Research Review for School Leaders William G. Wraga, Peter S. Hlebowitsh, Founding Editor Tanner, Daniel Tanner, 2012-08-06 The Research Review for School Leaders Volume III is specifically designed as a practical resource for school leaders whose schedules preclude opportunities to locate and review key research on every issue they must address It places comprehensive current and accessible reviews of educational research at their fingertips and is organized to make the research and practices it summarizes useful to them in their professional endeavors This is the third volume of the Review Although the title has changed its purpose and substance is continuous with the work of the earlier volumes The first Annual Review of Research for School Leaders 1996 summarized research on the status of public schooling interdisciplinary curriculum and educational applications of computers The second volume 1998 addressed the topics of middle level education the extracurriculum mathematics education reform and drop outs The present Volume III offers educational leaders reviews of research on five timely educational issues citizenship education multicultural education gifted and talented education classroom assessment and scheduling A basic premise of this volume is that to make sound decisions professionals need to be up to date on current research related to the problems with which they grapple A second premise is that research cannot simply be imposed in a formulaic way on a local setting the nature of the particular problem to be solved will always bear upon the relevance of research to a specific context Thus this volume is envisioned as a helpful resource for school leaders as they engage in important discussions of the research with teachers school board members

parents and other interested parties as they collaboratively seek effective resolutions to local educational problems

Review of Research in Social Studies Education, 1970-1975 Francis P. Hunkins, 1977 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978 Rethinking Social Studies Teacher Education in the Twenty-First Century Alicia R. Crowe, Alexander Cuenca, 2015-11-26 In this volume teacher educators explicitly and implicitly share their visions for the purposes experiences and commitments necessary for social studies teacher preparation in the twenty first century It is divided into six sections where authors reconsider 1 purposes 2 course curricula 3 collaboration with on campus partners 4 field experiences 5 community connections and 6 research and the political nature of social studies teacher education The chapters within each section provide critical insights for social studies researchers teacher educators and teacher education programs Whether readers begin to question what are we teaching social studies teachers for who should we collaborate with to advance teacher learning or how should we engage in the politics of teacher education this volume leads us to consider what ideas structures and connections are most worthwhile for social studies teacher education in the twenty first century to pursue 50 Social Studies Strategies for K-8 Classrooms Kathryn M. Obenchain, Ronald V. Morris, 2007 The second edition of 50 Social Studies Strategies for K 8 Classroom offers practical social studies strategies that align with the NCSS Curriculum Standards 50 Social Studies Strategies for K 8 Classroom houses general and specific strategies that are categorized by the NCSS Curriculum standards meet the needs of specific grade level designations and cover distinct social science disciplines including history civics geography economics political science anthropology and literacy K 8 Social Studies Teachers Equitable Literacy Instruction for Students in Poverty Doris Walker-Dalhouse, Victoria J. Risko, Differences in performance between students of poverty and more advantaged students are reflective of an opportunity gap as opposed to a gap in student ability This book argues that significant attention must be given to eliminating the barriers that produce educational inequities in student achievement Walker Dalhouse and Risko focus on disparities in literacy achievement that might be attributed to color blind practices deficit mindsets low expectations or context neutral practices Situating literacy learning within a comprehensive view of literacy development they provide a set of instructional practices that will best support students living in poverty Specifically vignettes from kindergarten through middle school classrooms are used to demonstrate practices that address critical areas of the reading process are responsive to students racial ethnic cultural gender and linguistic histories and assets attend to students strengths and needs and go beyond the impact of short term testing to support optimal and sustainable learning Educators and school leaders can use this resource to transform schools into nurturing and vibrant communities that are committed to change equity and diversity Book Features Provides recommendations and detailed guidance for enacting literacy instruction that will close opportunity gaps for students living in poverty Includes vignettes from leading literacy educators and researchers that demonstrate high quality literacy instruction implemented in K 8 classrooms Presents instruction that is responsive to differences and honors

the languages literacies and cultural resources that students bring to their learning Offers specific recommendations and practices that can guide advocacy for change The authors correct the deficit misperceptions by showing how students experiencing poverty are the targets not the causes of educational disparities What a different world schools would be if we each embraced these lessons From the Afterword by Paul C Gorski founder Equity Literacy Institute Developing

Technology-Rich Teacher Education Programs: Key Issues Polly, Drew,Mims, Clif,Persichitte, Kay A.,2012-01-31 This book offers professional teacher educators a rare opportunity to harvest the thinking of pioneering colleagues spanning dozens of universities and to benefit from the creativity scholarship hard work and reflection that led them to the models they describe Provided by publisher Building Comprehension in Every Classroom Rachel Brown,Peter Dewitz,2013-10-09 This book presents a practical model and specific unit and lesson planning ideas for enhancing students reading comprehension in any 2 8 classroom The authors provide innovative suggestions that help teachers construct a comprehension curriculum organized around literature informational texts or a basal reading program Vivid case examples and vignettes bring to life ways to build the knowledge strategies and motivation that children need to engage with different types of texts and become proficient enthusiastic readers Graphic elements throughout the volume link instructional and assessment practices directly to the Common Core standards Global Meaning Making Lori Czop Assaf,Patience Sowa,Katina Zammit,2022-08-23

Global Meaning Making disrupts and interrogates the contradictions and tensions in language and literacy global scholarship reimagining global approaches that respect the histories ways of knowing needs hopes and values of voices beyond the western including those from the Global South Handbook of Research on Critical Thinking Strategies in Pre-Service Learning Environments Mariano, Gina J.,Figliano, Fred J.,2019-01-25 Learning strategies for critical thinking are a vital part of today s curriculum as students have few additional opportunities to learn these skills outside of school environments Therefore it is of utmost importance for pre service teachers to learn how to infuse critical thinking skill development in every academic subject to assist future students in developing these skills The Handbook of Research on Critical Thinking Strategies in Pre Service Learning Environments is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of critical thinking that highlights ways to effectively use critical thinking strategies and implement critical thinking skill development into courses While highlighting topics including deep learning metacognition and discourse analysis this book is ideally designed for educators academicians researchers and students
