Ballantine, Keith A. Roberts, Kathleen Odell Korgen, 2016-11-30 Inspire your students to develop their sociological imaginations in Our Social World Focused on deep learning rather than memorization this book encourages readers to analyze evaluate and apply information about the social world to see the connection between the world and personal events from a new perspective and to confront sociological issues on a day to day basis Organized around the Social World Model a conceptual framework used across chapters to see the complex links between various micro to macro levels of the social system students will develop the practice of using three levels of analysis and to view sociology as an integrated whole rather than a set of discrete subjects Working with Rural Communities Participatory Action Research in Kenya P. Chitere, Roberta Mutiso, 1991-12-29 This book addresses itself to mobilisation and involvement of rural people in development projects It describes an imperfect but nonetheless exciting and thought provoking exercise that drew social science researchers and students from four public universities in Kenya into an experiment in participatory research community education and development in two locations The experiment was grounded on the assumptions that the people of Kenya are a primary resource and that given proper roles and contribution of planners researchers and programme implementers self sustainable development can become a reality The contributors of this book have focused on the potential of the university to facilitate participation of the people in development They have given specific suggestions on how this might be accomplished Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Catalog of Books ,1996 Extraordinary Behavior Dennis L. Peck, Norman A. Dolch, 2000-10-30 This unique collection of case studies introduces readers to many of the common yet extraordinary social problems in contemporary American society Employing a symbolic interaction approach to the case studies the authors identify the origins of the problems define the issues and explore the outcomes and potential remedies The case studies themselves introduce readers to the very personal side of the problems as the emotions actions and perceptions of the subjects are revealed and analyzed The problems studied here are organized into three categories health related issues family issues and behavior beyond the boundaries and include many problems that often receive too little attention in the existing literature making this book an original and timely contribution Each of the three sections is preceded by a general review of the chapters to follow and offers readers a prelude to the exploration of human thought language and behavior captured and illustrated in the case studies In the first section of the book problems covered include suicide anorexia nervosa alcohol and drug abuse and AIDS STDs The second section covers teenage mothers domestic violence divorce and poverty child support and deadbeat dads and homelessness The last section focuses on sexual harassment equal protection and racial exclusion prostitution career criminals mass murder and serial killers This book represents a fresh new approach and a welcome addition to the study of social problems in America today The Cumulative Book Index ,1997 A world list of
