Social Symbolism Of Grief And Mourning:

The Social Symbolism of Grief and Mourning R. B. Grainger, 1985*      The Social Symbolism of Grief and Mourning
Roger Beckett Grainger, 1979      A Teacher's Handbook of Death Maggie Jackson, Jim Colwell, 2002 Teachers are increasingly called upon to discuss and explain death and dying to children in the classroom This book provides them with methods to facilitate open discussions of death and to find suitable ways of talking with children about what happens when someone they know dies      Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, Tashel C. Bordere, 2016-02-05 The Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief is a scholarly work of social criticism richly grounded in personal experience evocative case studies and current multicultural and sociocultural theories and research It is also consistently practical and reflective challenging readers to think through responses to ethically complex scenarios in which social justice is undermined by radically uneven opportunity structures hierarchies of voice and privilege personal and professional power and unconscious assumptions at the very junctures when people are most vulnerable at points of serious illness confrontation with end of life decision making and in the throes of grief and bereavement Harris and Bordere give the reader an active and engaged take on the field enticing readers to interrogate their own assumptions and practices while increasing chapter after chapter their cultural literacy regarding important groups and contexts The Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief deeply and uniquely addresses a hot topic in the helping professions and social sciences and does so with uncommon readability      Symbolic Loss Peter Homans, 2000 Historically many world cultures have linked three disparate phenomena collective loss mourning and the construction of monuments and cultural symbols to represent the loss over time and render it memorable meaningful and thereby bearable In a century of great loss observers of western culture have commented on the decline of mourning practices and the absence of their associated rituals The ten essays assembled here by Peter Homans represent in a genuinely interdisciplinary way the recent work of scholars attempting to understand this trend Arranged in sections on cultural studies architecture history and psychology this accessible collection can serve as an introduction to the uses of mourning in contemporary cultures Contributors Paul A Anderson University of Michigan Doris L Bergen University of Notre Dame Mitchell Breitwieser University of California Berkeley Peter Homans University of Chicago Patrick H Hutton University of Vermont Marie Claire Lavabre National Institute for Scientific Research Paris Peter C Shabad Northwestern University Medical School and Columbia Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center Levi P Smith Art Institute of Chicago Julia Stern Northwestern University James E Young University of Massachusetts Amherst      We Are What We Mourn Priscila Uppal, 2009 The first book on the Canadian poetic elegy challenges all previous ideas about the purpose of mourning      Loss and Bereavement Sheila Payne, 1999-11-16 How have people sought to understand loss and bereavement What are the current theoretical approaches to loss and bereavement What are the implications of these approaches for interventions This book aims to provide students with an understanding of important theoretical perspectives and specific models of adaptation to loss It is assumed that loss and change are normal processes which occur within a social and cultural context and the reader is introduced to historical and cultural perspectives which illustrate the diversity of approaches to loss Major theoretical perspectives are explored to enable students to understand their origins and influence The authors go on to review the development of common models used to conceptualise individual reactions to loss and provide a critique of these models highlighting the assumptions that underpin them Finally they discuss how these conceptual models have actually been used in clinical and community interventions This is a comprehensive text describing the variety of approaches available to understand the process of loss and bereavement

Boundaries of Self and Other in Ghanaian Popular Culture Joseph K. Adjaye, 2004-03-31 Rituals are among the most enduring aspects of the African cultural landscape They appear to exist outside of time eternal and unchanging Joseph Adjaye argues that while rituals may seem to be static in reality they are dynamic and changing Through intense analysis of child naming ceremonies libations puberty initiation rights funerals and two major Ghanaian festivals Adjaye explores the interplay between ritual and audience interaction and participation By so doing he shows the many ways rituals have provided Ghanaians with a means to conceptualize and change their present and shape their future In other words rituals help individuals escape the boundaries of self by promoting a sense of collective purpose and agency This book will appeal to not only Africanists but to readers interested in the roles rituals play in their own lives and the ways that rituals encourage socially transforming initiatives

The Materiality of Mourning Zahra Newby, Ruth Toulson, 2018-07-17 Tangible remains play an important role in our relationships with the dead they are pivotal to how we remember mourn and grieve The chapters in this volume analyse a diverse range of objects and their role in the processes of grief and mourning with contributions by scholars in anthropology history fashion thanatology religious studies archaeology classics sociology and political science The book brings together consideration of emotions memory and material agency to inform a deeper understanding of the specific roles played by objects in funerary contexts across historical and contemporary societies

Death and Mourning Processes in the Times of the Coronavirus Pandemic (COVID-19) Lydia Gimenez-Llort, Marie-José H. E. Gijssberts, Efosa Kenneth Oghagbon, Heloisa Viscaino Fernandes Souza Pereira, Sara Invitto, Virginia Torres-Lista, 2022-05-05

Welcome Home, Boys! Sebastian Jobs, 2012-10 This book takes on the subject of military victory parades in New York City during the first half of the 20th century and looks on these performances as political street theater The study shows how abstract concepts like the nation state or Americanism were represented and embodied in these events With its focus on the three main groups of actors involved in the parades organizers soldiers spectators the book demonstrates how these marches can only be understood as a collaboration of these actors each group interpreting the event in their very distinct ways The book deepens our understanding of how political performances functioned in the U S and how they made an impact on society Page 4 of cover

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death. Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death, dying, grief, and bereavement can be extremely challenging. Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology, those titles were incomplete, limited in scope, or leaned heavily toward one area of the field. In Death and Dying: An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature, John F. Szabo provides more than 2,200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying. Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological, philosophical, and attitudinal aspects of coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions; instructional and educational topics for practitioners, primarily health care providers; cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief; mourning and loss. In addition, notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture, death themes in literature, methods of death, or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses. This book will be helpful to students, researchers, academics, caregivers, health care professionals, psychologists, social workers, and anyone with an interest in death, dying, bereavement, or the care of the terminally ill.

Death, Mourning, and Burial Antonius C. G. M. Robben, 2017-04-26. The definitive reference on the anthropology of death and dying, expanded with new contributions covering everything from animal mourning to mortuary cannibalism. Few subjects stir the imagination more than the study of how people across cultures deal with death and dying. This expanded second edition of the internationally bestselling Death, Mourning, and Burial offers cross-cultural readings that span the period from dying to afterlife, considering approaches to this transition as a social process and exploring the great variations of cultural responses to death. Exploring new content including organ transplantation, institutionalized care for the dying, HIV/AIDS, animal mourning, and biotechnology, this text retains classic readings from the first edition and is enhanced by sixteen new articles and two new sections which provide increased breadth and depth for readers. Death, Mourning, and Burial, Second Edition, is divided into eight parts reflecting the social trajectory of death: conceptualizations of death, death, dying, and care; grief and mourning; mortuary rituals and remembrance; and regeneration. Sections are introduced through foundational texts which provide the ideal introduction to this diverse field. It is essential reading for anyone concerned with issues of death and dying, as well as violence, terrorism, war, state terror, organ theft, and mortuary rituals. A thoroughly revised edition of this classic anthology featuring twenty-three new articles, two new sections, and three reformulated sections. Updated to include current topics including organ transplantation, institutionalized care for the dying, HIV/AIDS, animal mourning, and biotechnology. Must reading for anyone concerned with issues of death and dying, as well as violence, terrorism, war, state terror, organ theft, and mortuary rituals. Serves as a text for anthropology classes and provides a genuinely cross-cultural perspective to all those studying death and dying.

The A-Z of Death and Dying Michael John Brennan, 2014-02-17. This engaging and informative resource provides readers with an understanding of the social, cultural, and historical influences that shape our encounters with death dying and bereavement a universal experience across humanity Written in an engaging and accessible style by leading international scholars and practitioners from within the field of death and bereavement studies this book will have broad appeal providing in a single volume insights from some of the key thinkers within the interdisciplinary field of death dying and bereavement Its approximately 200 entries will serve as useful starting points for those new to the topic and will be informative to those already acquainted with some of the core concepts and ideas within this burgeoning field of inquiry This encyclopedia will serve as an essential resource for high school and undergraduate students those engaged in independent research and professionals whose work involves caring for the dead dying and bereaved It will also be of great interest to general readers intrigued by the social medical and cultural dimensions to human mortality Underscored by the inescapable biological certainties that affect us all The A Z of Death and Dying offers a highly relevant examination of the social and historical variation in the rituals practices and beliefs surrounding the end of life

Gerontological Nursing Competencies for Care Kristen L. Mauk, 2017-04-14 Gerontological Nursing Competencies for Care Fourth Edition focuses on caring for the elderly by employing a holistic and interdisciplinary approach The text follows the framework of the core competencies for baccalaureate nursing education published by the American Association of Colleges of Nursing AACN and the John A Hartford Foundation Institute for Geriatric Nursing This framework is structured to ensure nursing students attain the recommended knowledge to achieve the competencies necessary to provide excellent care to older adults Back cover

Death in a Global Age Ruth McManus, 2017-09-16 Attitudes towards death are shaped by our social worlds This book explores how beliefs practices and representations of dying and death continue to evolve and adapt in response to changing global societies Introducing students to debates around grief religion and life expectancy this is a clear guide to a complex field for all sociologists
