The Big Red Barn A Let Me Read:

Death, Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth Alice Crosetto, Rajinder Garcha, 2012-11-21 All human beings encounter loss and death as well as the grief associated with these experiences. It is therefore important for children and adolescents to understand that such events are inevitable and to learn how to accept loss and cope with their emotions. In order to help children through their pain, parents and caregivers need access to the proper resources that will help them discuss these topics and educational professionals need reliable resources for creating courses of study on these subjects. In Death, Loss, and Grief in Literature for Youth, Alice Crosetto and Rajinder Garcha identify hundreds of resources that will help educators, professionals, parents, siblings, guardians, and students learn about coping with the loss of a loved one and the grief process. These resources include books, Internet sites, and media titles aimed at students and those helping them through the grieving process. Chapters in this volume include fiction and non-fiction titles about the loss of a family member, a friend, and a pet, as well as general reference resources, curricular resources, and websites. Annotations provide complete bibliographical descriptions of the entries, and each entry is identified with the grade levels for which it is best suited. Reviews from recognized publications are also included wherever possible. Anyone interested in locating helpful resources regarding death and grieving will find much of value in this essential tool.

The Adventures of Anderson Arlen Curtis Matson, 2008-05-06 Set during and after World War II, Curtis Anderson is frequently joined by his three friends from Roosevelt School in suspenseful adventures in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Encumbered with wearing heavy, thick-lensed glasses and carrying a negative reputation with his classmates, his challenge is to prove that leadership and integrity are built by positive experiences. Beginning with a solo ninety-mile bicycle trip, as a twelve-year-old he is joined in the following years by his friends rafting and ski jumping. Another solo trip in a home-made canoe takes him into a forest fire in Canada. In his sophomore year in high school, the four boys find themselves trapped in an iron mine tunnel. Finally entering their senior year in high school, they meet an Amish family and are confronted with a different way of life. Rebuilding an old Peugeot Bicycle together with Luke Miller, and the big Mt. Zion Road Race brings the five boys to a fork in the road. Mr. Miller tells the boys, "We hold to the belief of humility. Competition has a way of promoting pride. Luke will not ride his bike in the race. Will the only ten-speed bicycle in northern Michigan enter the race?" Is sports competition the glory of self? Curtis Anderson encounters
