Contemporary Black British and African American Women Writers Jean Wyatt, Sheldon George, 2020-01-28 Contemporary African American and Black British Women Writers Narrative Race Ethics brings together British and American scholars to explore how in texts by contemporary black women writers in the U.S. and Britain formal narrative techniques express new understandings of race or stimulate ethical thinking about race in a reader Taken together the essays also demonstrate that black women writers from both sides of the Atlantic borrow formal structures and literary techniques from one another to describe the workings of structural racism in the daily lives of black subjects and to provoke readers to think anew about race Narratology has only recently begun to use race as a category of narrative theory This collection seeks both to show the ethical effects of narrative form on individual readers and to foster reconceptualizations of narrative theory that account for the workings of race within literature and culture Women Builders Sadie Iola Daniel, Hallie Quinn Brown, 1997 Daniel
