The Leipziger Platz Urban Architecture For A New Berlin:

The New Berlin Karen E. Till, An innovative exploration of German memory national identity and modernity embodied in the public spaces of the new capital Staging the New Berlin Claire Colomb, 2013-06-17 This book explores the politics of place marketing and the process of urban reinvention in Berlin between 1989 and 2011 In the context of the dramatic socio economic restructuring processes changes in urban governance and physical transformation of the city following the Fall of the Wall the new Berlin was not only being built physically but staged for visitors and Berliners and marketed to the world through events and image campaigns which featured the iconic architecture of large scale urban redevelopment sites Public private partnerships were set up specifically to market the new Berlin to potential investors tourists Germans and the Berliners themselves The book analyzes the images of the city and the narrative of urban change which were produced over two decades In the 1990s three key sites were turned into icons of the new Berlin the new Postdamer Platz the new government quarter and the redeveloped historical core of the Friedrichstadt Eventually the entire inner city was staged through a series of events which turned construction sites into tourist attractions New sites and spaces gradually became part of the 2000s place marketing imagery and narrative as urban leaders sought to promote the creative city By combining urban political economy and cultural approaches from the disciplines of urban politics geography sociology and planning the book contributes to a better understanding of the interplay between the symbolic politics of representation through place marketing and the politics of urban development and place making in contemporary urban governance Urban Design Jon Lang, 2006-08-11 Urban Design provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to urban design presenting a 3 dimensional model with which to categorise the processes and products involved It not only defines the subject but also considers the future direction of the field and what can be learned from the past 50 international case studies demonstrate the variety of urban design efforts that have occurred in recent history By Design 2, 1989 New Landscape Design Robert Holden, 2003 In addition the book provides the reader with insight into many of the other concerns facing landscape architects such as the image and the function of urban spaces ecological survival sustainability native people and their settlements environmental education and the role and nature of human settlement Detailed technical information presented in accessible format with full color illustrations Careful examination of past designs provides unique resource for landscape architects to learn and improve their own work Clear focus on modern examples helps architects meet uniquely modern challenges such as urban sprawl and environmental concerns Introducing Urban Design Clara Greed, Marion Roberts, 2014-10-14 Introducing Urban Design Interventions and Responses is a new departure in the town planning series under the editorship of Clara Greed The dynamic new subject and profession of urban design straddles the fields of town planning architecture landscape architecture and transport planning This book recognises that a key feature of modern urban design practice is the ability to integrate a concern with the visual and aesthetic aspects of urban form with a strong social awareness of the need of user groups plus a sensitivity to wider environmental and sustainability issues In this it continues the themes already introduced in earlier volumes such as the changing nature of the profession social problems and the means of implementing policy Written by a team of eminent urban designers architects and planners under the joint editorship of Clara Greed and Marion Roberts the book introduces the reader to the subject through a discussion of current issues approaches and user responses Introducing Urban Design Interventions and Responses is an ideal resource for undergraduate courses in town planning architecture landscape architecture estate management and housing studies It is also suitable as an introductory text for first year diploma and masters programmes in urban design and suitable for RTPI RICS CIOH CIOB ASI ISVA and RIBA courses and will be of interest to professional practitioners in the urban design field
