BREWINGTON BOOK PRIZE WINNER The schooner America was a technological marvel and a child star In the summer of 1851 just weeks after her launching at New York she crossed the Atlantic and sailed to an upset victory against a fleet of champions The silver cup she won that day is still coveted by sportsmen Almost immediately after that famous victory she began a decades long run of adventure neglect rehabilitations and hard sailing always surrounded by colorful passionate personalities America ran and enforced wartime blockades She carried spies across the ocean And she was on the scene as yachtsmen and business titans spent freely and competed fiercely for the cup she first won By the early twentieth century she was in desperate need of a thorough refit The old thoroughbred floated in brackish water at the United States Naval Academy stripped of her sails and rotting in the sun Refitting America would be a massive project expensive and potentially distracting for a nation struggling to emerge from the Great Depression and preparing for a world war But the project had a powerful sponsor On a windy evening in December 1940 the eighty nine year old America was hauled groaning and complaining up a marine railway at Annapolis the first physical step in a rehabilitation rumored to have been set in motion by President Franklin Roosevelt himself The haul out brought the famous schooner into the heart of the Annapolis Yacht Yard a privately owned company with a staff capable of completing such a project but with leadership determined to convert their facility into a modern warship production plant on behalf of the United States and its allies The Last Days of the Schooner America traces the history of the famous vessel from her design build and early racing career through her lesser known Civil War service and the never before told story of her final days and moments on the ground at Annapolis The schooner s story is set against a vivid picture of the entrepreneurial forces behind the fast focused rise of the Annapolis Yacht Yard as the United States prepares for and enters World War II As wooden warships are built around her America waits for a rehabilitation that would never happen To bring this unique story to life Annapolis sailor David Gendell delves into archival sources and oral histories and interviews some of the last living people who saw America at the Annapolis Yacht Yard

Deer Isle's Undeclared America's Cup Crews Mark J. Gabrielson, 2013-04-23 A thrilling tale fit for sailing experts and history buffs alike historian Mark J Gabrielson delivers the exciting tale of the Deer Isle Crew a sailing story that offers an uncommon glimpse into American life at the turn of the twentieth century In 1895 emissaries from the New York Yacht Club traveled to Deer Isle Maine to recruit the nation s best sailors an All American crew This remote island in Penobscot Bay sent nearly thirty of its fishing men to sail Defender and under skipper Hank Haff they beat their opponents in a difficult and controversial series To the delight of the American public the charismatic Sir Thomas Lipton sent a surprise challenge in 1899 The New York Yacht Club knew where to turn and again recruited Deer Isle s fisherman sailors Undeclared in two defense campaigns they are still considered one of the best American sail racing teams ever assembled Read their fascinating story and relive their adventure
