Economy and Society in Prehistoric Europe A. Sherratt, 2019-08-07 This book brings together a classic collection of Andrew Sherratt's work on the economic foundations of prehistoric Europe which have put forward important new ideas about the development of farming pastoralism early technology and trade In a series of contributions that have included wide ranging syntheses and detailed local studies he discusses their implications for the understanding of settlement patterns social structures material culture and less tangible aspects of prehistoric life such as the spread of languages and the use of narcotics

Regional Approaches to Mortuary Analysis Lane Anderson Beck, 2013-11-11 In this volume archaeologists offer a new direction for burial research by expanding the models for mortuary analysis from a site specific to a regional level Contributors explore how regional mortuary approaches allow the introduction of new questions about peer polity interactions and regional alliances extending traditional settlement system and exchange analyses This volume features case studies examining mortuary sites as components of the archaeological landscape

California Prehistory Terry L. Jones, Kathryn A. Klar, 2007-07-16 Some forty scholars examine California's prehistory and archaeology looking at marine and terrestrial palaeoenvironments initial human colonization linguistic prehistory early forms of exchange mitochondrial DNA studies and rock art This work is the most extensive study of California's prehistory undertaken in the past 20 years An essential resource for any scholar of California prehistory and archaeology Warfare and Society Ton Otto, Henrik Thrane, Helle Vandkilde, 2006-11-01 This book straddles the disciplines of archaeology and social anthropology Its 25 contributions divided into 6 sections with separate introductions successively scrutinise the concept of war in philosophy social theory and the history of anthropological and archaeological research discuss warfare in pre state and state societies and assess its relationship to rituals social identification and material culture

Bronze Age Landscapes Joanna Bruck, 2002-02-01 This volume is a collection of essays which exemplify the range and diversity of work currently being undertaken on the regional landscapes of the British Bronze Age and the progress which has been made in both theoretical and interpretive debate Together these papers reflect the vibrancy of current research and promote a closer marriage of landscape site and material culture studies

 Europe* European Association of Archaeologists. Annual Meeting, Jon C. Henderson, 2000 Papers from a session held at the European Association of Archaeologists Fourth Annual Meeting in G teborg 1998 The contents of this volume are largely made up from papers delivered at The Prehistory and Early History of Atlantic Europe session held on the 25th of September 1998 at the 4th Annual Meeting of the European Association of Archaeologists in G teborg Sweden The aim of this volume in common with the original aim of the session is quite simply to promote wider discussion on the existence scale and significance of maritime communications between Atlantic communities Island Societies Patrick Vinton Kirch, 1986-10-09 Concentrating their attention on the Pacific Islands the contributors to this book show how the tightly focused social and economic systems of islands offer archaeologists a series of unique opportunities for tracking and explaining prehistoric change From the 1950s onwards excavations in such islands as Fiji Palau and Hawaii revolutionised Oceanic archaeology and as the major problems of cultural origins and island sequences were resolves archaeologists came increasingly to study social change and to integrate newly acquired data on material culture with older ethnographic and ethnohistorical materials The fascinating results of this work centring on the evolution of complex Oceanic chiefdoms into something very much like classic archaic states are authoritatively surveyed here Prehistory of the Indo-Malaysian Archipelago Peter Bellwood, 2007-03-01 Since its publication in 1985 Peter Bellwood s Prehistory of the Indo Malaysian Archipelago has been hailed as the sole authoritative work on the subject by the leading expert in the field Now that work has been fully revised and includes a complete up to date summary of the archaeology of the region and relevant neighboring areas of China and Oceania as well as a comprehensive discussion of new and important issues such as the Eve Garden of Eden hypothesis and its relevance to the Indo Malaysian region and recent advances in macrofamily linguistic classification Moving north to south from northern Peninsular Malaysia to Timor and west to east from Sumatra to the Moluccas Bellwood describes human prehistory from initial hominid settlement more than one million years ago to the eve of historical Hindu Buddhist and Islamic cultures of the region The archaeological record provides the central focus but chapters also incorporate essential information from the paleoenvironmental sciences biological anthropology linguistics and social anthropology Bellwood approaches questions about past cultural and biological developments in the region from a multidisciplinary perspective Historical issues given extended treatment include the significance of the Homo erectus populations of Java the dispersal of the present Austronesian speaking peoples of the region within the past 4 000 years and the spread of metallurgy since 500 B C Bellwood also discusses relationships between the prehistoric populations of the archipelago and those of neighboring regions such as Australia New Guinea and mainland Asia European Societies in the Bronze Age A. F. Harding, 2000-05-18 The Bronze Age roughly 2500 to 750 BC was the last fully prehistoric period in Europe and a crucial element in the formation of the Europe that emerged into history in the later first millennium BC This book focuses on the material culture remains of the period and through them provides an interpretation of the main trends in human development that occurred during this timespan It pays particular attention to the discoveries and theoretical advances of the last twenty years that have necessitated a major revision of received opinions about many aspects of the Bronze Age Arranged thematically it reviews the evidence for a range of topics in cross cultural fashion defining which major characteristics of the period were universal and which culture and area specific The result is a comprehensive study that will be of value to specialists and students while remaining accessible to the non specialist The Agricultural Revolution in Prehistory Graeme Barker, 2009 Addressing one of the most debated revolutions in the history of our species the change from hunting and gathering to farming this title takes a global view and integrates an array of information from archaeology and many other disciplines including anthropology botany climatology genetics linguistics and zoology The Prehistory of Denmark Jorgen Jensen, 2003-10-03 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Wessex Hillforts Project Andrew Payne, Mark Corney, Barry Cunliffe, 2014-06-15 The earthwork forts that crown many hills in Southern England are among the largest and most dramatic of the prehistoric features that still survive in our modern rural landscape The Wessex Hillforts Survey collected wide ranging data on hillfort interiors in a three year partnership between the former Ancient Monuments Laboratory of English Heritage and Oxford University These defended enclosures occupied from the end of the Bronze Age to the last few centuries before the Roman conquest have long attracted archaeological interest and their function remains central to study of the Iron Age The communal effort and high degree of social organisation indicated by hillforts feeds debate about whether they were strongholds of Celtic chiefs communal centres of population or temporary gathering places occupied seasonally or in times of unrest Yet few have been extensively examined archaeologically Using non invasive methods the survey enabled more elaborate distinctions to be made between different classes of hillforts than has hitherto been possible The new data reveals not only the complexity of the archaeological record preserved inside hillforts but also great variation in complexity among sites Survey of the surrounding countryside revealed hillforts to be far from isolated features in the later prehistoric landscape Many have other less visible forms of enclosed settlement in close proximity Others occupy significant meeting points of earlier linear ditch systems and some appear to overlie or be located adjacent to blocks of earlier prehistoric field systems Epidemiology and Prevention of Cardiovascular Diseases Darwin

Labarthe,2011 Epidemiology and Prevention of Cardiovascular Disease A Global Challenge Second Edition provides an in depth examination of epidemiologic research and prevention measures for the full range of cardiovascular diseases CVD This authoritative text on the world s leading causes of death describes in detail the nature of atherosclerotic and hypertensive diseases including their determinants prevention and control as well as policies for intervention in community and clinical settings This Second Edition is fully updated more extensively referenced and expanded to include new information about the public health dimensions of CVD prevention exploring the basis of public health decisions and the process by which decision making bodies develop guidelines and recommendations Epidemiology and Prevention of Cardiovascular Diseases A Global Challenge Second Edition is the essential text for any student or practitioner concerned with global cardiovascular health
