Excerpt from The Life of the Rt Hon Sir Charles W Dilke Bart M P Vol 1 of 2

The following Life of Sir Charles W Dilke consists mainly of his own Memoirs and of correspondence left by him or furnished by his friends. The Memoirs were compiled by Sir Charles Dilke from his private diaries and letters between the years 1888 and his return to Parliament in 1892. The private diaries consisted of entries made daily at the dates dealt with. Of the Memoirs he says: "These notes are bald but I thought it best not to try as the phrase goes to write them up. In some cases the Memoirs have been condensed into narrative for Sir Charles says of the periods his notes cover: "These chapters contain everything that can be used and more than is needed and changes should be by way of boiling down." The Memoirs were unfinished. He writes in May 1893: "From this time forward I shall not name my speeches and ordinary action in the House as I had now regained the position which I held up to 1878 though not my position of 1878-1880 nor that of 1884-85 and as from this point onwards there are few entries." Chapters treating of his varied activities have been contributed by those competent to deal with them.
