Leone Leoni George Sand, 1902 A Man of Many Parts Barbara Rawlinson, 2006 This comprehensive study of George Gissing s short stories and related non fiction is essential reading for students of nineteenth century realism For the first time readers will be able to follow the development which transformed Gissing s unremarkable early stories into the very individual tales that elevated his work to the vanguard of realistic short fiction Gissing s American period is notable for its accumulation of themes that were repeatedly refined and adapted for his later work causality emerging as the dominant voice On his return to England shifting political and philosophical beliefs expressed in his non fiction had a vital impact on his second phase of short fiction and the part played by realism in the author s short stories and his writings on Charles Dickens added further dimensions to his work as a whole By the final phase of Gissing s remarkable development it is evident that his interest in the concept of causality as the major force in his short work had been replaced by a more challenging preoccupation with the human psyche This introduced philosophical sociological and psychological dimensions to Gissing s work that established him in the field of short fiction as a leading exponent of late nineteenth century realism The Novel of Female Adultery Bill

Overton,2016-07-27 The novel of adultery is a nineteenth century form about the experience of women produced almost exclusively by men Bill Overton s study is the first to address the gender implications of this form and the first to write its history The opening chapter defines the terms adultery and novel of adultery and discusses how the form arose in Continental Europe but failed to appear in Britain Successive chapters deal with its development in France and with examples from Russia Denmark Germany Spain and Portugal *The Ante-Nicene Fathers: Latin Christianity: its founder, Tertullian. Weldt-Basson,2024-06-01 Though the civil rights abuses by the Pinochet dictatorship in Chile 1973 1990 were later recognized by reparations and truth commissions the difficult emotions suffered by the victims and their families were often pushed into the background or out of the national conversation entirely In response novelists began writing memory of feelings experienced during the dictatorship into their books In The Chilean Dictatorship Novel Weldt Basson examines fifteen novels and one testimony written on the topic of dictatorship to illustrate how these Chilean narratives center on affect and emotions Each chapter focuses on a different emotion feelings of loss because of father abandonment and spatial injustice caused by the neoliberal urbanization of Santiago despair articulated through tragic romances and affective landscapes left wing nostalgia and melancholia communicated through allegory feelings of abjection caused by torture and betrayal and the creation of affect through violent events aggressive child play and sexual torture Through a close look at the work of Jos Donoso Ariel Dorfman Diamela Eltit Carlos Franz and Nona Fernandez among others Weldt Basson effectively argues that by inspiring emotion and creating empathy within readers the authors of these books instill a drive in the readers for ongoing social justice advocacy thereby transforming the process of reading into a platform for future action Weldt Basson s landmark study will serve as a basis for the future study of Latin American literature for decades to come
