Emerson's Ghosts Randall Fuller, 2007-09-07 It is increasingly commonplace to find scholars who circle back to Ralph Waldo Emerson and his intellectual heirs as a way of better understanding contemporary social and aesthetic contexts Why does Emerson's cultural legacy continue to influence writers so forcefully In this innovative study Randall Fuller examines the way pivotal twentieth century critics have understood and deployed Emerson as part of their own larger projects aimed at reconceiving America He examines previously unpublished material and original research on Van Wyck Brooks Perry Miller F O Matthiessen and Sacvan Bercovitch along with other supporting thinkers An engaging institutional history of American literary studies in the twentieth century Emerson's Ghosts reveals the unexpected convergent forces that have shaped American cultural history in lasting ways

Picturing the Land Marylin Jean McKay, 2011 The vast Canadian landscape has captured the imagination of visual artists since the first European contact Although artistic engagement with the landscape has a long history some periods have drawn considerable critical attention while others have been left almost unexamined Picturing the Land surveys work from coast to coast from the earliest maps to postwar painting in English and French Canada To provide a comprehensive view of Canadian landscape art Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marylin McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada
