary filmmakers and photographers Agn's Varda Rithy Panh Edward Burtynsky Malick Sidib Vivian Maier JR Ken Burns Errol Morris and Akram Zaatari with analyses of lesser known but important documentaries author Roger Hallas investigates a global range of documentary and vernacular photographic contexts including Lebanon

Palestine Mali Congo Cambodia Ireland Spain Mexico Chile Canada and the US While authorship and representation remain common rhetorical frameworks for documentaries about photography A Medium Seen Otherwise offers a compelling account of how the intermediality between documentary film and photography can posit far more expansive conceptions of both media A companion website shows clips of films discussed in the book Reading California Stephanie Barron, Sheri Bernstein, Ilene Susan Fort, 2000 This collection of essays written by a stellar cast of art historians and scholars looks closely at the forces that shaped fine art and material culture in California Illustrations Weston and Charlot Lew Andrews, 2011-12-01 Edward Weston 1886 1958 was one of the most celebrated photographers of the twentieth century Jean Charlot 1898 1979 a classically trained French artist best known for his murals woodcuts and paintings celebrating Mexican culture played a key role as a participant and chronicler of the Mexican Renaissance This book based on letters that Weston and Charlot exchanged from the early 1920s until Weston's death in 1958 documents a friendship that says as much about art about photography and fresco practice criticism and history as it does about the intersection of a number of fascinating characters the ups and downs of the correspondents daily lives the pursuit of their dreams and aspirations and the support and encouragement they gave each other Lew Andrews crafts a multivalent narrative that reconfigures our understanding of Weston Charlot and their era shedding new light on specific events and artwork While giving us rare insight into the everyday life of these artists this work also supplies an important chapter in the history of twentieth century art and photography seen close up and from the inside Group F.64 Mary Street Alinder, 2014-11-04 Chronicles the lives and careers of the members of the West Coast photography movement including such famous names as Ansel Adams Imogen Cunningham Dorothea Lange Willard Van Dyke and Edward Weston Lost Homelands Audrey Goodman, 2022-02-08 Before the 1930s landscapes of the American Southwest represented the migrant's dream of a stable and bountiful homeland Around the time of the Great Depression however the Southwest suddenly became integrated into a much larger economic and cultural system Audrey Goodman examines how since that time these southwestern landscapes have come to reveal the resulting fragmentation of identity and community Through analyzing a variety of texts and images Goodman illuminates the ways that modern forces such as militarization environmental degradation internal migration and an increased border patrol presence have shattered the perception of a secure homeland in the Southwest The deceptive natural beauty of the Southwest deserts shields a dark history of trauma and decimation that has remained as a shadow on the region's psyche The first to really synthesize such wide ranging material about the effects of the atomic age in the Southwest Goodman realizes the value of combined visual and verbal art and uses it to put forth her own original ideas about reconstructing a new sense of homeland Lost Homelands reminds us of the adversity and dislocation suffered by people of the Southwest by looking at the ways that artists photographers filmmakers and writers have grappled with these problems for decades In assessing the ruination of the region however Goodman argues that those same artists and writers have begun to reassemble a new sense of homeland from these fragments Hoover Dam Barbara Vilander, 2022-02-22 Hoover Dam was constructed during one of the most depressed economic climates in American history in a remote desert canyon where temperatures ranged from single to triple digits In order to visually document the project the Bureau of Reclamation assigned employee Ben Glaha to photograph all aspects of the dam's construction Glaha's photographs were used in press releases periodicals books pamphlets and slide shows to demonstrate that the dam was structurally sound and that government funds were being used wisely Hoover Dam The Photographs of Ben Glaha is the first detailed examination of Glaha's images of the project some of which have never before been published Glaha photographed every aspect of the construction process from details of how the dam was assembled to the overall progress as the dam rose from the bottom of the dry riverbed Glaha not only provided the Bureau with the photographs it required he also employed his own artistic abilities to produce images of the dam that were exhibited in museums and galleries as works of art Because Glaha was able to create a selection of Hoover Dam photographs worthy of exhibition he was unique among government documentary photographers Art historian Barbara Vilander's text places Glaha's efforts within the historical context of western landscape exploration and development and reveals how his particular qualifications led to his selection as the project photographer Vilander then examines the many publications and venues in which the Bureau used Glaha's photographs to create support for the project She also discusses how Glaha was recognized in his own era as an influential artist and teacher and compares his work with that of other contemporary landscape photographers addressing western water management Glaha's Hoover Dam images were widely published although in accordance with Bureau policy he was not usually given personal credit and therefore his name remains largely unknown Vilander's book corrects that oversight by giving Glaha the technical and artistic credit he is due within the context of one of the most ambitious projects in American history
