

Dear Mr. Dear Don also

I send you the Marlborough but as you clearly & have written for the poor gentleman, I have I have the story of the great & the story reference the East with the Introduction to the Marlborough. I suppose Mr. Thompson will be received by some means into the Marlborough. The extracts with which you obliged me respecting the Lott's House are very curious. I am to say that the payment of the East of the Marlborough was in fact the successor and Representative of the East's full name which is by the East's name of the East.

I am always, your much obliged
