Visions of Belonging Julia B. Rosenbaum, 2006 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries depictions of New England flooded the American art scene Childe Hassam Willard Metcalf Theodore Robinson and Julian Weir and other well known artists produced images of quaint villages agricultural labor scenic rural churches and the distinctive New England landscape Julia B Rosenbaum asks why and how a range of artists including Impressionist and Modernist painters and sculptors and exhibitors fashioned this particular vision of New England in their work Against the backdrop of industrialization immigration and persistent post Civil War sectionalism many Americans yearned for national unity and identity As Rosenbaum finds New England emerged as symbolic of cultural and spiritual achievement and democratic values that served as an example for the nation By addressing the struggles for national unity the book offers a new interpretation of turn of the century American art Ultimately Visions of Belonging demonstrates how the local became so important to the national how art was crucial to the formation of national identity and how internal nation building takes place within the realm of culture as well as politics And even as later artists such as Georgia O Keeffe challenged New England s cultural hegemony the appeal of linking regional identity to national ideals continued in distinctive ways Beautifully illustrated with color plates and almost sixty halftones Visions of Belonging explores the interplay between art objects and the shaping of loyalties and identities in a formative phase of American culture It will appeal not only to art historians but also to anyone with an interest in nineteenth century studies the Gilded Age and Progressive Era American studies New England history and culture and American cultural and intellectual history Paintings and Sculpture in the Collection of the National Academy of Design: 1826-1925 David Bernard Dearing, National Academy of Design (U.S.), 2004 This is the first installment of a fully illustrated catalogue of the Academy s priceless collection of paintings and sculptures
